

OUTLINE PROGRAM GRADUATION WEEK

Open Enlarged Grottos and Improved Grounds at Bear Cave Park

Noted Speaker in Middle West

Now Here's the Proposition

Patience, patience, never falter, hold your tongue and keep your head; By your life and what you make it shall the final word be said.

Picnic Grounds Are In Demand

Increased Lighting Brings Out Beauties of Scenic Attractions

Bear Cave, premier scenic attraction of the lower St. Joseph river country and one of the most unique caves of the Middle West, was opened Sunday with additional grottos opened during the winter.

A feature of the place now is the enlarged entrance building around the water fall, which has been extended north toward the river and a walk laid past the fall to the north.

Messrs. Hess and Overmeyer, who are in charge, have just begun to exploit the possibilities of their picnic ground which is easily one of the most beautiful in southwest Michigan.

ROUND ABOUT BUCHANAN

Ayrshire Herd

Unique among the dairy herds of the district is the Ayrshire herd of Charles French on the South Bend road. Mr. French has been raising this handsome dairy breed for the past ten years.

Lakenvelder Chickens

Richard Schwartz recently imported from Maine a setting of the Lakenvelder poultry eggs, with the idea in extending to poultry his Dutch Belt color scheme.

The Lakenvelder eggs came from Brunswick, Me., and the chickens that are to emerge are scudled to be black with a white band.

Among the high spots of Buchanan this week is the beautiful patch of double tulips, imported from Holland, to be seen in the garden lot of E. C. Pascoe, facing front street.

Another likely looking aggregation of tulips is in bloom in the beautiful garden in the rear of the home of D. L. Boardman.

The Darwin tulips in the large beds on the Clark grounds were still at the height of their glory the first of the week, and must be still presentable for those who wish to see them before they are gone.

Anyone who wants to know what Buchanan could do in the way of dolling up the Redbud Trail in the space of a very few years should take a look at the redbud trees planted by Lester Mitchell on the east end of his lot next to the mill race four years ago.

The trees planted by the Lions club along the trail two years ago practically all survived, but the sequel proved that the club might just as well have planted much larger trees.

Miss Erma Rollings will arrive today or tomorrow from Kalamazoo for a visit over the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Arney.

Mrs. Jayne Hotchkiss visited in Chicago Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Max Leeback and daughter, Shirley, of Berrien Springs, were guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Arney.

Niles H. S. Class Studies Wild Life

The Niles high school biology class passed through Buchanan Monday morning en route home from a field trip to Tower Hill, studying vegetation, dune formations and waves and wave action on the sands.

Charles Persons Expires Suddenly

Last rites were held from the Swem funeral home at 10 a. m. Monday for Charles Persons, 73, who was found dead in bed Saturday morning at the home of Thomas Marsh in the Wagner district.

Persons was born at the Pottawatomie Indian settlement near Hartford, having been a part Indian, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Persons. His mother was a sister of Levi Topash's father.

Last Rites Tues. For Helen Swaim

Helen Louise Swaim, 9, died at the Pawating hospital, Niles, Sunday at 4:15 a. m. after an illness of a week with pneumonia and complications.

The funeral was held Tuesday at 2 p. m., Rev. C. A. Sanders preaching the funeral sermon and burial was made in Oak Ridge. She was born in Gary, Ind., Sept. 15, 1927. Survivors are her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Swaim, who live on the Emory Rough farm two miles south of Buchanan; two brothers, Alvin Thomas and Max Leon. She was a member of the third grade of the Howe school.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Leeback and daughter, Shirley, of Berrien Springs, were guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Arney. Miss Barbara Schram was a visitor at the Bert Rohl home, Benton Harbor, for the week-end.

THEIR PLAY WOWED A S. R. O. HOUSE

man of about fifty; Melvin Campbell, the shrewd banker who vied with Bob Neal, a young writer, for Jeanette Levin's affections; Max Beadle, a blustering middle-aged man; Edward Smith as the stumbling husband; Phyllis DeNardo as the young woman "a trifle inclined to be catty"; and Virginia Wright, who so humorously filled the part of the maid.

