A. Voorhees, Fred Smith File for Commission; Last Filing Mar. 15

Finals March 20

Now Here's the Proposition

To A Pencil

Oh, pencil, as from day to day
Sober or blithe, morose or gay
You set in measured record down
The daily doings of the town
Remember as you duly ply
What dead imports in you lie
And steer at least a league away From "did you hear" and "so they say".
For pencils deadlier are than knives
In leaving scars on wounded lives.
If you must prick, then let it be
A jab at stuffy dignity;
Have if you will with rapier blade
At empty pride and cheap parade.
But turn your deadlier end apart
Rather than touch a naked heart.
And sheathe it for the fallen when They lie at mercy of all men.
—Walter C. Hawes.

Never Spent a Dime

It would seem that Alleck Lindquist is deserving of the title of the Scotchiest man in Buchanan or something like that since it is announced on the best of authority that he never spent a dime all last year. Anyway, he held on to every dime that came his way for a year until he had better than 1700 of them, when he hitched his trailer on his car, took his scoop shovel and loaded up a jag from the safe and took them down to the Montague Motor company, making a payment of $170 for a car. He states that he is going to repeat and save dimes to buy another car next year but whoever gets his business will have to send a truck up for the first payment.

Nominating Mr. Kobe

A movement is said to be on foot to secure the appointment of John Kobe, secretary of the Farmers Mutual Insurance company as street commissioner for the coming year. Kobe has won the title of the "one-man snow plow" of the city from his practice of parading down town to his office early on snowy mornings shoveling a path for his car and less energetic residents of his neighborhood have learned of his practice and regularly wait until they see Kobe go flying by with his snow plow, when they fall in line behind, and often there is quite a procession by the time he reaches his office at Front and Main.

Although none of the parade have offered to take turns at the shovel to date they have at least shown considerable patience in stopping and waiting whenever Mr. Kobe has to empty his shovel.

Escapes Alive

The residents of the Hillview avenue section are glad to welcome home from the hospital Squeakie Hathaway. Mrs. Hathaway states that Squeakie was able to leave the hospital this week after being a patient for fifteen days. No, it was not Cleon. It was the cat, which was a patient in the Thiele Cat hospital. Goodness no, don't get the impression that we called Cleon Squeakie. He is too darn big.

Many Use Pres. Recreation Room

Women Groups To Begin
Play There Friday; Youth
Hold Tournaments

This will be the biggest week yet in the number of people using the Presbyterian recreation room.
The groups of children have always been of good size and now the adults also are beginning to make full use of the room.

This Friday a group of women will use the room for the first time. Mrs. Jack Bishop's, Mrs.
Lester Lyon's and Mrs. M. H.
McKinnon's circles of the Home in the various games. At present Joseph Rumley leads in the men's pingpong, Bob Habicht in the high school boys' pingpong and Bob Fairman in the seventh, eighth and ninth grade boys' pingpong. There is much enthusiasm over chess. Dick Hayden seventh, eighth and ninth grade boys' chess and checker contests.

At this writing Charles Bainton has the highest average position in the high school boys' games.

Mrs. Ted Childs Injured in Wreck

Two Cars Collide at State Line on South Bend
Road Friday

Mrs. Ted Childs, Jr., of Three Oaks is confined at the Epworth hospital, South Bend, with painful injuries received in an automobile collision on the South Bend road Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Childs was driving to South Bend, accompanied by Mrs.
Ford Keppan of Three Oaks, when the car which she was driving collided with one driven by Mr.
Rosenberg, Buchanan, just south of the state line. It is reported that Rosenberg had permitted his car to drift to the side of the pavement until the left wheels dropped off the concrete into a rut several inches deep. He attempted to right his car back on the pavement, with the result that his car shot angling across into the course of Mrs. Childs' car.
Mrs. Childs had driven clear off the pavement in an attempt to avoid the collision but the heavy LaSalle which he was driving sheared the right side of her car, and almost entirely demolished the vehicle, passing through the fence at the side of the highway out into a field.

Mrs. Childs has a fractured right ankle, two fractured bones in the left foot, and severe foot lacerations. She is entirely unhurt above the knees, but so severe were the foot injuries that it is not likely that she will be able to walk for a number of weeks, although the injuries are not of a lasting nature. Her companion, Mrs. Keppan, incurred two broken ribs and side injuries. Rosenberg incurred a deep cut on his chin and slight chest injuries.

