

CITY TO GO TO POLLS NEXT THURSDAY

George Hanley, Last Buchanan Civil War Veteran Dies at 93

Now Here's the Proposition

As Casey Jones might have said it:
All you fishermen, get your lines,
Dig out your poles and get your flies.
With the big day for hook and line enthusiasts tomorrow, little peace can be expected from now on for a stretch by those who haven't "fisherman's heart." For with apologies to a forgotten lyricist:
A bunch of the boys will be swapping stories,
Down at the old town corners.

With the completion of nearly a 6,000 mile non-stop flight by the Russian flyers, it doesn't seem at all improbable that future generations may witness a non-stop flight around the world. But you go ahead and think about it. There's no use of both of us being giddy at the thought of it.

To Speed Demons

The following was submitted in a letter to the safety committee:
He drove his car at break-neck speed,
Danger signs he'd never heed;
So now his car don't shine or glister,
He ignored the sign, "Stop, look, and listen."
Let's hope all other chaps are wise,
And are not speeders in disguise;
All back seat drivers take a care,
Or the speeder's fate you'll have to share.
Just stop and think how you would feel,
If before Judge Mathie you would steal.
To pay a fine of, say fifty or so,
I think next time you'd drive real slow.
Now take this tip, just think and ponder,
Drive sensibly—do fifty or under;
Play safe and sane in these car-crazed times,
And deaf you will be to St. Peter's Chimes.

The safety committee has announced that the author, who signed with initials can receive a dollar award by reporting his or her identity to the committee.

Military Rites Held on Monday

Served Under Grant, Meade
Volunteered Early, Saw
Lee Surrender

The last Buchanan Civil War Veteran, George Hanley, died Friday afternoon, at 3:45 o'clock at his home at 204 W. Front Street. He had served as private, corporal and sergeant in Co. A, 67th Ohio Infantry, under Grant and Meade, and saw duty for the duration of the war, enlisting with early volunteers, and being present at Lee's surrender at Appomattox.

He helped chase Stonewall Jackson up the Shenandoah when that rebel leader made his sortie down to Harper's Ferry; he was in the army that headed off Early when that rebel reached the suburbs of Washington; he was in the bloody fight at Ft. Wagner in Charlestown Harbor; he saw service in all of that famous Peninsular campaign under Grant.

He served under General Meade in the army of the Potomac, and under the division commander, General B. F. Butler; he helped to construct a fort across the peninsula from the Rappahannock to the James River; and was in the subsequent siege of Richmond which finally resulted in driving Lee out.

In Charge Which Broke Lee's Line
He was in the apex of the charge which broke Lee's line on April 3, 1865. When Lee abandoned Richmond a few days later, Hanley marched with the infantry that followed in the wake of the Union cavalry leader Sheridan and headed Lee off. Hanley's division made nearly 35 miles in the darkness. When Sheridan's cavalry drew back to permit the infantry to come up after blocking the march of the enemy, Hanley was in the last charge upon Lee's force just a few minutes before the surrender of the Confederate forces, and saw Lee and Grant ride up to McLean house and enter for their historical meeting.

For several weeks Hanley was stationed at Richmond, and among his recollections, were memories of General Lee riding "Traveler" down to the stream daily, and dismounting to water him, talking to the Union men meanwhile. After several months in Western Virginia, Hanley was discharged in the late summer of 1865 and went home to Attica.

He was born on Christmas day, 1843, in Tomkins, N. Y., the son of Patrick and Nancy Hanley, both natives of Ireland. As a young boy he came with his parents to Ohio, where he grew up. At the outbreak of the Civil War in 1861, he enlisted in the Union forces. Upon discharge he returned to his home in Ohio, staying there for a short while, then some seventy years ago came to Michigan.

On August 4, 1868, he married Matilda Brocius at the old Brocius homestead, one mile west of Buchanan. Born to this union were three children: Myrtle who died at the age of three; Fred B. who died April 30, 1928; and one daughter living, Mrs. Ernest Newberry of Buchanan.

Moved to Buchanan 30 Years Ago
For many years George Hanley and his family lived on a farm three miles northwest of Buchanan. About thirty years ago, they moved to Buchanan to the home at West Front street, where Mrs. Hanley passed away May 13, 1936. Since that time Mrs. Newberry and her husband have remained with her father.

A military funeral was held on Monday. Services were at his home, at 2:00 p. m., and the Rev. W. H. Brunelle of the Presbyterian Church officiated. Burial was in a family lot in Oak Ridge cemetery, with members of the American Legion acting as pallbearers and conducting the burial rites.

Surviving beside Mr. and Mrs. Newberry are a daughter-in-law, Mrs. F. B. Hanley, and a grandson Harry Ernest Hanley, of Kansas City, Missouri.

