

SCOUT COURT HONOR AT H. S. TONIGHT

Now Here's the Proposition

Unch. Hank of Hills Corners Sez:

Trubbel with a lot of fellers is a loose connection between their tongue and their brains. It's gonna be a big piece of luck for sum cigaret kumpany when the kwintuplets tell what brand they like to smoke. If it's necessary fer' anybody to talk themselves foolish, better let the other feller do it.

Mayme

When these hotstotof bands sparkle out their do-ra-me And horn players jiggle all over the place, I oft drop a tear as I think me of Mayme Who played the piano with finish and grace. How I stood by her side as she pecked out "Narcissus," Which doubtless was punk but I thought it was grand; I dreamed of the day when she might be my missus And wished she would quit and start holding my hand. As an artist today she would hardly rank middle She wasn't quit gaga and that was enough; She didn't bounce round like a flea on a griddle. And throw in this hotcha and hi-de-ho stuff. Alas for the years that have sluiced down the spillway! And ravaged the beauty that once was divine; Old Time has snuk up and grabbed off in his still way. A handful of ringlets that used to be mine; But I'll bet too that Mayme is somewhat expanded. No doubt she is formless and bunched and fat; Though I leave you, with grace to the guy that you landed, Good luck to you Mayme, where'er you are at!

Petition Funds to Aid State College

Members of the Michigan Press association in their recent annual meeting at East Lansing adopted two resolutions affecting the culture, education and pocketbooks of residents throughout the state. One requests Governor Frank Murphy and the state legislature to recognize the needs for buildings and maintenance appropriations for Michigan State College and the other seeks an appropriation of $150,000 to advertise the state. Education and the tourist-resort business were considered of vital importance by the 200 editors attending the sessions. In the resolution concerning the college the press association of weekly and daily newspapers called attention to the inadequate buildings and other educational facilities of Michigan State College. In contrast to the lack of new buildings, the editors compared the enrollment growth at the college. Student numbers have been increasing at the rate of about 700 each year, more than doubling attendance in the last 10 years. Editors voiced approval of the college building program when they learned that of the more than 4,600 enrolled at the college, 87 per cent are from Michigan counties. The pocketbook angle concerns the tourist and resort business which is second in financial importance in Michigan only to the automobile industry. Through a comparatively small increase in the appropriation for advertising the state the editors expressed their judgment that greater returns can be obtained from the business of serving this tourist-resort trade.

Bucks Drop Close Game to Niles

Failure to Realize on Charity Shots Loses For Maroons By Chuck Wesner Buchanan's ace five dropped a hair-splitter to Niles' red-legged cagers in the waning seconds of the game, in fact only a mere 20 were left, when Hable dropped in the winning bucket which gave the Nilesites a 17 to 16 win over the Buccaneers. Niles started off the proceedings with two fast felders by Kraft. Virgil broke into the scoring column with a gift shot and bounce felder Luke dropped one in from the side court and Kraft tied the count with a shot from the black line. Luke and Simpson whipped two quick shots into the mesh and then held off the sallies of the Reds holding them scoreless. The third was disastrous to the Bucks when they made good only one out of three shots. Niles went to town and pushed six valuable counters into the hoop. Buchanan jumped into the lead when Letter threaded the old iron with a double pointer. A goal by J. Cook and a brace of free shots by Huff again placed the Reds on top of the heap. Simpson and Jesse worked around and converted once each from afield. Jesse's shot came with about a minute to play and the Bucktown roofers went wild. Trying desperately to stave off a rally near the Niles goal was a bit too much for the Bucks when Hable flipped a screwy shot high onto the backboard and it fell through the cords. The referee called a foul on Virgil with the shot and he received a goodly number of catcalls and jeers from the spectators. Hable did not convert and the gun barked, thus marking the third year that Niles successfully defended their record on their home court. The Niles reserves were not so fortunate when they bit into the Buck Reserves and were beaten to the tune of 28 to 19. The Reserves have a record to boast of with 8 scalps hanging to their belts, while losing only two decisions in their campaign.

