

BANK ISSUES STOCK, CHANGES NAME

Now Here's the Proposition

This Fourth of July will probably bring its share of "booming." Over in Europe the share of "booming" is no small one, for the big guns are in action again. Fortunately, however, over here, except for some military drills and parades, and some fireworks, we have nothing of the sort. But what will the next year bring? Or the next five? Who knows?

To somewhat change the mood, the following two lines from an old pantomime song have always been pleasing. Probably partly because they so well describe a way of transferring information that is older than the radio, older than the newspaper, older even than the mail.

The captain told the cook, the cook told the crew,
The crew told me, so the story must be true.

Or if you are a race track fan, you may like the next from an old English music hall song better:

I know a bloke wot knows a cove
As 'ud it from a man
Wot saw a party wot told 'im
'E'll win it if 'e can.

Grit says The old fashioned spring is one when strikes were called in the baseball parks of the country, not in its factories.

This one is for the hook and liners:

Two Welshmen were fishing about two miles from land. They had an excellent catch. Tom said to Dave: "We'd better mark the spot in case we come out tomorrow."

On reaching shore Tom asked, "Did you mark the place?"

"Yes," said Dave, "I put a chalk mark on the left side of the boat."

To which Tom replied, "Silly, we might not have the same boat tomorrow."

This poem was submitted by a writer who signed himself, X. Y. Z.

Laybreak
O, the breezes are a humming,
And the woods are full of song,
And the blue bells are a ringing,
And the meadows at the dawn,
And the brook has been a rippling
Over rocks the whole night thru
Keeping time to nature's singing,
Beating out a light tattoo.
There are poems in the flowers,
In each rose and violet;
There are chantings in the bays.

That a fellow can't forget,
And the robins in a chorus,
And the rooster with his horn
Try in every way to tell us
It's the waking time of morn.

Two Local Men Injured In Auto Collision Friday

An auto collision one mile west of Niles, about 5:15 o'clock Friday afternoon, resulted in minor injuries for two Buchanan men, R. R. Montague and Charles Wales, and three Niles men, Edward Bidwell, Bud Jerue and Harold Sittler, and more serious injuries for two other Niles men, William Arthur and William Barkman. The two latter men were released from Pawating hospital, Tuesday.

Lieut. Peck Visits Here After Panama- Florida Plane Trip

A plane trip of about 2200 miles from Panama to Pensacola, Fla., was made by Lieut. Edwin R. Peck, prior to making a visit here at the homes of his mother, Mrs. L. E. Peck, and his parents-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Childs.

Lieut. Peck was in charge of the six-plane squadron which made the trip. Among interesting occurrences on the journey was the discovery by one of the pilots, while in flight, that a big snake was wrapped around one of the wing struts of his ship.

The squadron first flew from Coco Solo, Panama, to Kingston, Jamaica, a distance of 650 miles, then to Quantanamo, Cuba, 600 miles further, next to St. Petersburg, Fla., 780 miles more, and then made the 300 mile trip to Pensacola, Fla.

Lieut. Peck arrived Thursday and left Monday. He has been stationed with the Naval Air Corps at Panama for over a year. He has been in active service since graduation from Annapolis in 1922.

Crandall Recalls Cool, Refreshing, Memories of Forty Below in a Tent

With hot weather coming on, memories of sleeping in a tent in the Dakotas at forty below are cooling recollections of William Crandall.

He was sent there with the Second Cavalry in 1906 to quell a Ute uprising, he related, and they stayed there for seven months, through the entire winter season.

"But I didn't mind it," he said, "I dug a hole in the ground, crawled in like a woodchuck, and was plenty warm."

The occasion for the sending of troops, Crandall explained, was the result of the alleged killing of about seventeen white people, among them the commander of the Ute reservation, by the Utes, when on a rampage.

The Indians weren't probably entirely to blame, however, he said, for the reservation commander had apparently been supplementing his income with revenue derived from the sale of flour, intended by the government for the Indians, and the Indians, seemingly in retaliation for the injustice, took the warpath.

No trouble was experienced by the troops with the Indians, Crandall said, except that one night some of the Utes, at least so all the evidence indicated, crept through the picket lines and loosed all the horses of the second battalion.

The troop commanders held several "pow wows" with the Utes, Crandall said, and everything was peacefully settled.

Invention by Buchanan Resident May Radically Change Archery

"Archer's Grip" Increases Accuracy of Shots

An archer's grip which may effect a radical change and improvement in the practice of archery, has been invented by L. B. Spafford. The invention may prove to be the first important change in archery equipment for hundreds of years, since bows and arrows in that time have followed the original design very closely.

When boys use bows and arrows they usually draw the arrow with the thumb and finger. Few persons, however, have enough power in the thumb and forefinger to draw anything more than a

Increased Interest Shown in Better Driving Camp'gn

An increased interest in the traffic safety campaign is evidenced by a greater response and a greater number of inquiries, reports the safety committee. Plans have been made to pay out $700 in cash awards during the three month drive.

Letters submitted may describe an automobile accident or near accident, errors in driving, dangerous driving or street conditions, suggestions for improvement of streets, relief of traffic congestion, or anything else that will help to improve or make for safer traffic conditions.

These letters will be analyzed and studied, and a summary of them will be reported to the National Safety Council, which will then make recommendations as to what Buchanan should do to correct dangerous or inconvenient traffic conditions.

Traffic Suggestions Made
Among new suggestions made in this last week's letters are the following:

Stricter rules in regard to the issuance of driver's licenses. Test the applicant's knowledge of traffic rules as well as his driving ability.