350 Attend Co. Lodge Meeting

26 I. O. O. F. and Rebekah Lodges Represented Here Tuesday Night

Three hundred and fifty members of 26 Odd Fellow and Rebekah lodges, representing 18 towns and cities attended the county association meeting here Tuesday evening.

The Rebekahs met at the Odd Fellow hall, guests of honor being Grand Marshall Lila Stoner and Grand Warden Rose Silkstone, both of Detroit. The Benton Harbor degree staff conferred the Rebekah degree for a class.

The Odd Fellows met in the American Legion hall, the Sturgis degree staff conferring the unit degree on a class of nine. Guests of honor were Deputy Grand Master Karl Keefer of Watervliet and a Past Grand Patriarch from Indiana. The Sturgis degree staff also demonstrated a memorial service. There were guests present from South Bend, Kalamazoo, Sturgis, Hastings, and Seattle, in addition to the county towns.

Writes on Death Of R. Kudlacek

Chicago, Ill. May 18, 1937.

Berrien County Record, Buchanan, Mich.

I have just received a copy of your paper dated May 6, 1937, containing an item of the death of my brother, Rudolph Kudlacek.

The item is, in the main, quite accurate except for the following: You mentioned that my brother had finished his work at the plant on the north side at noon and that he was across the Michigan line before 1:30.

This is in error as May 1st marked the first Saturday the Union Special Machine Company did not have their plant open. They had lengthened their five day week so as to permit Saturdays off. My brother left home at approximately 10:20 a. m. The accident happened at about 12:30, we understand. We live in Chicago's south side. This definitely proves he could not have been going at a terrific rate of speed. I'd traveled with him many a time on the motorcycle and I know he was a capable, careful driver. From our home on the south side we generally reached the farm in two hours.

The time in which my brother was making his last trip was evidently taking longer than usual. By the way, my brother also won the honor pin at the Englewood night school last semester and so far this semester he had straight S's (superior) in all subjects.

Thanking you for your attention, Miss Olga Kudlacek, 6921 Parnell.

To Hold Memorial Program May 31

Because Memorial Day, May 30, falls on Sunday this year, the program will be held locally on the following Monday, according to decision by the local Legion Post. The Clark Equipment company will close on that day and the public schools will be closed at least during exercises. Rev. Karl Keefer, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church of Watervliet, will be the speaker. The parade will start in front of the Legion hall and will march to the Oak Ridge cemetery. Arrangements are in charge of John Ebers, commander of the American Legion.

Snootiest Critics Okeh Senior Play

The class of 1937 of the Buchanan high school will not exactly have money to burn as the result of the presentation of "Money to Burn" last Friday evening, but they did get a capacity house and a very good box office, according to the management.

And they appeared to have satisfied the public as few classes have in the history of the event by their very capable presentation of the play, which was pronounced by some of the snootiest critics of the city to be away above the average. The presentation was especially remarkable in the word-perfect manner in which the actors had learned their parts, and in their clear enunciation, which rendered the parts of all easily audible. The presentation reflected credit on the work of John Ebers, speech instructor, who was coaching his second play.

Mrs. Jayne Hotchkiss will have as week-end guests Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kasten, Hammond.

INVITE EDWARD, WALLY, TO MAKE HOME HERE

Fitting tribute was paid to the merits of Buchanan as one of the finest residential cities of the Middle West by the Lions club, which at its meet last night extended a formal invitation to the Duke of Windsor and his bride-to-be, Wally, to come to Buchanan and build their castle on that most beautiful castle site the Chamberlain Hills.