Construction On Dry Zero Plant Near Completion

Expectations that the new Dry Zero Building will be completed this week were voiced by Ed Meine, plant engineer. The next job will be to install plant equipment, and because of uncertainty as to the length of time required, and because much of the changing of the plant layout will have to be done at a low production rate; it is at present uncertain as to when the plant will be entirely ready for operation.

When complete it is estimated that the new plant will increase the plant capacity and plant employment about twice their former peaks. The plant at present employs about 65 persons.

The Buchanan branch is a subsidiary of the parent plant, located at Chicago, with home offices in the Merchandise Mart. Insulation for refrigeration is now being manufactured by the plant but when the new addition is in operation, additional types are expected to be manufactured. The plant which recently purchased several acres off of Carrol Street, began operations in Buchanan on December 28.

Dry Zero insulation is made from a little known Celiba tree of the tropics. The Celiba tree grows sometimes to a height of 100 feet and bears many seed pods containing the fiber from which Dry Zero insulation is made. The unique silky fiber renders it an effective insulator against heat. A patented process of "graining" results in a highly heat-resisting product.

Local Cyclist Places 2nd at Clear Lake

Ernest Malling of Buchanan placed second in motorcycle race held Sunday at Clear Lake by the Black Ace Motorcycle Club of Benton Harbor. Three elimination runs were held, nine drivers competing in the finals. Winners in the finals were as follows: first place, Dale Rozinski, at St. Joseph; second place, Ernest Malling, Buchanan; third place, Len Pfeiffer, Bridgman.

About thirty members and their guests attended a picnic held before the meet, and afterwards went to Benton Harbor for dinner.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Dick McIntyre of South Bend, June 19, a baby girl, Toddy Rae. Mrs. McIntyre will be remembered as Miss Esther Haines, who formerly lived on West Smith street, Buchanan.

Fat Dogs, Lean Dogs, Big Dogs, Little Dogs, to Follow Piper

Howling, Squawling, Barking,
Larking, Good Time
Expected

Fat dogs, lean dogs, big dogs, little dogs, white cats, yellow cats, black cats, gray cats, will follow the Pied Piper on Saturday, July 31.

What Pied Piper? Why the Legion Piper. But why all the cats, dogs and —? Why, for the Legion pet parade of course. Maybe there won't be a pied piper, for the Legion boys haven't made all their plans yet. Or maybe there won't be a "pipe," but there will be, if we know our pets, enough noise to offset the lack of the piping tunes there would be if there were a pied piper piping.

The Record count has been trying to get some advance dope on the entries but so far apparently all managers are keeping their champions hidden. Or maybe they've been waiting for further information on what prizes, for what, and when. Well here they are as the Legion man told me.

The pet parade will be held on the last day of the American Legion carnival, Saturday, July 31. Prizes will be given for the largest pet, the smallest pet, the homeliest pet, the handsomest pet, the "cutest" pet, and the best made up pet. No pet will be given any more than one prize. The amounts of the prizes, and the exact plans or the parade still remain to be settled.

So, get your pet primed or pruned, or whatever you do to get ready for a pet parade, so your "champ" will look his biggest, his smallest, his homeliest, his handsomest or what have you.

Hanley Honored In Last Rites

Homage was paid Monday in honor of a man whose life had spanned the inaugurations of twenty-one presidents; in honor of a man who had fought in a war that threatened to split and destroy the unity of his nation; in honor of a man who served his country well—George Hanley.

A hushed assemblage gathered at his home and listened to the services. Then two uniformed rows formed before the house and came to present arms, and the flag draped coffin was carried out between them.

The soldiers took their places behind the funeral car, and preceded by the color bearers, the long slow procession to the burial grounds began.

At the burial grounds the two lines formed again and came to present arms, and once more the old soldier was carried between the ranks.

The final rites were read. Then the flag was undraped from the coffin, three sharp volleys fired, and the clear, saddening notes of taps sounded. Then the haunting, gentle echo of the second trumpet—and a hero went to his rest.

P. T. A. Provides Free Milk For Needy Students

That 5,368 bottles of free milk, representing a total value of $117.36 were distributed in the last school term as a result of the P. T. A. milk fund, was reported by Mrs. Reba Lamb, school nurse. The money making this distribution possible was collected by the P. T. A. association, the greater share being obtained when contributors for contributions were placed in filling stations and stores, the remainder being acquired by other donations.

Milk is sold to all students who wish it at two cents for a half-pint bottle. Mrs. Lamb states, but some underweight children who need the milk are unable to pay for it, she says, and it is this group for which the P. T. A. milk fund provides free milk.

Free milk has been provided by this plan for the past nine years, Mrs. Lamb said, expressing satisfaction with the work done this year, and voicing hopes that the next year's program be as successful.