Repair Chicago street at the intersection of Portage and Chicago. Many persons fail to stop when turning to the right off of Portage during the 12:00 o'clock traffic from Clark's, and some drive through Earl Beck's vacant lot to avoid the stop light.

Graduated Speed Limit Proposed
The twenty mile speed limit on outlying streets stamps Buchanan as out of date in traffic regulation. Most cities have a graduated speed limits, with a 40 miles limit where there are few houses, 35 miles closer in, and a 20 mile limit where traffic is thick enough to warrant it. The 20 mile an hour limit near the outskirts of the city breeds disrespect for the laws, because of its injustice.

Erect a "keep to the right" sign in conjunction with the stop sign at the corner of Front Street and Moccasin. Motorists driving south on Moccasin and stopping for the stop sign at Front, invariably pull in or near the center of the street, leaving a very narrow lane for drivers ascending Front St., and turning north on Moccasin.

Buchanan Album Being Compiled

The book now contains many pictures of ancient vintage, among them being pictures of the old Buchanan Blues, class pictures, a picture of Aunt Charley, Truman Fuller, the original Pears mill, an old fire engine river steamer, the M. B. H. and C. Railway Depot, a group of local Spanish-American War trainees, and Big Frank Merson.

Mr. East has asked that anyone having old pictures, and wishing to include them in the collection, leave them for him, with Ted Rouse at Mead's Barber Shop.

Stockholders At Vote Dividends Special Meeting

Share Sale to Add $25 Capital; New Name to be Union State Bank

An increase in capital common stock, a change of the name of the Gallien-Buchanan State Bank, and a declaration of dividends, were voted at a special meeting of the stockholders, June 15, Mr. Ewing, vice-president of the bank, has announced.

The common stock increased from $25,000 to $50,000. Mr. Ewing said, was voted because the large increase in deposits had made such a move necessary in order to meet the banking law ruling that a ten to one ratio be maintained between deposits and capital stock.

The dividend was declared as of record, June 25, payable July 1, at the rate of two and one-half per cent, or the equivalent of a five per cent annual rate.

New Name Effective July 1
The bank's name was changed from the Gallien-Buchanan State Bank, to the Union State Bank, according to Mr. Ewing, because of the cumbersome and misleading character of the former name. The new name becomes effective, July 1. The bank has operated under the name of the Gallien-Buchanan State Bank since July, 1934.

The new stock, which stockholders voted to offer first for a period of fifteen days to present stockholders, will be placed on sale to the general public, July 1. The stock is voting, $100 par value common stock, and is to be offered at $150.

The increase in capital, together with an increase of $9,500 in surplus, Mr. Ewing stated, will bring the bank's capital and surplus to $92,500, as compared with a total capital and surplus of $58,000 at the beginning of the year. The last increase in capital stock, Mr. Ewing said, was in April 1933, the increase, at that time, being made to enable the bank to meet requirements of both Gallien and Buchanan needs, when the bank was established at Buchanan.

Present Stock Non-Assessable
The enactment of the new banking laws in July 1933, Mr. Ewing said, made all stock in state banks non-assessable after July 1, 1937. New stock issued after July 1, was non assessable but old stock, was assessed until after the latter date. Stockholders under laws existing before these laws, Mr. Ewing pointed out, were liable for twice the par value of the stock, while now they are only liable for the par value.

The bank ended the six month period of this year with very satisfactory earnings, Mr. Ewing reported.

FOR A CLEANER CREEK

The recent heavy rainfall made more evident than ever to many local merchants and others along McCoy creek, the existent practice of dumping sewage and sundry refuse in the creek, and did so in objectionably effective way. Dumping of sewage is a definite health hazard, if for no reason than because of the creation of breeding places for mosquitoes, particularly every time the creek rises and subsides. The dumping of debris and sewage in the creek creates a very offensive to those who have pride in the appearance of the city.

Finally it seems a shame that when many citizens, in groups and individually, are trying to improve Buchanan's appearance, and give the town a reputation as a clean and active town to visit and live in, that their efforts should be hindered by such negligence. Moreover it would seem that there is plenty room for sewage as the practice of dumping anything at all in the creek is forbidden by a city ordinance. There seems no reason why this ordinance should not be enforced.

ONCE A YEAR

Like its antithesis, the editorial on the beauties of spring, the editorial on the need for care if we are to have a safe and sane Fourth, is annually appropriate.

For there always have been persons injured or killed on the Fourth because of carelessness and disregard for public safety, and unfortunately there probably always will be. Among the varieties of "Fourth of July Madness" are the outstanding species. The "My God, I didn't mean to blow it so close to him," kind, and another, present at all times but accentuated on holidays,—the, "Oh well, let's have another, we can't walk on one leg." Let's see, what side of the road shall we ride on?" type.

Again we say, these words probably will be ignored by many who read them, but here they are, and if you want to risk your own neck, at least please try to keep from endangering the other fellow's.