Dearborn Fetes Harry Salisbury

Native of Dayton Has Triple Anniversary Feb. 26

The following article relative to Harry Salisbury, Dayton native and former teacher in the Buchanan schools, is taken from the Detroit News:

Although he has been teaching mathematics, off and on, for 40 years, Harry A. Salisbury, veteran member of the faculty of Dearborn High School, ran into his toughest problem Friday. He was presented with a birthday cake bright with 70 pink candles, and the problem was to count the 70 candles, and if you've ever tried counting 70 candles on a birthday cake, you'll have something of an idea of what a job he had. His fellow-teachers insisted that both plane and solid geometry failed him, but he conquered with trigonometry.

The simple fact of the matter is that on Friday Teacher Salisbury crowded three anniversaries in one day and if that doesn't rate a cake, what does? He was 70 years old Friday. He celebrated the fortieth anniversary of his entrance into the teaching profession and his twenty-fifth as a teacher in Dearborn. This is what's known as a coincidence.
Anyhow the other teachers at Dearborn High School thought something should be done about it.
So classes were dismissed at noon (a break for the kids out there), and the 32 members of the faculty gathered in the cafeteria for a party with Teacher Salisbury as guest of honor. It was then that he took the cake, candles and all.
Life Story

O. H. Olsen, principal of the school, was master of ceremonies and R. H. Adams, superintendent of schools, made a glowing speech and there was some fine music.

Hitherto little known facts about Teacher Salisbury emerged from the occasion. He was born in a log house in Berrien County. He worked on his father's farm and went to the district school when he could find time away from his chores. It was a good two-mile walk to the schoolhouse and there was no traffic problem. You just walked, there and back.

He eventually graduated from the high school in Galien. There were seven boys, no girls in the class. Three of the boys, including Harry Salisbury, were able to vote when they graduated. That's because it took longer in those days to get through school on account of those farm chores.

He taught a district school in Berrien County for a year, then went to Michigan State Normal a year. Then he taught five years in Indiana and became principal of the township school in LaPorte County. He went back to Ypsilanti for two more years of instruction.
After that, he taught entirely in Michigan, settling in Dearborn a quarter of a century ago. He served as superintendent of schools there for nine years.

Long Career
During his long career he taught the youth of Dearborn the sciences, literature and history and the people of Dearborn are so grateful that they held a big reception in his honor after the teachers had feasted him at the luncheon.

Of recent years, he has specialized in mathematics, which made the cake problem easier for him.
When he got to school Friday morning, he found a box of cigars on his desk, the gift of the pupils.
But Teacher Salisbury doesn't smoke—and there's another problem.
The members of the faculty presented him with a fine new bowling ball at the luncheon. That was no problem at all, because Teacher Salisbury is one of the leading klegers in the Masonic League of Dearborn.

He thinks he'll turn the cigars
over to his fellow-bowlers.

Ferris Institute, Big Rapids, to spend the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Roti Roti.

Explains Angle On Amendments

Bonner Points to Feature of Amendments That May Be Overlooked

March 4, 1937.
Berrien County Record,
Buchanan, Michigan.
Dear Sir:—

For your possible interest, I mention below the high spots of the proposed amendments to the Charter of the City of Buchanan, as I understand these proposed amendments:

1. The 1st Amendment proposes
a. To elect a Mayor by popular vote every other year for a two-year term.
b. After the change has become effective, to elect one Commissioner each year from each precinct, or a total of two Commissioners to serve for two years.
2. To elect the Treasurer for a two-year term, rather than have the Treasurer appointed by the Commission.
3. To elect the Clerk for a term of two years, rather than have him appointed by the Commission.

Section 1a, above, you will note that a Mayor is to be elected rather than chosen by the Commission, which conceivably might give you a situation where the Mayor might be out of sympathy with the majority of the Commission, or the reverse.

Section 1b is in my opinion a very important change. Under the new system, the Mayor and two Commissioners would be elected every other year. In other words, of the five-man governing body,
a majority of three will be elected every year. Under the present Charter, it takes two elections to change the majority of the Commission; therefore, under the new Charter a temporary condition could change the majority, where under the present Charter, this would not be practical.

Sections 2 and 3, it is noted that at present, if the Commission believes a Treasurer or a Clerk is incompetent, they can discharge him, but under the proposed change, once elected to office, he could not be removed for incompetence, but merely for maleficence in office.

Please understand that I may not have properly interpreted these petitions, but the above is the impression they left with me.
Yours truly,
A. S. BONNER.