Although this site is now in private hands, the Club went on record as saying that it would exert to the utmost its considerable influence to induce the city to acquire the 20 acres of virgin timber that crown the plateau overlooking the city. This site is recognized as the finest location for an estate in this section and it is felt that it should be eventually put to a use worthy of its beauty. The invitation of the Lions Club follows:

"To His Grace, The Duke of Windsor, rightful ruler of the British Empire, and to his bride-to-be, Wallis Warfield: The Lions club of Buchanan extends greetings. Having learned of the preference of your Royal Highnesses for residence in America, the Lions club of Buchanan extends an invitation to you to make this city your home, and to build your castle on that most royal location, the Chamberlain Hills.

Although this site is now in private hands, the Lions club hereby pledges the utmost of its influence to secure the acquisition of this site by the city, to be tendered free and tax free, henceforth and forever, to you, AND TO YOUR HEIRS. Here, in this fair virgin grove you may pleasantly spend your years remote from the wars and the internecine jealousies that plague the nations of Europe. Here you will possess one of the most scenic views, overlooking the city of Buchanan on the north; Niles on the east, South Bend on the south and Chicago on the west, and entirely and completely overlooking the Bishop of Canterbury.

The Lions greet you on the beginning of happy days. Come and spend them with us.

Lions Club, Buchanan, Mich. H. C. Stark, President.

Drive On For Lighted Field

Prospects Of Securing Lights For Athletic Park Stir Interest in Softball

With prospects for a first class lighted softball field ahead, interest in the popular game is at record height this year according to officials of the Buchanan Athletic Association, who report nine teams lined up for the opening next Monday.

Teams which are enrolled are: Gnodtke's Drug, Root's, Dry Zero, Corner Drug, Clark Foundry, Clark Equipment, Larson's, Poorman's Grocery, Boyce & Boyce. The season will open Monday, May 24, with a game between the Gnodtke and Root teams. Umpires for the season will be James Chain and Harris Simpson.

Very encouraging reports are given from the canvass for subscriptions for a lighted field. The stakes have been set for a Grade A League lighting system which will cost about $1,500. If sufficient financial backing is secured it will require about 15 days to get the lighted field and bleachers ready for night play, according to estimates. To date the subscriptions have exceeded estimates.

The Legion has leased high-class concessions from a reputable Chicago company. This company will turn the concessions over to the Legion, which will operate them. BUCHANAN AMONG LEADERS IN INDUSTRIAL EXPANSION

Buchanan, according to a man who travels western and central Michigan in a business connection and who is very well informed, is one of a half dozen cities in his territory which is known to be definitely expanding industrially at the present time.

Among other cities with a similar current expansion are Muskegon, Kalamazoo, Holland, and Sturgis. This means that each of these cities is either acquiring a new industry or that one or more of its established industries is expanding its operations.

In the case of Muskegon, the Norge company is moving its Detroit plant to the former lumbering capital on the west coast. The Bennett Pumps company, which had moved its plant away, is moving back. The Continental Motors plant, inactive in part for a time, is now expanding in the manufacture of parts for other automotive concerns.

At Kalamazoo the paper industry is definitely expanding and Kalamazoo is a "paper" city. Also the Humphrey concern, manufacturer of water heaters, is moving back from Pittsburgh. Upjohns, maker of pharmaceutical supplies, is expanding.

At Sturgis the Kirsch company, manufacturers of Venetian blinds, is running three shifts after long inactivity. At Holland new industries employing 1200 people have entered during the past year.

Buchanan has all its factory buildings occupied by going concerns at the present time and there has been and is now in progress extensive plant expansion. Industrial conditions in Buchanan are indicated by the fact that the housing shortage is more acute here than in any city of this section. The average town in this section tends to have become "pegged," at a certain size and rating. Not so with Buchanan. The city has prospects in more than one line, and never more than at the present.

DOWAGIAC MOVES FOR PARALLEL PARKING

Parallel parking and time limit regulations for parking in business districts are being promoted by the Michigan State Highway Department in towns and cities through which state highways run, the department now being in collaboration with the city of Dowagiac for such a movement there.