State To Study Cost Of Bottle Fed Fawns

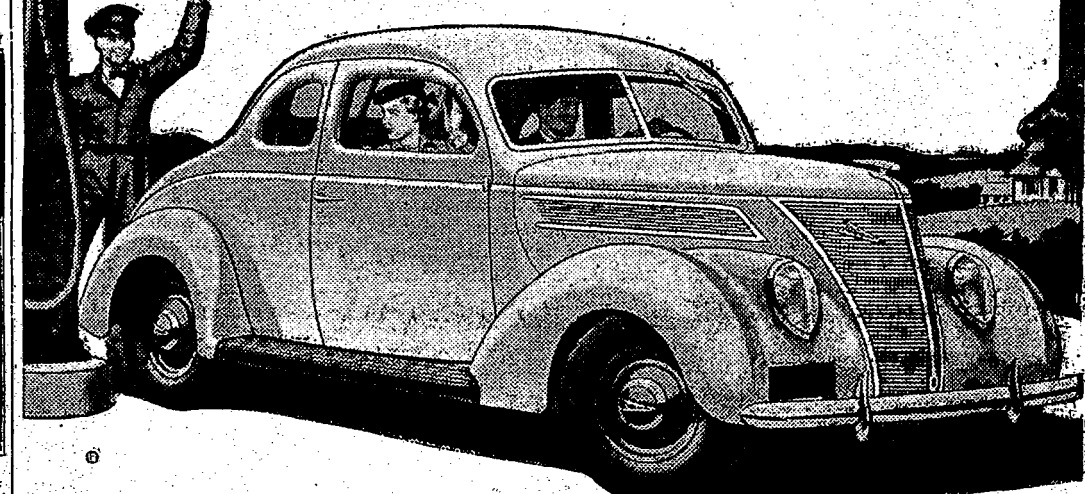

Just what does it cost to rear a fawn on a bottle? As an incidental food study project, game men at the Cusino refuge east of Munising will keep a food chart this summer on several fawns now at the refuge to get an answer.

When extremely young deer are rescued from forest fires and turned over to the refuges, they are fed on whole milk or condensed milk until strong enough to forage for themselves, but few complete cost records of fawn requirements have been kept.

New Game Rules Raise Awards On Coyotes, Wolves

The bobcat will be retired from the bounty list in Michigan and payments on coyotes and wolves will be increased from 50 to 100 percent under the new regulations for predatory animal control which became effective July 1.

A revision of predator control regulations and bounty payments was necessitated by a law passed by the 1937 legislature and signed by Governor Murphy, setting up a fund of $75,000 for the purpose of suppressing coyotes and wolves in northern Michigan.

The law authorizes payment of a bounty of $20 for each female wolf or coyote certified through conservation officers and a payment of $15 for each male wolf and coyote thus certified. Payments will be made only on wolves and coyotes taken by accredited bounty hunters by means of trapping or shooting. No payments are authorized in case of predators poisoned, snared or reared in captivity.

Under the present bounty system which expires June 30, bounties of $10 are paid for wolves and coyotes and $7.50 for bobcats. Bobcats will no longer command a bounty under the new system.

Under the revised regulations any resident of the state who has an unexpired hunting and trapping license and gun permit, is eligible for a bounty contract at no charge. In certifying animals for bounties, the hunter will be required to sign an affidavit stating that the predator certified was not raised in captivity or imported from another state or county.

The new state bounty law as set up by the legislature makes it unlawful for any individual to keep a coyote or a wolf in captivity and to import either of these species without a permit from the state. The law also stipulates that when pelts are certified for bounty, the entire carcass must be submitted.

State Pest Crop Appears Bumper, Reports Lansing

Along with its many other bumper crops, Michigan is experiencing an unusual yield of insect pests, if volume of inquiries, regarding control of the pests, received by the Department of Agriculture may be accepted as an indication. Sample limbs of trees, plants, the insects themselves are included in the day's mail, with letters asking suggestions to prevent further damage by the insects.

Departmental attention has been called, by the number of inquiries, to the damage being done in many Northern Michigan counties to pine trees. It has been found that the cause of trouble is sawflies, which in many instances are defoliating the trees. Nurseries are controlling this insect by spraying with arsenate of lead.

"The Department of Agriculture," said E. C. Mandenberg, head of the Orchard and Nursery division, "has no funds for the control of these insects. The matter of protection is up to the tree owners, who if they desire to save their trees, must spray. There are sections of this state, though, that an airplane, with dusting equipment, would be needed to control these pests, but funds are not available."

"It will be necessary this year for every orchardist, nurseryman, and individuals interested in plants, flowers, shrubs or trees to take every possible step to control insect pests. It is indicated that Michigan has a bumper crop of insects."

State to Survey 60 Mich. Lakes For Fish Data

Information on Species, Forage, Soundings, Vegetation, To Be Obtained

Sixty inland lakes from the Ohio state line north to Lake Superior are to be surveyed this summer by the Institute for Fisheries Research of the Michigan Department of Conservation.

Three crews of men will be in the field throughout the summer months, including a crew which will be working in the National Forests of the state. This party will be assisted in surveys of certain inland lakes by the technical staff of the forest service.

In making the surveys the Institute workers will aim to obtain all essential information about an inland lake that would be useful in directing future planting work or in improving the lake for a certain species of fish by construction of shelters, new spawning beds, and similar devices.

The survey groups will make soundings to ascertain the depth of the water, take samples of aquatic vegetation and of the lake bottom, learn the various species of fish present, and their relative abundances, the species of predators, the forage minnows and other food life present and the various wildlife relationships.

Detailed reports of each lake will be made by the Institute workers during the winter season.

The lakes to be surveyed solely by the Institute for Fisheries Research include Mosher, Big Cobb, Little Cobb, Big Hastings, and Little Hastings in Hillsdale county; Big Silver, Washtenaw county; Birch Lake, Cass county; two lakes to be selected in Allegan county; Standard lake, Otsego county; Twin, Nero, Lost, Dollar and several small lakes, Ogemaw county; Beebe, Crooked, and Budd lakes, Clare county; Clear, Tomahawk, Jackson and other lakes, Presque Isle State forest; Bills lake, Newaygo county; Otsego lake, Otsego county; Lake Margrethe and Howe lake, Crawford county.