Another P. T. A. activity, Mrs. Lamb added, is that sponsored by the national organization, of providing free medical examination and diphtheria immunization for all kindergarten children.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl W. Stanton and daughter, Ruth, from Los Angeles, arrived here Monday to visit Mr. and Mrs. George Smith.

Cash Ready For Traffic Letter Contest Winners

Sparse Response Prevents
More Awards, Reports
Safety Committee

That ready money awaits winners of awards for the five best traffic letters of the week, was announced by the safety committee of the Lion's club. Twelve awards of one dollar have thus far been given out, the committee reported, stating that only the scarcity of letters has prevented more.

Letters may be written criticizing some traffic incident observed, making some suggestion to facilitate traffic movement or reduce accident causing factors, or offering any other comments on traffic problems of the city, the committee announced.

Letters need not be long, the committee pointed out, stating that a simple report is all that is needed. These reports are of special importance as they are to be used as a basis for the traffic study by the National Safety Council.

The progress being made on the parking lot and the proposed extension of Third street, are both factors which will help out the traffic situation here, of the members of the committee stated, urging community cooperation and activity to further make the Buchanan campaign for better traffic conditions successful.

Among suggestions made in letters received by the safety committee are the following:

Have signs stating the parking limit.

Limit the time on loading zones. Merchandisers might have their own signs to put out.

Put up a stop sign at the corner of Lake and Third, as cars coming north on Lake cannot see cars coming west on Third until they get to the corner.

Mark the corner of Chicago and Terre Coupe as a dangerous intersection, because of the poor visibility in both directions. Put a large stop sign on Chicago to protect Terre Coupe traffic.

Place the stop sign on Terre Coupe, before the Terre Coupe-Front intersection, 150 feet further down. The sign is placed too close to Front and consequently frequently ignored as motorists lack enough warning to stop. Also cut down the high grass at this corner to permit better vision.

Buchanan Woman Severely Injured In Car Collision

Mrs. Hugh Pierce was cut badly about the mouth in an accident near Potoskey, Sunday noon, when she and Mr. Pierce accompanied by Ruth Pierce and Harry Cooper, were returning home from the marriage of Harold Pierce and Betty Graham. None of the other occupants of one car were seriously injured, although Miss Pierce was badly bruised.

The accident is reported to have occurred when a car coming towards the Pierce car suddenly turned in front of them, towards a nearby field where a crowd had collected around an airplane. The car after turning, is said to have suddenly stopped and the Pierce car crashed into it.

Mrs. Pierce was immediately taken to a hospital in Potoskey for medical attention but was soon released. She has been in South Bend hospital for X-rays to determine if her jaw had been shattered. Last reports were that her jaw may be partially shattered, but that further examination would be necessary to determine the extent of her injuries.

Mrs. Homer Cooper went to Benton Harbor today to remain for a week helping care for her sister, Kathryn, who broke her ankle last week.

INDUSTRY'S ADVOCATE

Mrs. Anna Steese Richardson, playwright, author and associate editor of Woman's Home Companion, who has just completed a 100,000 mile trip throughout the United States, talking to women's groups and conventions, explaining the constant efforts of industrial and business research experts to perfect products for the American home and American health. Says Mrs. Richardson: "Anyone who reads the advertisements in the newspapers and magazines can see the romantic story of what industrial research and mass production have done to make this country the best of its kind."

Severe Rainfall Causes Losses, Wisner's, Record

Damages estimated at from $600.00 to $2,200 were caused by the severe rainfall last Sunday evening and Monday morning. An estimated damage of from $300 to $3,000 was incurred by Wisner's Drug Co., about $300 by the Record, and lesser damages by several other stores. Water broke through the temporary Co-Op dam, prematurely flooding the pen stock.

No serious damage was reported from the country, the rain flattening some wheat, but, it is reported, most of it has come back up.

About sixteen inches of water flowed into the Wisner basement. The early spring stock had been placed on the floor rather than on higher shelving as is customary in the fall and winter, both because of a larger stock and also because such disastrous flooding of the basement had never before taken at this time of the year. The water in the Wisner basement came up through cavities in the concrete floor, the excess water in the creek because of its forced opening, increasing the inflow of water.

The Record basement was flooded with about six inches of water, and a considerable amount of paper stock damaged. The water in the Record building was the result of an overflow from Days avenue caused by the stoppage of drains by debris washed down the street into the grates, and pipes.

The ground floor of the Wilson Dairy was covered with about two inches of water, which came in through the back yard, from Oak Street. No serious damage, beyond the ruin of some crates and wrapping paper was caused.

E. Bachman Appointed Head of Cal., Nev., Forest Recreation

News of the appointment of Earl Bachman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Bachman, to the position senior forester in charge of recreational work in California and Nevada, was recently received.