Food Emphasis in Local Stores Shift For Lenten Regulations

Frozen Fish From Canada Comes In; Quick-Freezing of Meats Figures

Additional supplies of frozen fish are coming in to the Buchanan stores this week to supply the demands of the Lenten diet, practically all supplies coming this year from Canada rather than from Baltimore and other points on the east coast of the United States as formerly. The supply of fresh lake trout and white fish from Lake Michigan is lacking this year, not only because of the fact that rough weather has prevented the fishing boats at the Twin Cities and other lake points from going out, but also because the heavy inroads of the past few years have cut down the supply. Lenten meat regulations went into effect yesterday. Observance of Lent by Buchanan people has a considerable effect in shifts in food sales, according to local merchants, not only in the shift from meat to fish, cheese and other substitutes, but in the volume of food sold. The chief increase is, of course, in the sale of fish, the fish being the emblem of abstinence. Contrary to the belief of many who do not belong to the denominations observing Lent, consumption of meat is not restricted every day during Lent, but only on Wednesday, Friday and on part of the Saturdays. There is no food restriction on Sundays. On other days the devotee is limited to the consumption of the equivalent of two ounces of dry food for breakfast, four ounces for a quarter of a pound for one other meal and one full meal either at noon or night according to preference. The old-time regulation rule fish at the same meal has been waived, and the two can be eaten at the same meal now. The usual Lenten breakfast is one piece of toast or its equivalent, and a cup of beverage as desired. These abstinence rules apply to every day of the week except Sundays during Lent. On fast days, which include Wednesdays, Fridays and part of the Saturdays no meat may be eaten at any meal. These regulations apply to all 21 or over and under 60, except where special dispensations are made or where the individual is given concessions because of other penances. Buchanan people are now accustomed to the consumption of cold-storage fish throughout the winter and the modern quick-freeze process retains the original freshness and firmness to a surprising degree. The sale of perch, haddock, mackerel and other fish in fillet form has been a development of the last three or four years, time being required to break down the prejudice against the cold-storage fish. $$$

Lamb A Good Buy

Oh, give me a home, a home on the range, where the deer and the antelope play and seldom is heard a discouraging word—except that lambs look a price slump today. Anyway that is the word that some of the lamb feeders heard out in their homes on the range this winter and as a result the American Meat Institute has been running an eat-more-lamb campaign, announcing that lamb is a good buy on the market today and cheaper by quite a margin than it was a year ago, or a month ago.

New Angle on Romance of Groceries

Speaking of tea, it may interest you to know that the Michigan Central was built through Buchanan with money derived from the Chinese tea trade. In 1837 the first of the famous Yankee clipper ships set out for the Orient for a cargo of tea. The business prospered amazingly for a few years and then began to drop off. The American tea merchants who lived for the most part in Boston began to look about for other places to invest their money. About this time, 1845-7, young civil engineer, John W. Brooks, looked over the already decrepit railway property of the state of Michigan, the Michigan Central, then built as far as Kalamazoo. He was sold on the idea that in the right hands there was a future to the Michigan Central, if it could be gotten out of state hands and built on to Chicago. There was no money in the west and he went to Boston, where he interested (Continued on Page 4)

WOULD THE YOUNG FOLKS OF BUCHANAN BE INTERESTED IN A READING ROOM?

By Marion Miller One of the distinct disadvantages which young people living in a town of Buchanan's size face is a lack of proper reading material. Unless one's parents are intellectually inclined, or of more than moderate means, books are an item not included in the family budget. It is useless to deny that good books and current reading material are expensive, and so the average family subscribes to a few monthly periodicals and perhaps buys an occasional book. Yet the young people from these homes, starved for literature and new outlets, read, and what do they read?—Visit one of the rental libraries and observe closely the books taken out; a good love-story is always in demand, while the classics gather dust upon the book shelves, "True Story," "True Romance," "Western Thrillers," and cheap "Movie Romances," are also extremely popular. What viewpoints and sordid outlooks on life these young persons will have if they read such literature during their most formative years?

The logical solution to such a difficult problem is to have a reading room. Such a place could easily be provided here in Buchanan by converting the room used by the city council for their meetings, into an up-to-date reading room. This is adjacent to the city library and most conveniently located for such a purpose. The expense of maintaining this room would be practically negligible; the only cost presenting itself would be in reading material itself. School students would serve as librarians and gain valuable experience while so doing.

Another advantage would be the almost unlimited recreational resources it would afford. The new recreation room recently opened in the Presbyterian Church basement, provides an outlet for physical energy, but young people need mental stimulus as well as physical and the proposed reading room will certainly help to balance this program. During the adolescent years, from ten to twenty particularly, the young person's ideas of life and people are being formulated. How can one solve a clean and wholesome standard of living when the only ideas he gathers are those propagated by lurid magazines, obscene books, and over-sexed motion pictures? It is during these years that the appreciation and enjoyment of good books should be learned.