SMART MILLINERY By CHERRIE NICHOLAS

As to smart millinery, the revival of the ever practical and flattering sailor is notable. Flower trims on sailors abound. The newest way of using flowers is to border the brim with a row of tiny flowers as shown here. The tiny blossoms are set in between a double-edge brim in a most becoming manner. The new sailors encourage the wearing of veils. The latest fad is to tie veiling by the yard over the face in Gibson girl fashion bringing the ends to a big flutter bow at the back. The other hat pictured has the new and smart mushroom brim. Its flower trim emphasizes the use of a flower cluster placed at the front of the crown.

Ionagon county; Indian and South Manitou lakes near Manistique will be the largest jobs to be undertaken by the Institute.

The following lakes in the National Forest areas will be surveyed with the cooperation of the National Forest authorities: Manistee National forest—Diamond Lake Mitchell, Nicholas, Big Bass, Blue, Moon Mountain, Big Star and Lost lakes; Huron National forest—Loon, O'Brien, Clear, Penoyer, Jewel Lakes; Ottawa National Forest—Gold, Fift, Paint, Harding, Winslow and probably Bass, Robinson and Sucker lakes; Marquette and Hiawatha National forests—Stoner, Bass, Thunder, Crane, Lake Twenty-Four, Red, Rock, Deer and Round lakes.

Elliott to Give Two Talks At Education Meet

To Speak on Life of Horace Mann, and Teachers' Salary Question

Dr. Eugene B. Elliott, state superintendent of public instruction, is to make two addresses before the National Education Association convention to be held in Detroit, June 27 to July 2. Dr. Elliott is one of several leading Michigan educators who are to appear on the extensive program of the convention.

The 100th anniversary of the founding of the first state department of public instruction will be brought to the attention of the convention by Dr. Elliott in an address on the life of Horace Mann to be delivered on June 27. Dr. Elliott has been making a large number of talks on the life of Mann, who has often been referred to as the "father of the American public school."

The delicate question of teachers' salaries is to be discussed by the Michigan state superintendent at a meeting on June 30 before a special group meeting. Dr. Elliott maintains that thousands of teachers are receiving salaries that are still pitifully small, and frequently these teachers are denied security from unjust dismissal and protection against want in declining years.

25 Sharp-tail Eggs Placed in Incubators

LANSING.—Twenty-five sharp-tailed grouse eggs from the western part of the upper peninsula have been placed in incubators at the state game farm south of here, marking another attempt on the part of the state to grow sharp-tails artificially.

The eggs were collected by Fred Baumgartner, an ornithologist of the department of conservation. Baumgartner reported that the nests were scarce and hard to find, the sharp-tails appearing to be at or near the ebb in their cycle of abundance.

VOGUSH SILK NET By CHERRIE NICHOLAS

If you have to make one party dress do for various occasions there is no better buy than black silk net of sterling quality. Especially is this true at the present moment since Paris is showing greatest enthusiasm for black silk sheers of every description. One of the arguments in favor of black net is that it can be worn over different slips, the latest idea being multi-colored, plaid or striped taffeta or gay floral print topped with black sheer. The silk net evening gown pictured has a charming Empire decolletage.

CHILDREN IN COURT

Judge Malcolm Hatfield
Now that the schools are closed for the summer it will be necessary for parents to exercise constant vigilance over their children if they want to keep them out of court.

Too many mothers and fathers permit minors to idle away their summers in search of unsupervised amusement. Then, when a son or daughter finds recreation in questionable places and bring disgrace to the family, such parents usually blame every one except themselves. To avoid all possibilities of a disastrous vacation, the wise mother and father will remain constantly alert and not relax their watchfulness for a single hour.

Jamboree Camp Called World's Healthiest Spot

Sectional Medical Staffs, One of Safeguards, West Reports

The healthiest and safest community in the world is the 350 acre Jamboree Camp at Washington, D. C., which is inhabited by 25,000 Scouts from every state in the nation and 400 from 24 foreign lands.

This is a statement made by Dr. James E. West, Chief Scout Executive of the Boy Scouts of America who is "Camp Chief" of America's newest community, the tent city on both sides of the historic Potomac River.

At the request of the Boy Scouts of America the United States Public Health Service through Surgeon General Thomas Farran has made available Surgeon William L. Smith, M. D. as Chief Medical Officer.

Each Jamboree sectional camp of 1,200 boys and leaders will have its own medical staff of three physicians and four hospital assistants. A field hospital set up for each section will be manned 24 hours a day, and a Troop "sick call" will be held each morning.

Provisions Made for Extended Care
Should it be necessary to give any Scout extended hospital care, he will be taken to the United States Naval Hospital or some other hospital in the District of Columbia.

Before being accepted for the Jamboree each Scout received a thorough medical examination. To make doubly sure that every boy is in good health, another check-up is made enroute for those coming great distances or immediately upon arrival at the Jamboree Camp. More than 200 doctors are to assist in this inspection, 100 of them being Washington physicians who volunteered their services. Between 65 and 75 doctors will be attached to Dr. Smith's staff for the duration of the Jamboree.

Plans for fire protection and fire fighting, if the latter becomes necessary, are important in the health and safety precautions being taken. This is under the direction of William E. Lawrence, Assistant National Director of Health and Safety of the Boy Scouts of America. Chief Schrom, commanding officer of the District of Columbia Fire Department has detailed a fire marshal and a three platoon fire company and two pieces of apparatus which will be in charge of a Deputy Fire Chief.