Mrs. Anna Morley To Be 92 Saturday

Remembers Departure of Father For California
in '49

It's not many now living that can say that they were once paid wages in California gold dust of the washing of 1849 and 1850, but that is one of the things that have been included in the life span of Mrs. Anna Morley, who arrives at the mature age of 92 next Saturday, March 13.

It was some time after 1849
that Mrs. Morley, or Miss Anna Kidwell as she was then, was paid in California gold dust, but she can remember when her father, Moses Kidwell, and her two uncles, Enoch Balengee and Arnold Cutshaw, left by covered wagon and a team of horses from Plymouth for the gold fields in 1849. Since she was born March 13, 1845, she was four years old then, and plenty old enough to remember such a momentous occasion. So it still comes back vividly through the long perspective of 88 years, how she, her mother and the others waved and waved and tried to smile as the menfolk went westward on the trail from the ragged little frontier town of Plymouth, Ind. For the hazards of the trail were known, and it seemed that only good fortune could bring them all back safe and sound.

When they arrived at St. Louis they sold their horses and bought a yoke of oxen and combined, as was the rule, with a wagon train, in which a wagon master directed the travel. They required three months on the trail west from St.
Louis, and got through alive, although Enoch Balengee was wounded in an Indian skirmish.
His wound was not mortal. He brought back an Indian war bonnet and other mementoes.

The wagon master was very careful and cautious. He required that they give the oxen plenty of rest. At noon the oxen were permitted to lie and rest until they began to chew their cud, when he would start the train.
They remained in California
about a year, doing very well.
They then returned by ship, crossing the Isthmus of Panama long before there was any canal there.
Kidwell exchanged his gold for money in California, but Balengee, who was a silversmith, brought his back in a flask. For years he kept his California gold dust in that flask, and used to make loans of dust to neighbors and friends, but finally he had to quit that for he always got back just a little less than he loaned. One winter Anna Kidwell was teaching and could not collect her wages. She borrowed some of Uncle Enoch's gold dust and bought clothes with it. When she received her wages she paid him back in money.

Her father, Moses Kidwell, went into the mercantile business in partnership with a man named Stanley, who afterward became a business pioneer in South Bend.
Kidwell had been out and had seen something of the world and brought back some means, so he did several things that made the Plymouth people sort of sit up and talk. He built the first house in town that was set on a foundation. Also he had the first house that painted some other color than white. It was boarded up and down and was painted pink. It had scrollwork about the eaves which was painted a white trim.

Uncle Enoch had opened a shop as silversmith again, and from his gold dust he made his wife a solid gold plate of false teeth. They were the second set of artificial teeth ever seen in Plymouth and caused no end of stir, too.
Moses Kidwell and Enoch Balengee again crossed the plains in the Pikes Peak rush of 1859, but they did not make out so well there.

A special meeting was held last night at the city hall, after the Record had gone to press, at which the city commission conferred with Atty. Philip Landman and B. R. Desenberg, counsel for H. S. Bristol, relative to future action on the proposed city charter amendments.

Houswerth Talks To Farm Bureau

STATE LIBRARY AID

Almost like a special providence, it seems, comes news from Lansing that, just as Buchanan is getting under way on a drive to rehabilitate and bring up to date the local library, a Senator Palmer has placed before the legislature a bill for the appropriation of $1,250,000 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1938 and for each year thereafter for the aid of public libraries in the state.

From this fund 85% is to be equally distributed, but 15% is to be allocated into an "equalization fund" to be used for the purpose of bringing public libraries up to a standard set by the state librarian. If Buchanan participated, the share of the local library would be $380 from 85% maintenance fund.

There are, as might be expected, several strings on the offer. No library receiving less than $6,000 per annum from the governmental unit directly supporting may participate unless it becomes a part of an approved county or regional library system. At the present time there is a move on foot to organize a library system for Berrien county. It is unlikely that $6,000 will be appropriated in Buchanan for library purposes in the near future but it seems possible that the local library might be united with the county system if and when organized, in order to benefit under the act.

It is provided in the bill that the appropriations may be used for any library purpose except the purchase, erection or remodeling of buildings.

It seems that the clubs which endorsed the improvement of the local library should inquire into the terms of the bill, a copy of which is filed at the office of City Clerk Harry Post, and that if the provisions in the bill seem adapted to aid in the local situation, such organizations should memorialize their representatives in the legislature.

BUCHANAN SPENT MILLION AND A QUARTER FOR RETAIL PURCHASES IN 1936

Men in a position to make a responsible statement report that Buchanan is now approximately at all-time peak in employment, all three factories and other work resources being taken into consideration.