Such a place would also serve as an excellent means for interesting children and young people in various hobbies such as aviation, radio, stamps, and coin collection. There are innumerable magazines of a technical nature published weekly and monthly, and these are invaluable in broadening and improving the high school boy's mind and they may even help him to choose his life's vocation. Especially is this true in the fields of aviation and radio. In a community reading room these technical magazines, which are usually interesting to but one member of the family, would be available.

The student who does not read is quite likely to be one who does not think. In this modern world the man who cannot read is lost. He cannot properly appreciate the arts; he cannot work at a profession or even rate intelligently. Reading profoundly affects both character and personality during the growing years. I firmly believe that the young people of Buchanan will be keenly interested and will heartily support such a public-spirited project for it will benefit them primarily. To introduce good literature to these young people is indeed a worthy goal, and one which every careful thinking individual should help to further. "While you converse with lords and dukes, I have their betters here—my books. Fixed in an elbow chair at ease, I choose my companions as I please."

City Has Hardest Touch of Winter

Cold Spell Welcome as Warm Weather Nips Wheat; Threatens Fruit

The most genuine brand of winter that Buchanan has experienced this year set in Tuesday evening with temperatures reported as low as 4 above on Wednesday morning and snows that were still falling last night. Farmers report that the change is welcome as the warm temperatures, especially since the first of the year, have done much damage to winter wheat and have been threatening fruit buds. Experienced fruit men affirm that the buds have not been damaged yet.

The first ice fishing of the season has been in progress at near-by lakes for the past week, the ice being about five inches thick on Clear Lake, Dayton Lake and Pike Lake. Excellent catches of bluegills and spotted bass are reported at Pike Lake.

Skaters have been enjoying the sport on Clear Lake and Pike Lake, and it is reported that the ice to date has been excellent for skating, although hardly as thick in places as could be desired. Don Chaney broke through on Pike Lake Sunday, but the water was only to his hips.

NOTICE ON FLOOD RELIEF

It has been suggested that there are still many in the community who would like to give food stuff for the relief of the flood victims. If that is true the American Legion would like to offer its services as they did before and will see that any potatoes, canned goods or other non-perishable foods reach the flood area. Bedding may also be used but there is an adequate supply of clothing. Bring what you wish to the city hall and the Legion will care for it there, sending it on as soon as the weather permits the shipment of potatoes.

The American Legion wishes to express its appreciation to the community as a whole for the fine spirit of co-operation shown in the community flood relief project. It has given us a great deal of pleasure to serve as the organizing center, but we fully realize the success of the plan was entirely yours. The American Legion.

F. expect to induct another class of five candidates next Monday evening. The Buchanan I. O. O. F. degree team has been invited to do the work. Eleven new members were added to their membership last month. A lunch will be served by a committee after the initiation. The 4H club held a meeting on Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Thelma Heckathorn. It was voted to sell tickets on a radio and basket of groceries. The money will be sent to the flood sufferers. They also will hold a bake sale at the Rünner hardware Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Schawber and family of Niles spent Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Heckathorn. Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Richter spent Sunday afternoon at the home of her mother, Mrs. Mary Matthews of Buchanan. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Martin and daughter of South Bend spent Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Martin. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Seabast and son, Harold, Buchanan, were callers Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Julius Reinke. Floyd Martin is visiting at the home of his brother, Loyal Martin, at South Bend. SUGAR BEETS ARE TOUGH!
THEY RESIST BAD WEATHER

The fact that Sugar Beets are tough is one of the many advantages of raising this profitable crop. In most all weather extremes, beets can "take it." Thus if you get up against hot weather, cold weather, hail, wet or dry weather, your beets are safer than any other major cultivated crop. Experience has shown that sugar beets are less affected by bad weather, than other crops, and the chances for a satisfactory return from acreage planted to beets are definitely more certain. Also, remember these things: Sugar Beets are not a surplus crop. There is always a sure market for all you can grow.

Big yields and increased acreage do not lower the price per ton. Sugar Beets are a Key crop in any rotation program. They fit well into the rotation, making farm labor distribution more uniform, save time and labor in preparing seed beds for the following crop. Better yields of grain are the rule following Sugar Beets. We suggest that you grow Sugar Beets annually. In so doing you will start operating on a better profit basis and there is ample evidence to back this statement. A good resolution for 1937: Grow Sugar Beets! Farmers and Manufacturers Best Sugar Association, Saginaw, Mich.