It is most evident that both the parallel parking and the time parking limit are matters of the near future for Buchanan. The city is apparently working its way carefully towards a solution of the local parking and traffic problem. The installation of parallel parking on the south side of Front street was certainly an improvement from the public point of view. It cuts down the number of cars that may be parked, which in its turn will necessitate the imposition of the time limit and the improvement of the parking lot.

Dowagiac is now engaged in a study of the traffic through the city with the idea, among other things, of establishing speed zones that will progressively slow down the traffic as it approaches the business district, speeding it proportionately as it leaves. Entrances to these zones will be marked by reflector signs making them plain by night. The state-highway department officials argued that the change would be beneficial rather than a hindrance to business, since it would give the public a clearer view of store windows, and simplify traffic through the city. In many cities of Michigan, the state representative said, parallel parking has promoted business. He demonstrated how under the angle parking plan the problem of backing away from the curb into the line of oncoming traffic not only represents a hazard, but also it slows traffic and creates tangles.

GET THE REDBUD TRAIL OUT OF THE DUST

Determined moves by various sections of Michigan for highway improvement projects bring to mind that Buchanan and vicinity have been sleeping over one of the best road propositions in southwest Michigan—the Redbud Trail as a scenic highway, farm-to-market road, and a relief highway from US-31.

It is needless to recount here the scenic possibilities of this route. They are recognized, but in spite of them the road will not receive full attention from the motoring public until it has a better surface. Paved with concrete and advertised properly it could be made one of the most popular highways in southwestern Michigan, both from the standpoint of scenery and of utility for travel.

It is reported that US-31 was badly congested by traffic bound to the Twin Cities and return Saturday. Much of this might have been routed by the Redbud Trail and in addition to traffic relief the trip would have formed one of the pleasant incidents of the day. But the public does not like rough roads, and beautiful scenery is not appreciated seen through clouds of dust.

Other communities are working for propositions of less merit. The moral is—what?

QUERY—WHEN IS A PARKING LOT NOT A PARKING LOT?

The great mystery of Buchanan still remains an unsolved mystery—why don't more people use the city parking lot.

It's a fair question. Perhaps there is an answer. One suggestion is that the place still needs to be a little more orderly. The parking needs to be systematized, something as it is in the Clark Equipment company parking lots. Now the parking is too helter skelter. It doesn't attract the parking; it wastes the parking.

It would cost a little for a couple rows of posts but it costs a lot in wear and tear on disposition to fuss with people over the traffic question. The average citizen just "can't take it," when he gets called on a traffic or parking violation. Not even to be just called by the cop. And when he gets called into court, it's that much worse. Being called on a minor traffic count is not the same as being given a criminal record. It's largely a matter of public education. But the public doesn't like that means of education. Systematic planning ahead helps to avoid trouble. Making parking more systematic will lead more people to use the city lot.

There's two sides to a TRAFFIC SIGN!

Buick believes in Both!

SPEND five minutes behind the wheel of a Buick and you'll know why we stress this great car's sensational ability to get up and go.

There's no more thrilling traveler anywhere, but the whole story isn't told in Buick's power. We've matched the ablest straight-eight engine in the world—the Buick valve-in-head straight-eight engine—with tiptoe hydraulic brakes that are soft as evening in their action and certain-sure.

We've given this staunch car a backbone that's like a keel of steel—there's a close-to-earth feel to it that spells safety in any man's language.

You ride in a body that puts steel all around you—steel roof, steel panels, steel doors, steel floor—all welded into one stout unit of beautiful protection.

There's safety glass in all windows; there's No Draft Ventilation to keep windshield free of inside fogging; there's Knee-Action up front—for the true gliding ride and for the safe one.

Best of all—we've put ease into every seat—you ride relaxed and restfully in arm-chair comfort—with controls that obey as surely and easily as pointing your finger.

If you're looking for a car that will get you gloriously and safely where you want to go, five minutes at that wheel will show you that you can't do better than a Buick! See us now!

LOWEST BUICK PRICES EVER!

At today's prices, a big Buick valve-in-head straight eight costs little more than the average six outside the lowest price field! Compare delivered prices and learn how little more buys a better Buick.