It is quite likely, as a matter of fact, that the people living within the corporation limits are putting in more man-hours per month than ever before in the history of the city and that the gross labor income is correspondingly high. This is considering the fact that all three factory plants are occupied by going concerns at the same time, which is more than can be said previously, and that a slack which has always existed here previously in the best of times has been entirely taken up by public works employment. The establishment of a Dry-Zero branch plant here has given the women additional employment and considerably heightened gross family incomes in many cases.

All together this doubtless explains the information reaching the Record from an advertising agency that annual retail sales per capita in Buchanan in the past year were $314.63 as compared with an average of $286.68 for the state, at large. This is a favorable margin of $27.95 for Buchanan. When it is considered that this average takes in every man, woman and child and that it is the average for retail sales, exclusive of other large and small items of expense, such as rent, home payments, payments for professional services and the like, it indicates that Buchanan people are buying as they have not bought in years.

The population of the town in 1930 was 3916. The present housing shortage in spite of some increase in accommodations warrants the belief that an estimate of 4,000 would be conservative. This would mean that the people of Buchanan spent $1,258,520 in retail purchases last year.

PROTECTING PROPERTY VALUES

Industrial news service which comes to the Record quotes the secretary of an appraisal company, writing in the New York Journal of Commerce to the following effect: "Construction costs advanced 4% in November, 1936, alone."

Unless insurance coverage is stepped up in line with increasing cost the property owner who suffers a fire loss is likely to find his indemnity far below the requirements for replacement. Indemnities are based on value as of the date of loss or damage, and the value of existing buildings must necessarily advance with costs of construction. Increased coverage will, of course, mean increased premiums, but deficient coverage means assumption of a risk which only penny wisdom and pound foolishness can permit. Furthermore, the forces which send construction skyward are likely to improve the dollar position of the owner and the cost of additional insurance should be recognized as a necessary cost of that improvement.

THE 60-horsepower Ford V-8 engine was first developed for Europe, where fuel costs are high. Two years' usage there proved its unusual economy.

When the "60" came to this country this year, the Ford Motor Company made no mileage claims—waited for facts, written on American roads by American drivers.

Now Ford "60" owners are reporting averages of 22 to 27 miles on a gallon of gasoline. That makes it the most economical Ford car ever built!

Best of all, the Ford "60" is just as big and roomy—just as handsome, sturdy and safe—as the famous 85-horsepower Ford V-8. And it sells at the lowest Ford price in years.

If you want a big car for a small budget—a car you can drive with pride and profit—see the thrifty "60" soon!

Diamond Held Childish
More's of Toppans thought of precious stones as baubles and had a unique way of bringing the lesson home to their children. They would polish up any diamond they came upon on their coats and adorn the children with the gems. The children were of course delighted and would glory in them, but as they grew to manhood and womanhood, and saw that only children were such things, without blinding from their parents or teachers, they would throw the gems away as baubles men and women disdained and which belonged only to childish years.

There are many individuals in every community, citizens of the finest type, who unflinchingly back every big movement for the general good.

And yet, in dozens of damaging little ways they are thoughtlessly hurting their communities, month after month.

They buy elsewhere unnecessarily; they neglect a hundred and one opportunities of saying little words, doing little things here and there, which if said and done would pile up tremendously for the community's prestige and prosperity. Does this give YOU an idea?

Camera Salon Feature of Blossom Week

Plans for Photographic Display Anticipate Greater Scope in Annual Event.

The Blossom Festival Salon of Photography will enter its third year, with display of prize winning photographs here during the Blossom Festival in May.

Announcements of the salon have been sent to all the photographic journals in the United States, according to James L. Huber, president of the Twin City Camera Club, and it is expected that 400 or more photographs may be submitted to the five judges who will decide which ones are to be retained for exhibition.

Entry blanks have been sent to 250 of the most prominent photographers in the United States, and 100 blanks have been sent to camera clubs. All entries must be received by April 20, to be prepared for judging.

Eighty-nine prints were hung in the salon last year, and it is expected that an equal number will be honored this year. No cash prizes are given, but ribbon

12 TIMES MARRIED

Proud of the fact she's been wed 12 times is Mrs. Inez Swanson, fifty-eight, of Los Angeles, exhibiting as proof her marriage certificates, and boasting: "I ain't never buried a husband yet." Besides working as a saleslady, she's been a private detective and a cowgirl. Her first matrimonial venture began in Texas at the age of sixteen. Mother of two girls and a son, she was a grandmother at thirty-three, great grandmother at fifty-six.