Mr. Bachman was a graduate of Buchanan High School in 1921, and from the forestry department of Michigan State College in 1925. After graduation from M. S. C. he was employed as supervisor of the Shasta forest, remaining there until 1935, being placed in charge of the timber sales and land in Shasta forest. He has also served as assistant supervisor of the Pahoe national forest. He has now moved to San Francisco to assume his new duties.

To Ballot First Proposed Changes To City Charter

Three Amendments to be Voted On Separately
The first proposed amendments to the Buchanan city charter, since adoption in 1929, will be voted on next Thursday. Election of the mayor, city treasurer, and city clerk by the city at large, and election of the city commissioners by a precinct vote are the essential changes proposed.

The amendments would institute the nomination of candidates for the posts of treasurer, and city clerk by petition in the same manner as commissioners are now nominated.

Each amendment can be voted on separately and in each case the placing of X before Yes on the ballot will indicate that the voter is in favor of the proposed change. The placing of an X before "No" on the ballot will indicate that the voter desires to leave the charter in its present form with respect to the issue of the particular ballot.

Proponents, Opponents, Arguments

Proponents of the amendments set forth the opinion that changes of each precinct on the city commission.

large in staggered three year, Opponents of the amendments assert that the amendments would introduce politics into the offices of treasurer, and city clerk, increasing the possibility of inefficiency in these offices, and by making the commissioners elective by precincts would promote the growth of precinct politics.

The first amendment proposes the election of the mayor by a city at large vote for a two year term instead of being appointed annually by the commission from their number, and the election of one commissioner from each precinct for two year staggered terms instead of as at present electing the commissioners from the city at large in staggered three year terms.

Election of Mayor in 1938 Proposed
This amendment proposes the election of a mayor and one commissioner from the city at large in 1938 for two year terms, the election of one commissioner from the city at large in 1939 for a one year term, the election of two commissioners from each precinct in 1940, the two highest for two year terms, the two lowest for one year terms, and thereafter, the election of one commissioner annually from each precinct for the two year staggered term.

The second amendment proposes the election of the city treasurer by a city at large vote, for a two year term, instead of appointment of the treasurer by the City Commission as at present.

The third amendment proposes the election of the city clerk also by a city at large vote and for a two year term. The city clerk likewise at present being appointed by the commission.

Life of Penguins

Rarely do even adult penguins survive the initial days of captivity. Why, is not definitely known. Many explorers have carefully nourished penguins halfway back from the Antarctic only to see their charges mysteriously die on board the ship. Even in their native habitat, penguins don't lead soft lives. There is the vicious skua gull to eat the eggs and young. Despite those difficulties, penguins manage to get along, live in communities, are almost human in appearance, and make proper choices of mates.

artificial light may have gone modern with their new under-water light rigs, but they are no farther ahead of the law, conservation authorities say.

While the submarine lights now more commonly in use are not as conspicuous at night as the old-style open flame "jacks," they cause a tell-tale glow over the water which conservation enforcement men have learned to recognize at once.

Several poachers have been arrested this spring in southern Michigan for spearing with artificial light and their "twentieth century" jacklights confiscated. In one case the violator was assessed a fine of $100 in justice court.

Life of Penguins

Rarely do even adult penguins survive the initial days of captivity. Why, is not definitely known. Many explorers have carefully nourished penguins halfway back from the Antarctic only to see their charges mysteriously die on board the ship. Even in their native habitat, penguins don't lead soft lives. There is the vicious skua gull to eat the eggs and young. Despite those difficulties, penguins manage to get along, live in communities, are almost human in appearance, and make proper choices of mates.

27 Girl Scouts Leave for Camp At Lone Tree

Bound for a week of camping and sports at Lone Tree Camp at Three Rivers, 27 local Girl Scouts left town today. Their camp week is to be called the Juliette Lowe Memorial week, in honor of Juliette Lowe, who founded the Girl Scouts organization 25 years ago.

The camping activities, extending from June 24 to July 1, will be under the supervision of leaders of the Oak Park Girl Scouts, and will consist of handicraft work, nature studies, tests for merit badges, and various sports such as swimming and canoeing.

The camp, which covers 30 acres and possesses facilities for 125 girls, is divided into units of five cabins each. The Buchanan Girl Scouts will be assigned to one of the units. Credit for work at the camp is given to girl scouts by the national headquarters as the camp is an accredited one.

Special Swimming Precautions Each group of eight girls will have an instructor. Special precautions will be taken when the girls are swimming. Life guards will be on the pier and the "buddy" system used. Under this system, the girls are paired off, a whistle blows every three minutes, and each girl must find her "buddy" and hold her hand up. The director of the camp will be Mrs. Mildred Marsh, and one of the assistants will be Miss Nelle Renne. Both are from Oak Park and have been here several times to meet the local council.