"Soul and Body" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science Churches throughout the world on Sunday, May 23.
Among the Bible citations is this passage (Gal. 5:16, 17): "This I say then, Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfill the lust of the flesh. For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other: so that ye cannot do the things that ye would."
Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with key to the Scripture," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 223): "Sooner or later we shall learn that the fetters of man's finite capacity are forged by the illusion that he lives in body instead of in Soul, in matter instead of in Spirit."

News of Buchanan Schools
Collected and Edited By Members of the Journalism Class

EDITORIAL

The thrill of seeing a perfect strike sail over the plate or the end of a 440 yard dash is certainly equal to any fifty yard gain in football or a last minute tie-point in a basketball game. And yet, why is it that the latter sports are so well attended while the former have very sparse crowds?

Perhaps it is because too few students have ever witnessed enough baseball games or track meets to realize the interest and excitement which they create.

Buchanan High School's baseball team needs every student's loyal support if it is to succeed, and the track team for this year has many outstanding players; it should take a prominent part in the scheduled meets with Niles, Dowagiac, Benton Harbor, St. Joseph, and other schools.

It is possible for every student at Buchanan High School to attend these events because, while there is a nominal fee charged at baseball games to help defray expenses, the admission to track and field meets is entirely free of charge.

THROUGH THE KEY HOLE

It seems that the seniors are getting ready to make "big whoopie" on Skip Day. Senior play dress rehearsals tonight.

John Dale is getting to be quite a lady's man. Ask Marjory.

Bob Neal is all a-twitter about his prom date.

The journalism class is still waiting for a baseball game.

"Chuck" Wesner is planning to buy a side car for his motorcycle. The reason—?

"Jerry" Reamer's dog follows her to school every morning.

Essie Crothers likes beautiful flower gardens. (So she says.)

PASSING FADS OF GIRLS

This subject is rightly named. There are many fashions that rapidly change. A few of these various styles have been seen in Buchanan High School.

In the winter most girls wear woolen skirts and sweaters of contrasting colors of green, blue, black, or brown. Often they combine with them brightly patterned three-cornered scarfs. Sport oxfords predominate for school wear.

At this season wash prints and light blouses are among the most popular apparel. Sandals are chosen for evening, and white beige, or gray oxfords for daytime.

Sometimes people say clothes make or break a person, but generally speaking one must have a pleasing personality in addition to the style of garment he wears.

"Lines" fade, too.

The hair also indicates passing fads. Rolls on top of the head are seen frequently, but small curls at the nape of the neck are more prevalent. Some girls think it chic to pin their hair back of their ears, while others prefer it in front. Whatever the fads, the smart individual dresses to enhance her natural attractiveness.

"THE WANDERING FIVE"

The little place called—"Ghost Hollow," located near Dayton, Michigan, was the rendezvous of five wandering explorers Monday evening. There seems to be an old legend of some sort pertaining to moving pump handles, flapping wings, and an old deserted house. So this small party composed of ... decided to investigate these old haunts and legends: they would explore the creaking old house; leaving the car they meandered slowly toward the ruins. Suddenly the small group was tense as two bright eyes beamed up before them—on they came, closer to the group now huddled together. Then the eyes blinked even brighter and a huge roar awakened the still night. Out of the dark appeared a big truck. The party let out a sigh, quickly retraced their steps towards the car, making haste to get away from the haunts of "Ghost Hollow."

WHAT MAKES

Jackie Franks admire curly red hair?

Ruth Wales like sports so well? Katherine Mosler blush when a certain person looks at her?

Dayton so attractive to Ruby Hall on Saturday nights?

Joe March such a cut-up in first hour study hall?

Bob Hamilton say he likes all girls in Buchanan High?

Laura Lear act so shyly? Kenneth Jesse so interested in dancing lately?

"Mike" Rotzien enjoy square dancing?