SHE COPS PRIZE PIE

Mother never could make pies like this, is probably the verdict of Reva Whitcomb, who is taking her own medicine here. To elucidate, Reva was declared champion pastry cook of New York state in competition at Rochester, recently. She apparently agrees with the judges that her pies are the best, for she is shown eating one of her blue-ribbon products.

awards and stickers go to each picture in the salon before it is returned to its owner.

Sixty photographers, from all parts of the United States, entered the contest with 200 prints last year. First position went to Edward Canby, Dayton, O.

Five judges for the salon will be selected from among art teachers and others qualified to estimate photographic quality.

The camera club wishes to encourage southwestern Michigan and northern Indiana amateurs to enter the contest, Mr. Huber said. The club aims at eventual development of a special section of photographs dealing with this geographical region.

Entry blanks may be obtained from Mr. Huber at 206 State St., St. Joseph; from John Hetzler, 755 Territorial road, Benton Harbor, or from the Chamber of Commerce in Benton Harbor or St. Joseph.

Last year's salon was held in the lounge of the Hotel Whitcomb, where it was opened on the first day of the Blossom Festival by the Blossom Queen, Miss Virginia Mae Pound, and the girls of her court.

Officers of the Twin City Camera club make up the committee in charge of the salon. Mr. Huber is president and Mr. Hetzler secretary-treasurer. Other officers are Glenn Knight, Benton Harbor, vice president; and Benson Ball and Hudson Mitchell, program directors.

Van Waggoner Writes on Road

Relative to an editorial in a recent issue of the Record, the following communication was received from Murray D. Van Waggoner, state highway commissioner:

From information I have received, it would appear that the Red Bud trail has great possibilities for development as a scenic route as well as possessing qualifications for a good serviceable outlet for your normal northbound traffic.

Briefly, our situation relative to the adoption and the improvement of new trunk line routes at this time does not present a very bright picture, in fact there must be a change in our financial set-up before we can consider further extensions to the system. We are now receiving an annual allocation of Federal Aid funds that must be matched with State money. These funds are earmarked by the Federal eral Government for expenditure only on Federal routes, such as US-12 and US-31. At the insistence of the Bureau of Public Roads, we are concentrating our construction work in Berrien County on this year's program on US-12 north of New Buffalo. This road has become overstepped to a point where immediate action to widen the pavement to four lanes must be taken.

We are now barely able to match these Federal funds out of the remainder of the gasoline tax which accrues to this Department after statutory requirements are taken care of. Therefore, there are no State funds left for the improvement of our non Federal routes or any extensions to the system which we might wish to make. The whole matter of State aid for county, state and city roads and streets will be considered during the present session of the Legislature and, until there are decisions reached by that body, our Department cannot lay out any new work except that which is covered in our regular Federal Aid program.

I think I can appreciate the feeling in Buchanan in regard to the loss of M-60, and I assure you that your suggestions will be given every possible consideration.

Yours very truly,
M. D. Van Waggoner,
State Highway Commissioner

Pollination

Pollination by insects is only one method, though by far the most important in the case of food plants. Many are pollinated by the wind, some water plants by the agency of water, and some by birds and bats. Some plants are self-pollinated, requiring no outside agency.

The Toadstone Ring

The toadstone ring of the Middle Ages was thought to be effective in warding off disease and witchcraft. For centuries the royalty of England thought that type of ring was a certain cure for the cramps and other sickness. Such rings were always blessed on Good Friday.

WORLD'S LARGEST MAP SHOWN IN BOSTON

Thousands hail Boston's Maparium as the greatest aid to visual education in recent years. Shown at the Christian Science Publishing Society, this effect was achieved by constructing within a three story room a 30 foot sphere, the bronze framework so fashioned as to form 10 degree latitudinal and longitudinal divisions. 608 sections of 1/4 inch glass painted on the concave side accurately portray the earth's surface, without reproducing its topography.

"HORSE POWER IN ACTION"

"Horse Power in Action," to be shown here. Horses and mules play the leading parts in this new two reel talking movie designed for educational and entertainment purposes by the Horse and Mule Association of America.

Those who see this motion picture with sound will see thrilling scenes as ton-weight drafters pit their rippling muscles against dynamometer pulling tests, as hunters soar in perfect form over barriers, and experts point out excellent types in some of the finest specimens of American bred horse and mule flesh and tell about essential points. Scenes for the sound film were taken on the race course, at the side of horse show barriers and jumps, on pulling contest courses, at field demonstrations of the big hitches and in sale lots and judging rings.