All Meeting Places Inspected
River steamers, busses, meeting places, camp fire locations and general assembly grounds and stands have been carefully inspected and will receive periodic checkups throughout the Jamboree. Swimming will be enjoyed only in large, well-protected artificial swimming pools in the District of Columbia and nearby Virginia.

The work of making the Jamboree Camp a healthy place in which so many boys could live started last February with the appointment of Mr. C. T. Wright, Sanitary Engineer of the United States Public Health Service as Chief Sanitary Officer. It was his responsibility to check all plans for construction and the location of sanitary equipment. During the Jamboree Mr. Wright will be assisted by a deputy and a staff of inspectors and assistants.

The Health and Safety Department, one of the six major operating groups at the Jamboree is headed by Fred C. Mills, National Director of Health and Safety of the Boy Scouts of America; his Deputy will be Mr. W. D. Macbride, Railroad Field Scout Executive for the Delaware and Hudson Railroad.

commissioner, as a means of preventing diarrhea and enteritis, the hot-weather disease of infancy which caused 467 deaths last year. "Diarrhea may be caused by infected milk or other foods or by impure water," Dr. Slemons stated. "Boiling of questionable water and milk supplies and regular habits of feeding and sleeping with plenty of sunbaths in the open air are effective in preventing stomach upsets. Sudden changes in temperature must be avoided. Diarrhea should always be considered a serious disease requiring the care of a physician. Rest in bed for the sick infant with plenty of boiled drinking water but no food for 12 to 24 hours is the safest treatment until the doctor arrives."

Berrien Farmers Receive Awards For Soil Guards

The Berrien County farmers received $46,370 and will receive an estimated $5,000 more, in benefit payments in the 1936 Soil Conservation Program out of a total of $6,550,000 paid to Michigan farmers, was reported at the meeting of the Board of Directors of the Berrien County Agricultural Conservation Association, together with members of the Berrien County Agricultural Project Planning Committee, in the office of the Berrien County Agricultural Conservation Association, June 22.

Participation in benefit payments was made by 25 per cent of the Berrien County farmers, representing 31 per cent of the total farm acres in Berrien County, according to the report sent here, which stated that 50 per cent of the farms in the state, representing 60 per cent of the total farm acres participated. An estimation that at least 68 per cent of Berrien County farmers will participate in the 1937 program was reported.

Approval of all benefits being paid for soil building practices and opposition to any further reduction of crops in Berrien County, was the recorded sentiment expressed by the Berrien County group, who voiced interest primarily in conserving the soil and stopping erosion by wind or water.

Local Men Attend Meet

The meeting was called by the Michigan Agricultural Conservation Committee and H. J. Lurkins, County Agricultural Extension Service, to consider recommendations for the 1938 Soil Conservation Program. Mr. H. D. Forsythe, extension specialist of Michigan State College and Leon H. Holmes, district representative of the Michigan Agricultural Conservation Committee conducted the discussion, and Martin H. Kretschman, county chairman of the Agricultural Conservation Association presided.

Directors present at the meeting were: Albert Varnau, Walter H. Hogan, Donald M. Hamilton, Clarence C. Crisp, Charles E. Tichenor, Ray G. Thomas, Leo Rosbein, D. Earl Ingles, James F. McKey, Frank A. Post, Russell C. Le, Bernard L. Sill, Martin H. Kretschman, and Harold J. King.

Members of the County Planning Committee present were: F. A. Koenigshof, Charles E. Tichenor, and H. J. Lurkins, county agricultural agent.

Recommendations Made

Further recommendations made at the meeting were: (1) Make payment for all cover crops on cropland; (2) Recognize the same cover crops on cropland as are recognized for orchards; (3) Make payment for nitrogen fertilizer on sod or cover crops in orchards and vineyards; (4) Make payment for phosphate and potash fertilizers when used on any cover crop planted in orchards; (5) Make payment when abandoned orchards or vineyards are removed and land converted to soil conserving crop; (6) Establish soil building allowance and make payment for non-pasture of wood-lots; (7) Make payment for plowing down corn as cover crop in connection with vegetable growing; (8) Classify mint the same as vegetable crops; (9) Take the minimum application off and pay according to pounds applied of acid phosphate and potash on soil conserving crops; (10) Recommendation by the county committee of cover crops not listed, subject to the approval of State Committee; (11) Make payment for fully control and strip cropping on cropland; (12) In orchards make payment for gully control for sod waterways established and four foot sod strips in the tree row; (13) It was the opinion of those present that crops records and farm maps aid materially in preparing the necessary data to determine the benefits and carry out the program.

GOING TO SEED

A good crop of weeds is brewing due to an abundance of rainfall. Unless the crop is cut before it goes to seed many hay fever victims will have their suffering intensified because of the increased amount of pollen in the air.

Every last corner should receive attention immediately. Besides spreading misery these weeded back lots and road sides destroy beauty and help to increase fire hazards later in the season.

Forsythe Visions 6-Man Football in Small Schools

Plan Would Open Grid Game to Wider Range of Boys, Director Says

Six-man football for the smaller high schools, is a coming sport in Michigan, in the opinion of Charles E. Forsythe, director of Michigan interscholastic athletics. The sport will be adaptable in schools where the enrollment does not warrant a complete football squad that can place a team of 11 men in the field, Forsythe said.

Six-man football is regulation football played with only six players on a side. Three men must be on the line of scrimmage on the offense. The game is played on a field 80 yards long, and 40 yards wide.