Local Group Organized 5 Years The fifth year of existence of the local Girl Scouts was marked last Sunday, June 20. The unit, composed of three troops and a Brownie Pack, now has 82 members. The Brownie Pack is for girls less than ten years old.

The local Girl Scouts attending

Driver Training in High Schools Reported Success

Dual Control Autos, Actual Traffic Conditions, Used in Practice

Believing that instruction in the theory of the rules of the road and actual practice in driving a car has a place in the curriculum of the present-day high school as a means of promoting highway safety, the American Automobile Association last fall sponsored a Driver Training Program which already has met with great success in ten high schools in various parts of the country.

Arrangements were made whereby Professor Amos E. Neyhart was granted a leave from Pennsylvania State College in order to direct his educational program for the A. A. A. Professor Neyhart has been developing this program for the last five years and today instructors in Driver Training Programs are selected as far as possible from 135 graduates who have specialized in driver training at Penn State.

The first ten high schools to inaugurate the AAA Driver Training Programs are located in Saugatit, N. Y.; Portland, Me.; Bradford, Pa.; Birmingham, Ala.; State College, Pa.; Washington, D. C.; Cleveland and Toledo, O.; Bluefield, W. Va., and Spokane, Wash.

Actual automobiles are used to make the road instruction practical. The cars are painted white with special AAA Driver Training lettering and a set of dual-control clutch and brake pedals is installed in the right hand front seat position for use of the instructor. Dual-control pedals are directly connected with the driver's regulation pedals.

With dual-control pedals mishaps are prevented while the student is driving as the instructor can throw out the clutch and apply the brakes instantly. Also, correct clutching, braking and the proper shifting of gears are learned more rapidly by the student.

To make road instruction practical, practice streets are laid out through cooperation of the police and the local automobile club. In this way actual driving situations are presented to the driver. The street is marked off with pedestrian crosswalks, stop signs, blinkers, traffic lights, parallel and angle parking, right and left turns.

It has been found best to train drivers of high school age because their nervous systems are at their best for forming new habits, and the learning period grows longer as the age goes up.

These one-semester courses in Driver Training are a part of the school curriculum and carry a three-hour credit for the student. Twenty-eight hours of instruction are given each student with 20 hours in the classroom and eight hours of actual road practice for each student. Seventy two miles is the average covered by each student during his driving instruction.

So much interest has been created in this phase of highway safety education that nine colleges and universities are offering these training courses to teachers during their 1937 summer school sessions.

As an indication of Driver Training programs among high schools the AAA has received application from 500 schools in the United States and foreign countries. Every application is investigated carefully.

Schools in which the course has been completed report that students, faculty, boards of education and the citizenry have approved it heartily. Fine comments have been received from highway patrols and traffic bureaus who examine these students for their operator's license.

Biggest Farm Market Since War Expected, Says Business Week

The 1937 farm market will prove the richest since the war, says Business Week. Gain over 1936 is anticipated at 10 per cent or more—which means a rise of close to $800,000,000, for a total of more than $8,500,000,000. Agriculture's high occurred in 1929, with an income of almost $10,500,000,000; its low in 1932—$4,328,000,000.

This year's increase will be the result of several factors: 1. Larger harvests in most crops; 2. Heavier consumer demand, due to better times; 3. Governmental benefits; 4. Shortage in livestock, which will be reflected in higher prices.

No business news of moment has appeared lately. Most industries, when seasonal adjustment is made, are doing well. Construction continues to rise, particularly in the domestic field. Sales of

Big Ones Are Biting This Fishing Season

Two fine fish such as these are enough to account for a happy smile on any fisherman's face. Lakes and streams are yielding bigger catches than in recent years, sportsmen report, and fishermen find their angling made easier when a little outboard motor eliminates the backbreaking effort of getting to the spot where the big ones are biting.

HEADS AIR BUREAU

Richard C. Gazley, chief engineer of the bureau of air commerce of the Commerce department, who recently received his appointment as chief of the safety and planning division from Secretary Roper.

ROUND-UP QUEEN

A ten gallon hat replaced a crown for the coronation of Miss Dorothy Alcorn, above, as queen of the St. Paul, Minn., stockyards. She was chosen to reign over the annual round-up of the Hook 'em Cow club, an organization of stockmen, farmers, ranchers and shippers who market their livestock at St. Paul.

electrical equipment, air-conditioning units, and similar articles are thus on the up.

The price picture is relatively unchanged. It is believed that there will be major advances this year in a few fields, but not in all by any means.