Recreation on the backs of hunters and park hacks is also depicted. Comfortable and correct harness is awarded a part of the film. Care in the pasture and at work, shoeing and the reason for picking a mule with long ears are other parts in this new type of visual education. A brief preface by Wayne Dinsmore, Secretary of the Horse and Mule Association of America introduces the 22 minute film.

This picture "Horse Power in Action" and also the regular picture of the theatre will be shown on Wednesday, March 31, in the Hollywood Theatre, at Buchanan for the regular admission price. The picture is a gem. All horsemen who have seen it, want to see it a second time and already are sending in applications to have it returned.

This picture is being presented through the courtesy of the Hollywood, E. C. Hoffman, manager and The Calien-Buchanan State Bank, who have made it possible for the farmers of this community to see this picture. So don't miss it.

What is meant by a Bank's capital and surplus?

The "capital" of a bank is the amount of money the stockholders have invested as owners of the bank. The Federal and State governments have minimum capital, and frequently subscribed surplus, requirements that must be met before a bank charter is issued.

In addition, the "surplus" of a bank is further built up, for the most part, out of earnings set aside to increase the protection of depositors.

In addition, there are reserves for meeting known liabilities or guarding against contingencies.

The capital, surplus, and undivided profits constitute an element of protection to a bank's depositors which supplements its policies of sound, honest management in safeguarding the funds entrusted to its care and apply them in useful loans and investments.

Van Waggoner Tells Aims In Rd. Construction

Large Crowd Attends Democratic Rally Monday Evening.

Development of a program to attract tourists, lowering of expenses and reduction of taxes, and an extensive "pay-as-you-build" policy of road construction, were cited by Murray D. Van Waggoner at a Democratic rally in the Benton Harbor naval armory Monday night, in his campaign for re-election as state highway commissioner.

Commissioner Van Waggoner appeared on the platform with John Lynch, candidate for regent of the University of Michigan; Thomas McAllister, candidate for the state supreme court; and James J. Jakway, Benton Harbor, candidate for membership on the state board of agriculture. Mr. Jakway was introduced by County Chairman Lester Farnum, who requested Mr. Jakway to present the other candidates.

Mr. Van Waggoner and Don Kennedy, business manager of the state highway department, flew to Benton Harbor Monday afternoon from a business trip to Chicago. Mr. Van Waggoner opened his southern Michigan campaign in Benton Harbor, having completed a tour of 18 meetings in the upper peninsula.

His schedule called for addresses Tuesday noon at Paw Paw, Tuesday afternoon in Allegan and Tuesday evening at Holland.

Doctor's Wife Collects 1,500 Odd Dolls in Hobby

Minneapolis.—Mrs. Joseph King, wife of Dr. King of the University of Minnesota medical school, has a strange hobby — that of collecting dolls.

Since 1933, when Mrs. King first took a fancy to odd dolls, she has collected more than 1,500, part of which are on exhibit in an auditorium on the campus.

The dolls have been arranged in lifelike poses by Mrs. King and then photographed by Dr. King, giving the latter a chance to exercise his hobby of picture taking. Thus the two hobbyists have worked together in preparing "The Dolls' Family Album," a book which Mrs. King has written.

The collection ranges from a three-foot papier mache doll of the early Nineteenth century to a jointed China doll which can be set on a postage stamp. The oldest member of the "family" is a black-haired doll of the Renaissance period.

Rarest of the dolls is a 100-year-old likeness of the English actor, Edmund Keene. It is elaborately garbed in Elizabethan costume of green and brown velvet.

THE BEET GROWERS most Important EQUIPMENT!

Several years ago a successful farmer asked a group of men this question: "What is the farmer's most important piece of equipment?"

The answers varies. Some said the reaper, some the plow.

But to all the wise old farmer shook his head. "It's not a machine at all," he said. "It's pencil and paper!" His success, he explained, was largely due to advance planning of his work.

Definite planning, in advance, can make you the most money. Put down in black and white a definite cropping system. Plot your farm and work out a systematic rotation, always including a planting of Sugar Beets every year.

Any successful business is based on carefully laid plans and procedure.

Sugar Beets will make you the most money over a period of years.

Sugar Beets have made farmers more money during the last 5 years than any other major cultivated crop.

Acre yield and price levels for Sugar Beets are more constant than that of any major cultivated crop.

You can always market all the Beets you grow.

Sit down this evening. Take your pencil and paper. Figure out right now a plan of Sugar Beet planting for 1937.

For bigger profits grow Sugar Beets every year!