CHILDREN

Many parents can relate interesting details in the raising of their small children. During the cold winter months many families gather around fire places after dishes have been washed, to spend an enjoyable evening with their offspring. Often the children tease to pop corn over the fire, or perhaps they have apple-bobbing contests. These scenes in front of the fireplace all go to make up a good old-fashioned family gathering.

The modern generation is rapidly changing from those old familiar scenes. Children seem much older, and home life is not as appealing as in the time when horse and buggies were the transportation for the younger ones. Today, just as soon as a child is old enough to drive a car, he is using it constantly thus broadening the breach between himself and his family.

Bill Donley was elected chairman pro tem.

The journalism class wrote a review of either a movie or legitimate show seen very recently. They have obtained actual experience in verbatim interviews, sports events, stage and screen productions, feature articles, panel discussions of problems met, newspaper advertising, and editorial columns.

Seventh grade English sections are studying double negatives. Case is the subject of study in the eighth grade English class room.

SCHOOL SLANTS

The annual school exhibit will be held today. Every room will be literally plastered with different types of school work from formal essays to crayon drawings. Especially interesting among the high school's displays are those in Mrs. Dunbar's and Mrs. Whitman's room.

Mr. Washburn seems to have difficulty in keeping a recently formed Ladies Aid Society (the name is his own) from meeting in the library fourth hour. He escorted two of the freshman members to their seats one day very recently.

Clyde Shaffer and Donald Virgil are expert paper pickers! They recently had the pleasure of picking up torn newspapers during home room.

This reporter absolutely refused to mention James Housman's name in an item this week, despite the fact that he wore a dandelion behind his ear for one entire day to attract attention.

The following poem was submitted to "School Slants" with Edward Smith's name signed:

And then,
"What makes the world go 'round?"
Love, a man once said.
I think that guy was crazy;
Or a little "tetched" in the head!"

THROUGH THE KEYHOLE

The Niles carnival seemed to attract certain members of the track team.

Why were so many journalism students seen at the senior play last Friday night?

"Toad" is going to escort Agnes Kovich to the prom.

Is "Chuck" Wesner going to have a sidecar in time for the big dance?

There seemed to be a lot of prom dates at the senior play. Only five more school days for the seniors. Are they sad?

THE WHISPER

A whispering campaign has been floating through the air of our fair city for the last few years as to the lighting of the public ball parks and lately the theory was advanced for a lighted softball field. The lighting system for either one would soon pay for itself within a very few years, as lights for outside recreation have been proved successful. There is no doubt whatsoever that it would be an overwhelming success in our city.

A lighting effect in our ball park would not only pay for itself through the admission charged for the games, but would bring many outsiders into our city. It would also arouse the city's recreational interest.

The small town of Galien has a lighting system from which it draws a profit. So, it has been tried and proved successful in a neighboring locality that a lighting system for a ball park is remunerative.

AMUSEMENTS

What is amusement? It is recreation, entertainment, or diversion from the ordinary routine of life. It is the things we do, not because we have to, but because we like to and enjoy them.

Let us start with movies. Some movies are educational as well as entertaining. They provide entertainment in both cold and warm seasons.

Now that summer is here, skating, swimming, and bicycling will occupy a great part of people's time. These sports are beneficial as well as ideally recreational. They occupy much of one's time out of doors and are good exercises as well.

Dancing is another form of year round amusement, an escape to some folks from the annoyances and worries of life. One becomes enthusiastic in the music and the people and forgets the troubles that worry him during the day.

Whoever we may be or whatever we may do, amusements take problems off our minds and provide entertainment in life.

PUPPY GOES TO SCHOOL

"Well, here I am. Now I'll wait till the door is opened; then I'll slip in and see whom I can find that I know. Oh! Boy! here comes that neighbor girl of ours, Suzie; she'll let me in, I'm sure."

"Sure enough, in came the puppy dog. Up the halls he went, in and out of the rooms, but none were there to meet him.

"See whiz! no school today? I wonder why? Oh, I know, I have to go downstairs and wait till the bell rings."