Early Notice Urged For Women's Meet

Women planning to attend the Farm Women's Week at Michigan State College, July 25-30, are advised by a dispatch from Lansing to register early because dormitory facilities are limited. Further information may be obtained by writing the short course office, Michigan State College, East Lansing.

Hypnotists in Seventeenth Century The first time that hypnotists appeared in any considerable numbers was in Seventeenth century England, when hypnotic quacks and mummies traveled the country. They produced hallucinations, even convulsions, in their subjects, and professed to be able to cure scrofula.

How Insects Breathe Although insects have no wind-pipe or lungs—they breathe through rows of tiny "pore-holes" in the sides of their bodies—certain moths, such as the Green Silver-lined and the Death's Head Hawk, make little clicking, whistling, or squeaking noises.

Buchanan Bow and Arrow Club May Be Formed, Rumors Suggest

Rumors of the possibility of the formation of an archery club in Buchanan are in the air as the result of recent comments made by L. B. Spafford, and favorable reaction of John Miller, high school coach and newly appointed athletic director as to the possibilities of available field facilities. To date the foremost local devotees of the sport are Mr. Spafford, Walton Becker, and James Everingham. The latter two, it is said, are planning to go hunting next fall to exhibit their skill with the Hiawathian weapons of war. Rev. Carpenter and Dr. Converse are reported more recent recruits.

The possibilities of the formation of such a club will depend of course upon the response which the idea receives, but with the increasing popularity of the sport throughout the country, and the reported success of archery clubs in other cities, it will not be at all surprising if at some near future date a great many parts of the local scenery will be dotted with local converts to the Indian way. From Manitowoc it is reported that the suggestion that a club be formed there was taken up immediately by 400 enthusiastic enrollees.

Because of the pressure of other business, Mr. Spafford does not consider himself available to organize a local club, so the position is open to a willing volunteer.

Case Seeks Cause For Mich. Drop In Chain Stores

The number of chain stores in Michigan, and the number of companies operating chain stores in this state show a marked decrease in 1937, as compared with 1936, and Leon D. Case, Secretary of State, has ordered an investigation to determine the reasons.

The reduction in chain stores and chain store operating firms, is also noted in figures for chain counters and firms operating them.

On May 31, 1937, there were 6,382 chain stores licensed by the Department of State to operate in Michigan. On May 31, 1936, the number of chain stores was 7,111; the reduction this year is slightly more than 10 per cent. The number of firms operating chain stores shows a reduction of 16.3 per cent this year over last, the figures being: for 1936, a total of 1,365 with the 1937 total shown to be 1,142.

The greatest reduction, on a percentage basis, is shown for chain counters, which are operated within stores for the sale of certain types of merchandise. In 1936, there were 368 chain counters licensed; in 1937, this had dropped to 296, a reduction of nearly 20 per cent. The number of firms operating chain counters has dropped more than 16 per cent.

Attention was drawn to the condition because of its marked contrast with the general increase in business and the number of business establishments. Chain stores and chain counters are taxed in Michigan, under authority of an act of the 1933 Legislature.

Those farmers who intend to grow beans next year on land now in clover or alfalfa should plan to fall plow as an aid in preventing maggot injury. The same procedure holds true, also, for land infested with thistles and with heavy growths of dandelions, Hutson suggests.

Conditions aiding the bean maggot infestation also are likely to increase the danger from cabbage and onion maggots, Hutson believes. Damage from cabbage maggots may be prevented through the use of tar-paper disks placed around each plant and pressed into the soil around the plant. Watering cabbage with a corrosive sublimate solution is a reliable treatment. It is applied by watering about the plants when they are set out and two times afterward at weekly intervals. Extension Bulletin No. 179, "Bean, Cabbage and Onion Maggots," may be obtained free by addressing a request to Bulletin Room, Michigan State College, East Lansing.

The men said they spent two hours in a tree while the mother bear wrecked their lunch pails.

for the first time since federal government records have been kept. The average May price to farmers was reported at 15.2 cents a pound for chicken and 14.3 for turkeys.

Dinklers for chickens is the latest poultry fad. On the farm of Theodore Wirtanen, Conneaut, Ohio, 1,500 White Leghorns are wearing tin spectacles. Shaped like ordinary eyeglasses, the lens are of opaque metal. The spectacles prevent the fowls from seeing straight ahead and are designed to reduce their fighting ability as well as to protect their eyes in courtyard battles.

to do so. He was about to toss the coal into his furnace when he noticed what appeared to be a heavy string attached. Further investigation disclosed that the string led to a charge of dynamite that had been tamped into a drilled hole and plugged with paper. Apparently the charge had been placed there by a miner and had failed to explode.

Alice Hutchinson Appointed to Extension Staff as Youth Development Expert

Michigan has become one of 14 states with a full time specialist in child development. Announcement of the appointment of Alice Hutchinson on the staff of the extension service of Michigan State College is coupled with a review of the progress and interest in this program since 1929.