Down Hill to The White House

Abraham Lincoln's road to fame led down hill most of the way. The milestones of his progress were nearly all tombstones, marking the graves of his hopes.

Lincoln was Defeated:

for the Illinois legislature, at 23; * for speaker of the Illinois House, at 30; * again, for that office, at 32; * for Congress, at 34; * for presidential elector, at 35; * for land office commissioner, at 40; * again, for presidential elector, at 43; * for the United States Senate, at 46; * for Vice President of the United States, at 47; * again, for the Senate, at 49.

But, at 52, Abraham Lincoln, the backwoods boy, was President of the United States in the nation's darkest hour, and a "man for the ages". His life is the most shining exemplification of American ideals, and of the power of individual courage and determination.

FOOD EMPHASIS IN LOCAL STORES SHIFT

ed a very remarkable man, Arthur Murray Forbes, a close friend of Emerson, later, of Lincoln, and a man whose career as a boy merchant in the Orient outmarvels Aladdin. Forbes saw the possibilities of the road and interested some of his fellow merchants who saw that the tea trade was slipping. They invested, built the road to Chicago, built the start of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy first as a feeder and then as a giant system, and went on from there.

More Meat in Small Prunes
"Here's something that the average housewife doesn't understand," said a Buchanan merchant, "She prefers large prunes, not only for the looks but because she thinks that they have less waste in them than the small ones. That's an error. There is actually more net 'meat,' exclusive of the stones, in a pound of small prunes than in a pound of large ones."
$ $ $ $

Price Psychology
"One idea that many housewives have," said a Buchanan merchant, "is that an article priced at three for a quarter is cheaper per unit than another priced at two for fifteen cents. When two similar articles, such as bars of soap, are priced that way it is not unusual to have a woman take the three-for-a-quarter article solely with the idea that it is cheaper. There's something in the sound of 'three for a quarter' that makes it seem a bargain. In fact the three-for-a-quarter article is 8 1/3 cents each and the two-for-fifteen is 7 1/2 cents each."
$ $ $ $

Quick Frozen Smelt
An instance of how seasons are widened by modern preservative methods is the fact that you can get Michigan quick-frozen smelt in Buchanan the year around. The quick-freezing preserves the fish in almost its original freshness and firmness. A number of times they have been sold in Buchanan this winter and have proven popular buys.

Preserving Milk by Freezing
Fresh milk on board ship and in places where a supply of good milk is unobtainable is now possible, according to a new method perfected by the U. S. Bureau of Dairy Industry. The process, which has been patented and given to the public, is a simple one of concentrating and freezing the milk. The frozen product may then be shipped long distances and held for weeks before use, when it is thawed and enough water added to bring it back to its original volume.

In the process, the fresh, whole milk is pasteurized and condensed, then homogenized and packaged in suitable containers. Following this it is frozen, but unlike the freezing of natural milk, the emulsion of the milk is not destroyed. By first concentrating the milk to one-third of its original volume it can be frozen without injuring its properties. It is then about the concentration of canned milk, but instead of heating the milk to a high temperature to sterilize it, in the new process the milk is kept sweet by cooling down below freezing and holding there.
—Country Gentleman.

Peculiar Hallucination
A most peculiar hallucination is the one in which a man constantly imagines that he sees himself or his "double." Not only does he see this apparitional individual peering at him from mirrors but often sitting in a chair as he enters a room or walking in front of him as he goes down the street.—Collier's Weekly.

Mythical Queen of Libya
Lamia was a mythical queen of Libya, who, on being robbed of her own children by Hera, devoted her life to strangling and eating children. Later she was portrayed as a vampire who seduced and then sucked the life-blood of young men.

Michigan Windstorm Shows a Fine Gain

The annual meeting of the Michigan Mutual Windstorm Insurance Company of Hastings, Michigan, was held at the home office, Wednesday, January 20. Directors were elected, and officers were chosen as follows: L. W. Sunday, president; Guy E. Creek, vice-president; E. A. Parker, secretary-treasurer, all residents of Hastings. These officers have served this company capably in these positions for a number of years.

This big company has had a very satisfactory year. The amount of insurance in force is $405,732,921, an increase during the year of $16,352,505. This represents 112,084 policies, a gain of 4,730.

The Windstorm Company, capably managed, enters 1937 in excellent condition, has over half a century of experience back of it, with an enviable reputation in the state of Michigan for its prompt and fair adjustment and payment of losses of its policy holders.