"The purpose of six-man football is to make football available to a wider range of boys than is now the case," Forsythe said. "It is not pass and touch football, nor is it soccer, the eleven-man rules governing throughout with a few exceptions." This is not an attempt to make something better than the eleven-man football as now played, he stated, but an attempt to provide football for schools where the game is now too expensive, and where they do not have sufficient material for a larger team. The injury hazards are not so great with the smaller number of players on the field, thus permitting immature boys to participate, Forsythe said, adding that the game should not be undertaken, however, unless proper equipment is made available and coaching facilities are up to standard.

"The game is played, with a center, two ends, a quarterback, halfback and fullback, Forsythe described, stating that a few changes in the rules will make the game interesting to play as well as to witness." "Every man" he said, "has an opportunity to handle the ball on the offense. Every player is eligible to receive a pass except the center. Before the ball crosses the line of scrimmage it must be passed from the original ball receiver to another player. If a player crosses the line of scrimmage before he passes the ball to a team mate, the play is illegal. Players wear basket ball or tennis shoes, except when an agreement is reached between both coaches regarding the use of cleated shoes."

The Nickel Mostly Copper

The American nickel contains three times as much copper as nickel. Nearly 3,000,000 pounds of copper are used annually in minting United States coins, including gold and silver pieces. The familiar penny, or "copper," is really made of bronze, containing 95 per cent copper and 5 per cent tin and zinc, according to the Copper and Brass Research association.

Ten Eggs Monthly Necessary Per Hen To Pay Feed Bill

Good rations for young growing stock are far more important this month and next than to skimp on pullet feeding care in order to coax along some lazy hens that ought to be culled.

This is the advice of the poultry department at Michigan State College. Staff members report that each hen in the flock should be laying at least 10 eggs a month in order to pay the feed bill. Even with extra green feed on ranges, the lazy hens ought to be culled out. With high feed prices, the care of the growing pullets should receive attention, as these younger birds are the key to possible egg profits next fall and early winter.

Older birds that show yellow beaks, seem to be losing weight, or have gone broody should go to market or camed for use on the table next winter.

In spite of the inducement offered by high feed prices, good pullet care is considered essential.

Proper feeding should be observed even if it is necessary to sell off some pullets in order to feed the rest adequately.

J. M. Moore, secretary of the Michigan Poultry Improvement association, draws attention to another success factor. That is the pest angle of lice and mites. Lice may be controlled by two applications of Black Leaf 40 applied to the perches with a ten day interval between treatments. Only a very thin strip should be painted on each perch, but every bird should roost on those perches that night. The second treatment is to kill off those lice not hatched at the time of the first treatment. Mites live on the birds at night. Painting perches and nests with wood preserver, carbolineum, crude creosote or equal parts crankcase oil and kerosene are recommended for mite treatment.

VOTE X "YES" on the Charter Amendments JULY 1st

Under the statutes of the State of Michigan, a city charter may be amended. A percentage of the voters of a city, under this law, may present the question of such charter amendments for the approval of the voters of any city having a charter form of government.

A representative group of public spirited citizens have petitioned for the amendment of the charter of the City of Buchanan, to provide:

1. For the direct election of the Mayor of this city from the voters of the city at large, and for the election of city commissioners, equally, from each precinct.
2. For the direct election of a City Treasurer from the electors of the city at large.
3. For the direct election of a City Clerk from the electors of the city at large.

Commissioner Voorhees has made public a statement, through the local newspaper, setting forth certain facts as an argument against the adoption of these charter amendments.

It is not denied that the city government has been well and efficiently operated by the present commission, and by their predecessors. But this argument is entirely outside the question.

The present commissioners and their predecessors have been elected by direct election. They have proved to be efficient in the discharge of their duties. It is entirely possible to select men as efficient and as capable to fill these offices and other offices in the future.

These charter amendments do not attempt in any way to change the structure or form of our city government. THEY DO NOT PROHIBIT THE CONTINUED ECONOMIC OPERATION OF THE CITY GOVERNMENT. It will be possible that the same incumbents in office will continue to be your choice in the future to fill these offices.

The only change instituted by the charter amendments will be IN THE METHOD OF SELECTING YOUR PUBLIC OFFICIALS. Under a democratic form of government, this right is inherent in the voters of a governmental unit. You, as an elector, doubtless feel perfectly competent to select your own public servants.

THE AMENDMENTS GO JUST THIS FAR AND NO FURTHER—they do not abolish the charter form of government, or any offices under the present efficient set-up. They merely allow you to vote DIRECTLY for those whom you prefer to fill these offices.

An argument has been advanced that this is a return to the political faction condition. Most emphatically, THIS IS NOT SO! Candidates for office will continue to place their names in nomination under the same non-partisan system as laid down in your present charter. The present charter is entirely unchanged in this respect and politics will not enter into the city government to any greater degree, under the amended charter, than in the past.

It is believed that by the direct election of the city officials, popular interest in the government and affairs of government of the city will be heightened; that an election with an issue will stimulate your interest as a voter of this community, and bring home to you more clearly your duty, as a voter to express yourself at each annual election.

It is believed that this greater interest will have a highly beneficial effect upon your city government.

It may be further inferred from the Voorhees statement, that the adoption of these amendments will abolish the present charter and that the City of Buchanan will not be represented by the commission form of government.

THESE AMENDMENTS DO NOT CHANGE OUR FORM OF GOVERNMENT

They give the people their inherent right to select their city officials. For your information, cities now operating under a commission form of government, with the changes proposed for direct selection by the voters of their city officials, have been and are the most efficiently governed and operated.

The election has been called for the purpose of having you, as a voter of the City of Buchanan, express yourself on the question of direct selection of the Mayor, Treasurer and Clerk.

The signers of these petitions have made it possible for you, as a voter of the City of Buchanan, to express yourself on this question JULY 1, 1937.