MOVIES

"Pennies From Heaven" With Bing Crosby

Bing Crosby's latest comedy-with-music, "Pennies from Heaven," will open Sunday at the Hollywood Theatre for three days. Madge Evans plays the feminine lead while Edith Fellows, Donald Meek, John Gallaudet and others play prominent roles. Louis Armstrong and his swing band are also featured. Such popular songs as "Pennies from Heaven," "So Do I," "Let's Call a Heart a Heart," "One Two Button Your Shoe" and "Skeleton in the Closet" are heard in the film. The numbers were written by Arthur Johnston and John Burke. Norman Z. McLeod directed from Jo Swerling's screen play.

Adventure and Romance Flame in "Conflict"

Up near the timber line where the Sierra Nevada Mountains of California reaches its grandeur toward the skies, Universal's stirring picture, "Conflict," was photographed. Nine hundred miles from Hollywood, high in the rugged timber regions of these towering peaks went John Wayne and Jean Rogers, featured in the vivid story, along with a cast of 97 persons to film the picture, which opens at the Hollywood theatre on Friday.

Jean Arthur, Joel McCrea in "Adventure in Manhattan." "Adventure in Manhattan," Columbia's tantalizing tale of two lovers loose in mildly mad Manhattan, will be shown Friday and Saturday.

The adventures alluded to in the title comprise many of the most hilarious sequences seen in recent movies. They concern a crime novel author and a Broadway stage star who unwittingly involve each other in a series of daring robberies of valuable art treasures. McCrea and Arthur are seen in these respective roles.

Furious Drama in "White Hunter"

"White Hunter," starring Warner Baxter and June Lang which opens Wednesday and Thursday at the Hollywood Theatre, is the thrilling story of two people who love blindly amid the menace of savage passions. Gail Patrick, Alison Skipworth, Wilfred Lawson and George Hassell are co-featured in the strong supporting cast.

Gay Comedy in "The Man I Marry"

A girl who runs away from her own wedding and a play-wright who runs away from all women, discover, after many ex-cruciatingly funny conflicts, that they cannot escape love, in the thoroughly enjoyable Universal romantic comedy, "The Man I Marry," which plays here Wednesday and Thursday. Doris Nolan, a brilliant new screen personality, is the capable star and her leading man is Michael Whalen.

The situations arising from sit-down strikes are fast becoming more disastrous, and if something is not done to control this very soon, we will have to face serious consequences. The whole strike situation may appear as a crazy fad to one who is not directly involved; however, there is a purpose behind these strikes that must not be forgotten.

There are very few people in this United States who wouldn't be glad to see the working man get a better deal, but his methods of attaining this are entirely wrong. The only absolute way that the working class can be assured of a fair deal from their employers is by law, and to-day people are beginning to realize a little more the need for having the government control the minimum wage scale.

Labor conditions have always been challenged, and although they have been improved, they are still far from being perfect. The students of today should familiarize themselves with labor and capitalistic conditions so that they will be able to cope with labor difficulties, when confronted by them.

ALUMNI ATTEND SOCIAL HOUR

Many couples tripped the light fantastic at the social hour held Wednesday, March 4, in the high school gym. Among those dancing were Maxine Christmore, Joe Bachman; Margaret Miller, Lawrence Zupke; Marjorie Kelly, Buddy Matthews; and Imogene Russell, Melvin Campbell.

NEW PROJECT

ADDED AT B. H. S.

The study of operating an automobile will be started at B. H. S. as a home room project in the near future. The books were printed under the direction of the American Automobile Association and were furnished by the Automobile Club of Michigan. The texts fully explain the seriousness of care in driving and help the student to train for emergencies that arise every day on the highways.

The books also contain information on the forming of habits while driving. The reasons why physical fitness and courtesy are necessary is well brought forth in these texts.

Posters advertising the cantata were made by members of the high school art class.

SCHOOL SLANTS

How worried, the basketball players were last week. It was all concerned with losing the Berrien game. For further information question "Star," Luke, Don Virgil, and Don Beck.

Benton Harbor seems to be replacing Niles' interest for Buchanan boys. George Riley and Lawrence Zupke the regular callers in the Twin City, and last Friday several students from Buchanan were guests at a high school party there.

The junior high team won two games from Niles, Feb. 1. This is rather unprecedented, because, while the Niles team has all their freshmen available to play, the Buchanan freshmen lose many of their members to the regular second team. Congratulations!

The seniors' excellent idea of selling candy bars is working out even better than was anticipated. A complete schedule for the remainder of the year has been made out and every member of the class will be expected to sell candy at some time during this period.