More than 3,000 families in the Upper and Lower Peninsula were enrolled in phases of child development programs of the extension service in 1936, yet when the work was first started with Mrs. Lydia Ann Lynde, recently resigned, only two counties signified interest in the work.

Goals are to bring parents the newer knowledge in the field of child development, to help parents study their children so that the youngsters can be normal, self directed and socially useful individuals. Greater happiness in the home and training of persons to later serve as local leaders in social direction are other goals.

This spring the state has made a record of 15 counties which have completed four years of work and participation. All but eight of the 33 counties in the state have had some phase of the development project. Radio programs over the college station WKAR at East Lansing are a part of the program.

Social Workers
To Hold Meet
at M. S. C., July

Phases of social work and problems including state social work laws and old age assistance will be discussed during a week's Institute of Social Welfare at Michigan State College, July 12 to 16.

Nearly 850 social workers from all sections of Michigan are expected to attend the discussions and general lectures, which will be in charge of nationally known specialists in the various social service fields. The list of speakers and those who will lead discussion groups includes Warden Joel Moore of the state prison of southern Michigan; the Rev. Fredrick Siedenbueg of the University of Detroit and president of the Michigan Conference of Social Work; Lee A. White of the Detroit News; Mary Atkinson, chief and Mrs. Hazel A. Hendricks, field consultant, child welfare service, U. S. Children's Bureau; Gladys Fisher of the New York State Department of Social Welfare; Cedric Whalen of the Detroit Department of Public Welfare, and Louis Miriam of the Detroit Legal Aid Bureau.

The institute is sponsored co-operatively by the Michigan Conference of Social Work, the state Emergency Relief Administration, the State Welfare Department and Michigan State College.

Courses are designed to give an intensive study for employed and volunteer workers through lectures and discussions in fields of social work. Social case work, work with children, care of the aged, and the administration of social agencies will be emphasized this year.

A complete program of the institute may be obtained by writing to Sociology Department, Michigan State College, East Lansing.

GALORIOUS MUSICAL HIT

In "Wake Up and Live," which opens here Sunday for three days with Walter Winchell, Ben Bernie and Alice Faye in the featured roles, Twentieth Century-Fox believes that it has the sweetest, hottest, most glamorous and galloping musical ever turned out by that studio.

Eclipsing even such swiftest musicals as "On the Avenue," "One in a Million" and "Sing, Baby, Sing," this new musical brings the famed Winchell-Bernie feud to the screen in an eye-opening production that lays strong claim to being the hotcha-topps of them all.

"Wake Up and Live" offers not only the intriguing spectacle of the M. M. Winchell and Ben Bernie feuding face-to-face, but also the singing, dancing and emoting of Alice Faye, lovelier and more affecting than ever; the laugh-provoking antics of Patsy Kelly, Ned Sparks and Jack Haley; and nine smash song hits by those kings of songwriting, Gordon and Revel.

Voorhees Urges Amendm't Defeat
The present City Charter was very carefully worked out by a Charter Commission of nine prominent men elected by the people of Buchanan, before it was adopted in September 1929. The proposed amendments were drawn up by a self appointed group.

The City has successfully operated under the Charter in its present form, it having met with all conditions and requirements of the past eight years, probably the most trying years in the City's history, with the major depression, lack of work and loss of earnings with which to pay taxes, three bank failures and staggering relief costs. The charter was voted upon and adopted in September 1929 and one of the first acts of the Commission was the reduction of city taxes as shown by the following table of record:

1927 tax rate $16.15 per thousand and with $41,706.00 taxes raised.
1928 tax rate $15.10 per thousand and with $45,910.00 taxes raised.
1929 tax rate $14.00 per thousand and with $39,117.00 taxes raised.
Under new commission:
1930 tax rate $11.00 per thousand and with $38,251.00 taxes raised.
1931 tax rate $11.00 per thousand and with $38,154.00 taxes raised.
1932 tax rate $11.00 per thousand and with $36,951.00 taxes raised.
1933 tax rate $10.00 per thousand and with $32,616.00 taxes raised.
1934 tax rate $10.00 per thousand and with $33,950.00 taxes raised.
1935 tax rate $10.00 per thousand and with $33,563.00 taxes raised.
1936 tax rate $10.00 per thousand and with $32,937.00 taxes raised.
1937 tax rate $10.00 per thousand and with $33,796.00 taxes raised.