IT IS THE DUTY OF EVERY CITIZEN TO EXPRESS HIMSELF AT THE POLLS.

DO NOT NEGLECT YOUR PUBLIC DUTY ON THURSDAY, JULY 1st.

DOG'S CALL FOR HELP OVER TELEPHONE SAVES HIS PAL

It was Sunday. All was quiet and serene in a certain Detroit, Mich., poultry and pet store. Two dogs had been left to have the run of the place. They were pals and, having plenty to eat, they were content. Suddenly, however, one of them, in romping around, became entangled in the telephone cord and could not work himself loose. The telephone instrument was dragged to the floor, and slowly but surely the dog was being strangled to death. In this emergency the other dog knew what to do and did it. He summoned help for his stricken pal over the very instrument which threatened his life.

An alert telephone operator in the Randolph dial office answered the permanent signal on the switchboard. There was no response, but she did hear a slight whispering sound, so she summoned Mrs. Violet Porter, who was in charge. Mrs. Porter notified the police, who reported back that there was no cause for alarm, only a dog barking in the store. However, Mrs. Porter was not entirely satisfied with this report. She located the owner of the store and gave the information which resulted in saving the dog's life.

Where Idea for Tunnels Started

Ancient Egyptians, observing streams enter one side of a hill and come out the other, got the idea for tunnels. They built them into tombs. Builders after them bored tunnels to carry or drain water. One people, the Babylonians, were daring than the rest, tunneled beneath the Euphrates river. Thus began the story, according to a correspondent in the Washington Post, of the most fascinating and dangerous of all tunneling operations, subaqueous—underwater.

Museum's Miniature Display Recalls Historic Event of Sixty Years Ago

This three-dimensional miniature display in the Museum of the City of New York, built to scale and correct in every detail, depicts a group of important citizens gathered in the Hotel St. Denis in New York City in the Spring of 1877 to hear Alexander Graham Bell lecture on and demonstrate his recently invented telephone—the first introduction of that instrument in New York, where more than 1,500,000 are now in use.

Among the displays in the communications exhibit of the Museum of the City of New York is a miniature three-dimensional group commemorating an important event which took place just 60 years ago. Accurate in scale, complete in detail, and authentic in the setting it recreates, this tiny "still life" represents Alexander Graham Bell's original introduction of the telephone in New York City.

First Telephone in New York

The date of this occurrence was May 11, 1877. The scene which the miniature reproduces so faithfully is a gathering of distinguished citizens in a "gentlemen's parlor" in the Hotel St. Denis, then one of New York's best hostels, located at Broadway and Eleventh Street. Among the group were President Barnard of Columbia College, Professor Peet of the Deaf and Dumb Asylum and other important figures. They had met to hear Mr. Bell describe and demonstrate for the first time in New York, his speaking telephone.

Lectures Roused Interest in Invention

This lecture was one of a series which Mr. Bell gave in the Spring of 1877. As a result of the interest in the telephone among scientists, educators and others following his successful demonstration at the Centennial Exposition in Philadelphia in the Summer of 1876. These lectures served not only to demonstrate the practicability of the telephone but to supply the inventor with some immediate and welcome cash return on his epochal invention.

Wires Carried Cornet Solo

Reporting the gathering in the St. Denis, New York newspapers next day recorded that Mr. Bell had planned to demonstrate the telephone simply by stringing a wire between two rooms in this hotel, but

"God" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science Churches throughout the world on Sunday, July 4.
Among the Bible citations is this passage (Ps. 75:1): "Unto thee, O God, do we give thanks, unto thee do we give thanks; for that thy name is near thy wondrous works declare."

Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 238): "There is no power apart from God. Omnipotence has all power, and to acknowledge any other power is to dishonor God."

State Conducts Creel Census

An intensive summer-long investigation which will help disclose what percentage of planted trout finally reaches the creels of trout fishermen is being conducted by the State Department of Conservation on Pine River in Lake county.

Through the cooperation of the National Forest Service and CCC authorities, every fisherman along the recently developed eight mile stretch of Pine river acquired by the state is being contacted with creel census forms.

Each fisherman is being asked the extent of his catch, the species taken, their size, and whether any of the fish were tagged.

Several weeks ago fisheries authorities planted 3,000 adult-size trout, a number of which were tagged, in the state-owned portion of the stream. Many of these have been caught by fishermen.

When all the creel census cards are turned in after the trout season closes on Labor day, the Institute for Fisheries Research at Ann Arbor will begin to compile the data obtained. The final report is expected to show approximately what the total catch was on the eight-mile intensively fished portion of the Pine during the 1937 season and what proportion of all the fish taken were hatchery reared trout and what proportion was wild, stream-produced fish.

FASHION-CORRECT

By CHERRY NICHOLAS

For casual wear here is a little gray woolen daytime frock that is eminently correct in every detail. An alligator belt with hook and eye fastenings of the same leather give it outstanding distinction. It interprets the newest silhouette which calls for the slenderized waistline with uplift bustline and skirt, that while it may flare at the hemline, must never, no never look any but slim and sleek about the hips. Here's telling you a secret as to how this modish young woman has achieved so perfectly the new uplift bustline—her smart figure is due to the correctly styled brassiere she wears. It's the new uplift type and to add to its practicality it has attached dress shields thus assuring underarm protection.

The data will furnish information long needed by fisheries authorities of this state, who have hitherto had no information as to the percentage of the fish planted in any waters that finally reached the fishermen on how such a percentage would compare with that of wild native fish.

Captive Moose Bear Young at Game Refuges

The belief that moose would not breed in captivity has been disproven in Michigan this year, according to a report from Lansing.