So down the stairs trotted the puppy. No sooner had he reached the bottom step than the bell rang; back up he came, right into stuy hall where all the students were talking and laughing.

"That group looks like a friendly crowd, I don't think they will kick me out," the puppy reasoned as he trotted over by the students.

No, they didn't kick him out, either. They told him to lie down beside their desks. When the teacher was taking roll, she spied him and told one of the boys to take him outside. It seems that school just isn't the place for dogs, because every time they come, even if they do get inside the door, they go out faster than they came in.

HOSS AND BUGGY DAYS

Ye old boss and buggy days were recalled with the recent burning of "Pete" Fuller's beautiful brick mansion on Front street. The cupola-adorned home was one of the last of the old landmarks dating "back when." It was built in 1866, a short time after the Civil War, and had majestically overlooked the business district and surrounding locality until its destruction by that stealthy, crackling enemy, fire.

The present condition of Buchanan's paved streets, and the graveled ones, too, reminds one of the time when Main Street was a mere sandy, winding trail leading in the general direction of St. Joe, Baroda, and Berrien Springs. The old Niles-Buchanan road was graveled and so narrow that at certain places there was room for only one model "T" Ford to pass safely without going in the ditch.

Not so many years ago there was no River Street plant of the Clark Equipment Company. The old "Beehive" on Days Avenue has been torn down. Some years preceding its destruction another old ramshackle barn across the street was razed to make way for the present brick structure of the Farmer's Cooperative Association.

OFFICE NEWS

ART ARNOLD'S COUSIN FROM UTAH Sees a "torture test"

"Believe me," he writes, "I KNOW Hudson and Terraplane are the No. 1 CARS. I saw what they did on the Salt Flats"

"I saw a LOW PRICED car beat the best any closed car had ever done before! That 1937 Terraplane... a stock car, mind you, picked at random by the American Automobile Association Contest Board officials... went 1,000 miles out there on those great Salt Flats, averaging 66.54 miles an hour! What a 'torture test' of endurance!

"Then a Hudson... 2104 miles in 24 hours! Out here, we've seen a lot of stock cars come to the Salt Flats and try for that 24-hour record... the prize of them all. But none ever touched what we saw that 1937 Hudson do! 87.67 miles an hour... for a full day and night! 32 official records for Hudson... on top of 8 for Terraplane!

"Then those California records! Terraplane beat every other leading low priced car... and Hudson beat every other Eight... in the Los Angeles-Yosemite Economy Run. And then... the Wrightwood Canyon climb! Up 9 wickets, twisting miles in 8 minutes, 20 seconds for Terraplane; 8 minutes, 0.4 seconds for an official Hudson record.

"You can bet it's Hudson for me! Those people know how to build automobiles. Art. More power. More size and room. More economy and safety and endurance than any other cars anywhere near them in price. Proved in official tests. I've got mine... and once you drive one, you'll say it's your No. 1 CAR, too! See if you don't!"

No. 1 Cars of the Low and Moderate Price Fields
No. 1 Wheelbases... 117 inches in Terraplane; 122 and 129 inches in Hudson.
No. 1 Horsepower... 96 and 101 in Terraplane; 101, 107 and 122 in Hudson. Double carburetion in Super Terraplane and all Hudson Sixes and Eights.
No. 1 Roominess... 65 full inches of front seat comfort for three.
No. 1 Driving Ease... with exclusive Selective Automatic Shift (an optional extra).

Worthington Tells of When He Stumped County For Rep. Hamilton

He Made 10 Speeches In Day, and Finished with 45-Min. Talk at Niles

Politics used to be different and people used to be different, or at least they seemed different in the opinion of Atty. A. A. Worthington, who talked about old time political campaigns and campaigning after he had made a catch-as-catch can talk before the Lions Club Wednesday evening.

The way it came about the speaker of the evening did not show up, but "Uncle Bert" Worthington, honorary member of the club, was present. Some one slid a note along to him to the effect that "you can always make a talk, so won't you help out."