The treasurer's report showed that the company is in the very finest condition financially. It has government bonds amounting to $564,206.26. It has available cash in banks of $168,204.32, or total cash resources of $732,410.58 with which to pay future losses. In addition the company owns its building and equipment and other assets of $342,549.11, making total assets of $1,074,959.60. — The Lowell Ledger.

The Thunder Bird

The thunder-bird is an Australian thick-headed shrike (Pachycephala pectoralis). It is about six inches long, rich-yellow below, with a jet-black collar and white throat, black head and partly black tail. It was called by Latham "guttural thrush, Turdus gutturalis, and black-breasted flycatcher, Muscivora pectoralis"; by others, "white-throated thickhead." It has also a variety of French and New Latin names. In the mythology of some low tribes, the thunder-bird is an imaginary bird supposed to cause thunder by the flapping of its wings, or considered as personifying it.

Trees Produce Silky Floss

Unique, among trees, which have been transplanted to Miami is the silk cotton, which attains a height of 30 feet and produces a silky floss in pods which is used to stuff cushions, mattresses and life preservers.

What Obligations Do I Have To My Bank?

Your bank assumes important obligations when it accepts your money for deposit. In return it asks from you:—
Your confidence, for without the confidence of depositors no bank can operate successfully.
Your support of its policy of making only sound loans and investments of your money and that of other depositors.
Your understanding and endorsement of the fundamental banking principle that in order to give you and the community a sound, well managed bank it must avoid operating losses in conducting its accounts. It does this through moderate service charges where circumstances require.

A bank is primarily a community enterprise. While good management and good service are essential it cannot operate successfully without the confidence and aid of its depositors.

MOVIES

Shirley, In China, Does as Chinese Do

Now she's in China! Who? None other than Shirley Temple! She even talks and sings Chinese, and she takes charge of a fascinating romance, faces danger in glittering Shanghai, performs in a Chinese Theatre and, in short, plays the most unusual role she's ever had, in her new and most thrill-filled picture, "Stowaway," which opens Sunday for 3 days.
It's a picture for your "must" list—with a gripping story, a glamorous cast of great stars, Gordon and Revel's latest song hits, and—first, last and always—the incomparable Shirley!

Little Miss Temple plays the role of a little orphaned waif adrift in China, a victim of the bandits. She becomes an unwitting stowaway on a cruise liner on which Robert Young, a bored millionaire, Alice Faye, and the latter's moter-in-law-to-be are traveling.

Comedy-Romance Stays

The romance of a pair of scatter-brained Chicago reporters who were sure of everything except the obvious fact that they wanted to get married keeps audiences chuckling at the Hollywood Theatre this week Friday and Saturday, where Joan Bennett and Cary Grant are currently appearing in "Wedding Present." The comedy-romance has as its climax a scene in which Grant sends Miss Bennett all of New York's mobile city equipment as a gift, when she is about to marry another man.

A 5 Star Picture

Starring together for the first time in three years, William Powell and Carole Lombard soon will be seen on the Hollywood theatre screen in Universal's "My Man Godfrey," which advance Hollywood reports declare to be excellent madcap romantic comedy. The picture is scheduled for Friday and Saturday.

The story deals with the exploits of a whimsical butler in the most rattle-brained family in Manhattan. He manages to soothe the fevered hangover brow of the mother; batter down the arrogance of one daughter; dodge the affectionate aims of the other with 99 1/2 percent success, and save the father's fortune.

Something Decidedly New

A drama with music, deftly relieved by comedy and enlivened by several new song hits, combine to make "Banjo on My Knee," the Twentieth Century-Fox picture which opens Wednesday for 2 days, a hit screen production. Add to this a story that is distinctly different in theme and plot construction; with the locale of Tobacco Road and for characters the shanty-boaters who live, love and die on their ramshackle barges on the lower Mississippi, and the sum total is something new in movie entertainment.

Fighting—loving—laughing—weeping, the tempestuous emotions of these picturesque children of the mighty river stir the blood and intrigue the interest of everyone, from opening scene to thrilling climax. The selection of a cast to delineate these difficult roles was little short of inspired, with Barbara Stanwyck and Joel McCrea co-starred, supported by such talented and popular players as Helen Westly, Buddy Ebsen, Walter Brennan, Walter Catlett, Anthony Martin and Katherine de Mille.