WE WONDER IF—

Jerry White and Monabelle Dretzler are going steady?

Bud Jesse is really bashful?

Elaine Blaney and Evelyn Briney will be as successful as cheerleaders as they give promise of being?

The gym show will be as good as it always has been?

The Girl Scouts had a nice party at their dance a couple of weeks ago?

Dale Lyon and Bonnie Mitchell are still going together?

Clyde Shaffer enjoys working at Thoras's?

Geraldine Reamer goes with Dick Penzell?

BIGGER AND BETTER ASSEMBLY

MOTTO FOR B. H. S.

What a vast improvement there has been in the recent assembly programs! No longer are students bored and restless because of dull speakers and too amateurish plays and features. Perhaps the biggest factor in this change is due to an organized schedule of programs. It was originally arranged to have these every two weeks, but basketball and football games necessitated more frequent gatherings.

The pep meetings were, at the beginning of the year, the usual commonplace affairs with a few yells, the high school song, a word from the coach, and perhaps, with gentle coaxing, the players themselves might consent to tell the audience of their chances in the forth-coming game.

But what a difference when the Future Husband's Club were put in charge of the pep meeting! The latest information concerning players (both romantic and practical), and screamingly funny skits representing various scenes concerning the game have been presented.

Many equally amusing assemblies, with some of a more educational nature, are planned for the remaining part of the semester.

DO YOU REMEMBER WHEN—

Melvin Campbell sang for an assembly, "In My Alice Blue Gown"?

ADVICE TO WOMEN

MRS. F. R. Fogle of 2102 Levee Ave., Edolt, Wis., said: "When my nerves were bad and I felt weak Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription was the tonic that helped me. It increased my appetite and in this way built me up and gradually my nerves were better. I have a daughter who did not develop as she should. 'Prescription' gave her a keen appetite and she gained steadily. Buy now of your druggist."

Students were not burdened with home work?

Keith Dalrymple used to be short and chubby?

School let out at three fifteen?

George Riley and Ruth Montgomery were frequently seen together?

Marion Miller wore half socks when a wee wee tot?

Bessie Crothers and "Art" Trapp were "thick"?

HAIL, HAIL, THE GANG'S ALL HERE!

junior high freshman cage team. Niles' freshmen suffered a complete reversal of form while the Maroons rolled up an easy 15 to 5 decision. The towering hoopsters of Coach Chet Davidson moved like "molasses in January" when the speedy Bucks passed, dribbled, and shot past them. Hess held the Niles scoring ace to nothing, not even a charity shot.

The eighth grade team piled up an even greater total than the freshmen, making up a 23 to 7 tally. Coach Miller used all the men who made the trip and Buchanan thus holds an edge over the Nilesites, winning three out of four contests.

HIGH SCHOOL ANNUAL GOES TO PUBLISHERS NEXT MONTH

The annual staff has been very busy in the past week collecting all the material which will be used in the 1937 edition of "The Pines." Final group pictures were taken by Mr. Franks on Tuesday. These included the basketball squad, Art Club, and Debating team. Annuals are still available and may be purchased from any member of the senior class. Mrs. Dunbar stated that the annual would probably go to press in about a month.

New Title Forms Planned By Case

Complete revision of the form of automobile titles and the mechanics of recording liens on all motor vehicles, is being studied by Leon D. Case, Secretary of State, and other officials of the Department of State. A bill for presentation to the current session of the legislature is being prepared.

The plan under consideration would completely eliminate the recording of chattel mortgages on automobiles with registers of deeds, and cause every such mortgage to be recorded only with the Secretary of State. The object of the proposed plan would be to further protect all persons owning or dealing in motor vehicles.

At present, it is pointed out, there is no formal method by which the discharge of a lien on an automobile at time of purchase, may later be recorded on the original title. A new title can be issued, but almost no automobile owners avail themselves of this possibility. Further, persons claiming to have lost their titles may at present secure new ones without original liens noted on them.

Under the proposed plan, no automobile lien would be considered valid until recorded with the Secretary of State, and no discharge of a lien would have legal standing without similar recording.

The form of motor vehicle titles would be changed so as to accommodate easily noted records of title transfers, liens and lien discharges, across the face thereof. All recordings of such data would be filed in the Department of State in the form photostatic copies of titles.

Bass Drum Always Noisy
The bass drum in a large orchestra is usually kept covered during the playing of a piece in which it is not required, in order to keep it absolutely silent. If left uncovered it has a strong tendency to rumble in sympathy with the other instruments.—Collier's Weekly.