Uncle Bert did it very well, and afterward it reminded him of another time he had to go to bat to "help out" some 25 years or so ago.

It was one of the first political tours of the county by auto ever made. A group of Republican politicians and candidates, headed by Congressman Hamilton, met at St. Joseph, at 7:30 a. m. They were going to make a swing clear around the county and it would require an early start. The entourage of ten old model cars chugged southwestward over a rutty road of sand and dirt. At 8:30 a. m. they steamed into Stevensville with much chugging and backfiring of motors and honking of horns, mingled with the cheers of the sizeable crowd that had gathered even at that hour. There was likely the usual crowd of politicians, according to Worthington, which would include Atty. Gore of Benton Harbor, and Judge Coolidge and Carmi Smith of Niles.

Worthington was scheduled for a ten minute speech at every stop. He never ran for office, but he was a Congressman Hamilton's right-hand, ace-in-the-hole spell-binder in all campaigns. They went on down the lake front, speaking to crowds at every village and hamlet, and taking dinner at New Buffalo. After dinner there was speechmaking there, and they chugged on to Three Oaks, very likely making the usual stops, while a mechanic crawled under some refractory motor-vehicle, and tinkered with its innards until once more it tossed its horns and snorted and started off with a series of banging like a machine gun battery in action.

There was more speaking at Three Oaks and at Gallen they stopped for supper. After supper the crowd gathered in front of the postoffice and once again Hamilton, Worthington et al proclaimed the great principles of Republicanism, the foundation of the prosperity of this, our nation. Then they chugged on up the old Gallen road and shortly after 7 p. m. they steamed down Front street, most of the cars being able to coast down the hill into the business section without mechanical difficulty. At the corner of Main and Front there was a platform at the corner of the First National bank, scene of political hustings and speechmakings of all kind since the days of John C. Fremont and Abe Lincoln. There of course all the Republicans, which really approximated about all of the people in town were gathered in a cheering throng, and while it wasn't necessary to tell them of the virtues of the party it was a real pleasure to speak before such an appreciative audience.

They they went on over Niles hill for the big evening rally in the stronghold of the Democrats. That was always a sort of a nerve-wracking affair for a Republican for those Niles Democrats were a kind of lowly bunch and if anybody, so to speak, put his foot in his mouth it would be bad. After they dismounted from their cars, Congressman Hamilton called Worthington aside.

"You know I'm not very husky," he said, and I don't know whether I can go through a 45-minute speech after all of this campaigning today. You know my wife is my boss. If she says I can't I can't. I want you to be prepared to go on the platform and talk at any time. I am going to start but my wife will sit in the gallery, and if I see that red head shaking, I am going to sit down."

So after the usual preliminaries Hamilton took the platform for the big talk of the evening. But it became evident in a very few minutes that his load of steam was pretty well down, and pretty soon, up in the gallery, the red-head wagged a negative. Hamilton rounded off with an oratorical flourish and sat down and Worthington went on, the platform to talk for three quarters of an hour. It was easy because he liked the excitement of talking before any crowd, friendly or hostile, and he was ready for that Niles crowd, for he was fresh as a daisy, having made only ten other speeches that day.

On the occasion of his 80th birthday, Worthington received a letter from Carmi Smith, one of the few members of that campaigning party yet alive. Smith recalled the days when Hamilton, Gore, Worthington, Coolidge and himself had been the assault guns of every Republican convention and rally. Back in the nineties they used to meet at the old court house at Berrien Springs. About 350 party men would attend, and they would talk and compare notes for hours as to the best nominations to make. That was the way the real business was done. Then would come the big show when the formal sessions opened and they put the seal official approval on the business already decided on. No convention was ready to start until Gore and Worthington arrived, Smith said.

Found Plenty of Sand
One pioneer immigrant to the Reserve apparently had the idea that the inland was so inlandish that it knew not what a shore was. From the East, she brought the Cleveland Plain Dealer, she brought some sand for scouring, and threw it away when she saw there was plenty on Lake Erie's shore.