News of Buchanan Schools

Collected and Edited By Members of the Journalism Class

EDITORIAL

(By Keith Dalrymple)

At the time Buchanan High School was built, it was probably never realized that the enrollment would ever become as large as it is today. B. H. S. is already overcrowded and with the increased attendance, every year, it appears that an enlargement of the building will be the only solution to this problem. Now, when this time comes why can't we have lockers, possibly similar to those in the boys' and girls' locker rooms, placed in the halls? These lockers would not only be more convenient for everyone, but also they would add to the appearance of the halls. Of course, there could be small lockers, just large enough for our gym clothing, put in the old locker rooms. A small fee for the use of the lockers could be charged at the start of each new year, and that particular improvement would pay for itself in a few years. It is a fact that this solution is in sympathy with the students as well as some of the teachers.

OUR BROTHERHOOD

A secret organization called, "The Brotherhood," has been going full force around Buchanan for the past two years. It's membership is rather small, only having seven members, but it has a poppy little bunch of fellows in it.

The members are merited by their behavior, and one strict rule is not to be too friendly with the girls. Well, as our story goes, we organized with Bud Jesse as "big chief." (We didn't know him then as we now do.) and there he remained until he lost his football sweater. (We think Bessie Crothers found it someplace.) This knocked him right off of the throne and after this, we put Dale Letter up on the high seat. He did fairly well for a while, but one day we caught him flirting with May Britt Malmberg. Of course he was put on the block for detection, but we compromised with him by letting Dale Simpson share the job of Commander-in-Chief with him.

In addition to Dale Letter and Dale Simpson the other members are: Bud Jesse, Bob Fairman, Richard Donley, Don Beck and Keith Dalrymple.

Who's Who

SENIOR

Joe Bachman, Joe has very dark brown hair and eyes, and is about 5 feet 11 inches tall. He has earned two letters in football, and he captained the team last year. Joe is very interested in art and should be, because he shows distinct talent in that field. His figures and character sketches are especially good. He says, "I like all popular songs." Joe dances a great deal and has become very adept at it. His final statement was, "I wish some senior girls would quit messin' around." It does seem that a football captain is strong enough to take care of himself.

JUNIOR

Marie Briney, Marie has blond curly hair, and big blue eyes. Her favorite outdoor sport is soccer, and she enjoys dancing anytime. Gary Grant is her favorite movie actor, but he doesn't appear in her choice of the year, which is, "Gold Diggers of 1937." The song she likes best, "Plenty of Money and You," is also from that show. Roast duck will tempt Marie to eat when nothing else can.

FRESHMAN

Wanda Fergue, Wanda has brown wavy hair and dark brown eyes. She says that algebra is her favorite subject. She considers Robert Taylor the most outstanding movie actor of the year. "Ladies in Love," is her choice for the best movie of the year. Although Wanda is rather young, she loves to attend dances. Ice cream in any form is the most delicious food that Wanda has ever found.

SCHOOL SLANTS

Ah! Me! The full school days of this semester! It seems that every week there are several new events or extra-curricular activities which take place. There are, of course, the regularly scheduled basketball games, and two of the important, Niles and Dowagiac were played in the last two weeks, and Berrien Springs is to be played very soon.

Annual sales, with a special assembly to announce the start of sales, has meant added work and responsibility for the seniors. A social hour was sponsored by the band last Thursday and interclass was held Friday night.

Is it true that Bud Jesse received ample pay from a certain girl for the fine playing he did in the Niles game? It is rumored that he was not the only "star" to benefit from that game.

Why do many boys blush in Mr. Elbers' economics class when purchasing a home or furniture to "settle down" is mentioned?

Who is the junior boy with the cute red headed girl friend in Benton Harbor by the name of "Rusty"?

SENIOR CLASS MEETING

The big bugaboo of the senior class, President Melvin Campbell, presided at a class meeting held Tuesday, Feb. 2, during home room period. Marion Miller, Virginia Wright, and Bob Stevens gave pep talks on this year's annual and the need for selling the necessary 200 copies. A counting of the stubs revealed that just a few over 100 had been sold. Mrs. Dunbar and Mr. Hyink, class advisors, attended the meeting.

SOPHOMORE CLASS MEETING

A sophomore class meeting was held Wednesday during home room period. This meeting was held in order to raise money for their pictures to be put in the annual. Each person must bring 15 cents. Later they will have candy sales and try to get the check room to raise money to repay each person.

WE SEZ

The journalism book is a game of Hyde and seek. Mr. Hyde wrote it and we "seek" to know what it's about.

Housman is getting too bright again. Looks like Beadle will have to get out, one of the notes which Housman wrote to Montgomery.