Although the taxes have been reduced the City has never defaulted in the payment of its bonds and interest and has paid off since September 1929, $42,000.00 in General Obligation Bonds and $36,000.00 in Special Assessment Bonds, a total of $78,000.00. $16,000.00 of the above amount paid were old Water Works Bonds issued in 1893. The setting up of a fund to take care of the balance of these old Water Works bonds in the amount of $15,000.00 coming due in 1939 has been done. In addition to the payment of bonds a new pumping station and two major sewer systems have been built, several thousands spent on the Athletic Park, water works extensions made, extra expenses of sanitary and storm sewer repairs, current expenses including the lighting of the City and the power at Water Works, building of road, sewer and water extension to Dry Zero plant, as well as relief costs of approximately $35,000.00. Various organizations, bonding houses, R. F. C. and Relief heads as well as one of the outstanding lawyers of the state have voiced praise for the condition of the city books and records.

The City Commission has made application to the Federal Government for funds for sewer disposal purposes and, if permitted to proceed as they have in the past few years of accomplishment, upon the retirement of the "Water Works" bonds in 1939, will, no doubt, be in a position to make further appreciable reduction in taxes. Since the City's incorporation the commission has been made up of men of high caliber, conscientious and interested in the city's welfare and advancement; non partisan in the management of City affairs, seeking to operate the city government economically and efficiently in every department.

It is the duty of every citizen to vote and, with these facts in mind, I trust you will give due thought to the proposed changes in the City Charter and when you cast your vote on July 1, let that vote be against the amendments.

Very respectfully yours,
ARTHUR A. VOORHEES.

Botanist Cautions Against Placing Flowers in Mouth

Warning must be given again against the too common habit people have of putting flowers in their mouth or eating them, writes E. A. Bessey, professor of Botany at M. S. C., in a recent issue of the Michigan Farmer.

Particular attention should be called to the beautiful Lily of the Valley, he says, for though the flowers of this plant are perfectly safe to handle, many cases of death are recorded where children or adults have put the flower stems in their mouth or eaten the blossoms.

The flowers of a number of other plants, he warns, are also poisonous when eaten or placed in the mouth. It would be well, therefore, to remember, he states, that though flowers may be safely worn in the button hole or in a corsage, and may be perfectly safe in a bouquet or in a vase, when the mouth is made the receptacle, the result may be dangerous.

This, of course, he adds, is not true of all flowers, which makes it all the more dangerous, he says, for those who do not know which flowers are safe.

Great Wall of Peru

The great wall of Peru, a pre-conquest structure, was probably built by the Chimu Indians as a defense barrier against their powerful neighbors, the Incas. It begins near the Peruvian port of Chimbote, on the Pacific, and runs inland more than 40 miles, climbing sharp ridges and swooping into deep valleys.

Farm Helpers in Great Demand, Reports Starret

One District Alone Needs 700 Bean Pickers, August 1.

Seven hundred bean pickers will be needed for the coming harvest of Michigan beans in one district alone, Major Howard Starret, State Director of the National Reemployment Service, announced today.

"So great is the demand for all kinds of farm help that orders are already flooding the NRS offices for men and women to harvest crops which will not mature for another month," declared Major Starret. "Indications are that the farm help shortage this year will be more acute than ever. For that reason farmers are advised to place orders for workers early. During the season we will attempt to route migratory workers from one crop harvest to another in the most expeditious manner."

The first order from the bean-picking district discloses that the pay will be from 70 cents to $2.40 per hundred weight. No transportation is furnished and board in this area averages $5.00 a week. Seven hundred workers will be needed to start August 1.

The NRS has an active file of 15,840 qualified farm workers. Unemployed, experienced help may be included in this file by registering in the office serving the county in which they reside. This makes them eligible to receive jobs for which they are qualified in any part of the state.

Season for Bluegills, Others, Opens Friday

Fishing for black bass, bluegills, sunfish, and warmouth bass, in all the inland and Great Lakes waters under Michigan's jurisdiction becomes legal in Michigan, Friday June 25, conservation authorities have announced.

On that date all the inland lakes now closed entirely to sport-fishing to give the species above-named protection during their reproduction season, will automatically be opened to fishing.

The season on large and small-mouth black bass has been closed in Michigan since December 31, and the season on bluegills, sunfish and warmouth bass, since April 30.

All regulations governing lake fishing remain the same as last year. The changes in fishing laws now being considered by the state legislature, if enacted into law, would probably not become effective until 1938.

CHILDREN IN COURT

Judge Malcolm Hatfield With an ever increasing number of children being brought into court, juvenile authorities in many districts are becoming alarmed over what the future holds for such youngsters.

One of the principal reasons for a fifteen billion dollar a year crime bill is that many parents do not realize that their themselves are developing discipline and dishonesty in their children. One of the most common methods whereby parents lay the foundation for a dishonest youth is by lying to others in his presence. Parents should always remember that a son or daughter will not remain honest if they themselves are untruthful.