A mature cow, one of five moose held in captivity for experimentation by the game division, department of conservation, at Cusino game refuge, has given birth to a calf. Another calf moose was produced at the Detroit Zoological park at Royal Oak this spring by a moose sent there from Isle Royale by the Department of conservation, in the spring of 1935.

These young, gangling-legged moose calves are certain to be great favorites with spectators this season, for they are reported to be trusting and frolicsome, and during the hot days of summer enjoy playing about in pools of water. Pools have been provided in both localities named.

Unlike the coat of the deer fawn which is spotted, that of the moose calf is a solid rusty red color. As the calf gets older the coat becomes darker. By mid-summer it is dark brown, according to Paul Hickie, conservation mammalogist, and in late fall and winter almost black. However, in the spring the coat becomes much lighter and browner than in winter because the black tips have been worn from the hairs.

Large Fruit Yield Expected in State

Michigan's prospects for a good fruit harvest this year are good enough to make nearly all orchard men in the state optimistic. With a large volume of apples, cherries, peaches and grapes, hopes center around good prices.

In a recent survey by V. R. Gardner, director of the Michigan Experiment Station, and R. E. Marshall, professor of pomology at Michigan State College, fruit crops evidently have a good start.

GAY LINEN PRINT

The vogue for vividly colorful linen print goes madly rushing on. Here is a swanky linen frock that exploits the stripe theme. Since the linen is sanforized shrink there is no fear that the smooth easy fitting lines will ever lose out because of shrinkage.

southwest Michigan. The state as a whole is expected to show about a 60 per cent sour cherry crop. Good yields of sweet cherries also are forecast. Yields may be somewhat lower up in the Hart and Shelby and the Grand Traverse cherry sections.

Apple trees are fairly well loaded in commercial and farm orchards. The equal or perhaps better than the 1936 apple harvest is probable, according to Marshall. The June drop became heavier the last few days and wet weather added to some of the apple scab, cutting down some of the prospects for merchantable fruit.

Then there are the peach orchards. In 1937 the operators of fruit farms in Michigan set out every young peach tree that nurseries found available. Two reasons are evident. Fairly good prices for the past two years proved a stimulant. Winter killing of peach trees in Indiana and Illinois, competitor states, gave new recognition to the value of Lake Michigan in favoring peach tree weather during late winter and early spring months.

This year Michigan peach growers anticipate a crop larger than 1936 when the crop was light but brought a good income because of favorable prices.

Financial Grant Given Mich. For Education Study

Money to be Used in Survey of Secondary School Curriculums

A grant of $12,500 from the General Education Board in New York City, a Rockefeller-supported organization, to finance a survey of secondary school education in Michigan, has been announced by Dr. Eugene B. Elliott, state superintendent of public instruction. The grant was made to the State Board of Education, of which Dr. Elliott is executive officer.

"We intend to develop the basic policy in accordance with which the secondary curriculum should be revised," Dr. Elliott announced.

"The work will require a year of study and survey of several secondary curriculum revision projects now under way in various sections of the United States," he said, and following the nationwide study of these projects special attention will be given to Michigan needs.

"In Michigan, as well as in other states, many high schools are anxious to improve their practices, but do not know what to do. Schools should be given assistance in generating a fundamental philosophy that will enable them to make definite, sound commitments as to their direction and progress. We hope to be able to make definite recommendations at the end of a year, which should develop in the way of better legal and administrative organization for public education in Michigan."

Details of the study call for a series of regional conferences sponsored by the various teacher training institutions for the discussion of curriculum problems. Dr. Elliott hopes to develop a widespread interest on the part of the teachers and the public in curriculum improvement.

"What Michigan secondary schools need today is a more systematic method of thinking than now prevails," Dr. Elliott said. "We hope to aid in this problem through the survey which will result in the assimilation of a vast amount of data valuable in mapping out an improved curriculum."

What Does a Bank Mean by "Uncollected Funds?"

This question can best be answered by an illustration. Suppose you receive from John Jones a check for $10 written on a bank in another city. You bring the check to us, endorse it, and deposit it in your checking account here. An entry for $10 is made on your account here. This $10 then becomes "uncollected funds" until we send the check to the bank on which it was drawn and receive the money or equivalent credit.

You do not have the money in your account to draw upon until we collect it. The money belongs to John Jones until the check is presented to his bank for collection.

Through the American system of correspondent banking we are able to handle the collection of checks from one city to another with ease and rapidity for the convenience of our customers.

Auto Tag Laws Changed by Bill

Deadline for Plates, Stickers, Set at March 1, With No Extension

Passage by the legislature of the bill to make March 1st the annual deadline for the purchase of automobile license plates and stickers, with neither the Secretary of State nor any other official authorized to extend this deadline, is believed by Leon D. Case, Secretary of State, to be a step in advance. The present law permits the Secretary of State to extend the final expiration date to March 1st.

In addition to Case's desire to call public attention to these two important changes in the motor vehicle law, the Secretary of State also points to the fee of 25c to be collected hereafter for the issuance of stickers or half-year permits. This fee will cover the extra cost of issuing half-year permits. The charging by the state of this small fee appears to be fair and proper, considering the accommodation represented by a half year installment plan for the purchase of a set of plates.

The bookkeeping, special costs represented by the printing and handling of the some half-million stickers annually is an item which no one should long expect the state to absorb. The collection of the 25c fee will bring in approximately $125,000 annually, it is estimated.

It's "high class in a glass" when you drink CHICAGO CLUB. A real new brew—old in age but new in flavor—and in a "steinie."