Beck appears to be the latest victim of the "Fourth Street Vamps." Careful, Don.

Marion Miller and "Windy" Smith make a swell pair.

Bessie Crothers is still chewing her gum very vigorously. Maybe she's out for a record.

"Milly" Miller looks out of the window in journalism class very intently every third hour. Walk slower, Ben, so she can watch you longer.

We wish that a certain Weaver would ask Miss De Nardo for a date. Perhaps that would stop her exclamations about him.

MICROPHONE EXCHANGE

Some of you may not have known that the Microphone staff exchanges papers with the different schools around us, for this reason we feel that it should be explained to you to acquaint our readers with that fact.

You may have read in the masthead of the Microphone about the exchange editor and wondered what this person does. The duty of the exchange editor is to send our own paper in exchange for those of other schools. These papers are then compared with the Microphone.

The different schools concerned in this exchange are: New Carlisle, Gallen, Mishawaka, Central, and Dowagiac.

HAVE YOU NOTICED?

Ivan Price's new Betty?

Rex Proud's come hither eyes?

Art Trapp's sweet ways?

Mildred Ashby's swell figure?

"Tubby" Haroff's admirer's?

Maxine Chrismore's feminine smile?

"Doggie" Luke's affection for Geneva Babcock?

TWO NEW COURSES ADDED

Two new subjects have been added in the field of the social science for the high school students.

A course in economics open to juniors and seniors will be taught the second semester of each year following a semester's work in United States government. The aims of this course are to familiarize the students with some of the basic laws operating in the different phases of economics: consumption, production, exchange of surpluses, and distribution. In the field of consumption we aim to do a little practical laboratory work in home budgeting saving through correct buying, and the evils of installment buying. The final aim is to study some of the economic problems society faces under modern conditions.

The text used is, Economic Problems of Today. The course is taught by Mr. Elbers and consists of two sections including 50 students. The students will make note books during the semester.

The other subject which has been added is a course in occupations, which is open to students of all four classes. The study of occupations in high school work is being given a great deal of consideration in many schools. This course of study is expressed in the aims of the course which are to help the student evaluate his own abilities, to instruct them in the characteristics of the different occupations such as monetary reward, stability of employment, physical or mental qualities, required years of preparation needed to fit one for a task in that occupation, and opportunities for advancement, etc. So help the student determine for himself what occupation he is best suited.

We shall also make a survey of the occupational opportunities near at hand. The number of students enrolled is 38, and the text book used "Occupations," by Eberer is taught by Mr. Elbers. A note book will be kept containing the important clippings and writings that are beneficial to the course.

OFFICE NEWS

A school board meeting was held at the high school Feb. 2. A social hour was held Feb. 4. In the future social hour will be held every Wednesday night.

During home room a course will be offered in Safety. The correct way to operate an automobile will be the main subject. A general study of State Laws regarding its driving will be made. A text book called "The Driver," will be given free by the Automobile Club of Michigan.

SCOTTIE PINS SOLD

The students of the art class are selling Scottie dogs and monogrammed pins. When a student obtains an order, he must first figure the purchaser's initials in to a monogram suitable for a pin. Afterward comes the task of carving the pin. The art students are working industriously on the project under the direction of Miss Eunice Miller, art instructor.

NOT SO GOOD AND NOT SO BAD

Taken from Wallace Nutting's "England Beautiful."

Willie appeared in the old town one day. It had been long since anyone had seen him. He inquired for all the old cronies. "Where is Dave?" "He's gone to sea." "Where is Jim?" "Nobody knew. Finally somebody said, 'Jim? He's dead.'" "Oh! If he's dead, I know where he is."

"But, Willie, where have you been all this time?" "I sailed for America."

"That's good."

"Not so good; we were cast ashore."

"That's bad."

"Not so bad; the folks were good to us, gave me a job, and I married a woman who brought me 75."

"That's good."

"Not so good; she was a terrible one to live with."

"That's bad."

"Not so bad; we bought a tavern with the money."

"That's good."

"Not so good; a fire burned it all up."

"That's bad."

"Not so bad; it burned up the old woman with it."

G. A. A.

Girls Athletics are progressing splendidly this semester. About thirty girls are participating in the basketball games which are held each Monday and Thursday. Some of the girls will soon have enough points to join the G. A. A.

HANSEN NEARLY TAKES A RIDE

A few of the fellows in second hour physics class last Friday apparently decided that they didn't need "Snipe." Hansen's company any more, so they proceeded to get rid of him.

Their plan went off splendidly until just as they were placing him in the fire escape located at the south end of the west wing of the building, who should walk in but Mr. Moore, and Harold appeared to consider it not as entertaining as the rest of the class.

WE SEZ

We wish we were freshmen again—

Even being sophomores wouldn't be bad—

Buchanan will beat Niles tomorrow night—

Wesner and Levin make good lovers—

Ed Smith makes a good henpecked husband with Marian Miller as the wife—

Tom Fitch thinks the pictures on the boys locker doors are entertaining—

The whole journalism class is on a diet (believe it or not)—

SCHOOL SLANTS

The burning question which now occupies everyone's mind at school is whether or not the basketball team will be able to defeat Niles on Friday night. A rousing pep meeting is anticipated for that afternoon, and it is hoped that it will do much to start the team off toward a necessary victory over their deadly rivals. Their winning streak was broken by Bridgman, but there is still time to start another one before the season is ended.

BING CROSBY'S song hit, "Pennies from Heaven" is literally true in terms of electricity, for rain drops are changed to steam that makes "Cheap Electricity."

When you cook electrically, you also have Heaven from Pennies. At our new low cooking rate, you may have freedom from kitchen drudgery so cheaply that you cannot afford to be without it.

Another Long Distance Rate Reduction

ON JANUARY 15, 1937

Eight reductions in about ten years have substantially cut the cost of Long Distance telephone service.

Further reductions in Long Distance rates became effective January 15th.

Many rates, for calls to points outside of Michigan more than 42 miles distant, are reduced.

All day rates for such calls are reduced. Many night and all-day Sunday rates for such calls also are reduced.

The reductions for the first three minutes range from 5 cents to $1, depending on distance.

It costs less now to do business in distant cities—quickly, personally. It's easier for far-apart friends to keep in close touch.

Sample rates listed in the table below definitely indicate the downward trend during the last decade.

HOW LONG DISTANCE RATES HAVE BEEN CUT AS THE RESULT OF 8 REDUCTIONS IN THE LAST 10 YEARS:

RATES FOR 3-MINUTE DAYTIME CALLS FROM	STATION-TO-STATION		PERSON-TO-PERSON
	Jan. 15, 1926	Jan. 15, 1937	Jan. 15, 1926	Jan. 15, 1937
Grand Rapids to Chicago	$.90	$.65	$ 1.10	$.90
Jackson to Cincinnati	1.45	.85	1.80	1.20
Marquette to Milwaukee	1.60	.95	2.00	1.30
Kalamazoo to St. Louis	2.25	1.20	2.80	1.60
Lansing to Washington	3.10	1.55	3.85	2.05
Detroit to New York	3.15	1.55	3.90	2.05
Traverse City to New Orleans	6.70	3.00	8.35	4.00
Port Huron to Miami	7.75	3.50	9.40	4.50
Saginaw to Los Angeles	12.40	5.25	15.50	7.00

Night and all-day Sunday rates are still lower.

THE 25-MILLIONTH FORD HAS JUST BEEN BUILT

IT HAS never occurred before in automobile history that 25 million cars of one make, bearing one name, have been manufactured under one management. The 25,000,000th Ford car rolled off the Ford Rouge Plant production line on January 18, 1937.

25 million cars since 1903... more than one-third of all the cars ever built... enough cars to transport the entire population of the United States.

The figures represent a remarkable contribution to the social welfare, the industrial stability and the general progress of our country.

People respect Ford efficiency. They know Ford uses fine materials, the best workmanship at good wages, the most exact precision measurements.

They know these things are passed along to purchasers in the form of extra value. Naturally, they like to do business with such a company. That is the only reason it has been required to produce 25 million cars.

Naturally, too, they expect more of a Ford car, more this year than last year—more each year than the year before. They have every right to. The experience gained in building 25,000,000 cars enables Ford to produce today a really superb motor car at a really low price—with the Beauty, Comfort, Safety and Performance of much more expensive cars.

The 1937 Ford V-8 combines advanced design, all-steel construction, extra body room, and brilliant brakes with a choice of two V-type 8-cylinder engines—the most modern type of power-plant on land, sea, or in the air.

The 85-horsepower engine provides top performance with unusually good economy for its high power.

The 60-horsepower engine gives good performance with the greatest gasoline mileage ever built into a Ford car—and wears the lowest Ford price tag in years.

People expect more of a Ford car because it's a Ford—and they get more, for the same reason. It is undeniably the quality car in the low-price field.
