

FIRST GAMES UNDER LIGHTS FRIDAY

First Amendments to Buchanan Charter Pass in Close Contest

Now Here's the Proposition

ODE
To a Shopworn Merchant
He worked and toiled from dawn To dark,
And worried from then to morn; His troubled brow no peace could find
For his business beset him so;
His pallid cheeks and squinted eyes, Betold his saddening plight;
Till seeing his own reflected face,
"I need a rest," he said.

He hurried and scurried for malden and boy,
To serve their needs at once;
That they might come again some more,
To buy his scissors and beads and toys, He hustled and hustled and hustled not,
And worked while others played;
Until one day they laid him away, And the boy and the maiden and all the others,
"He needed a rest," they said.

The St. Louis Times says:
"Nothing so arouses a woman's suspicions as asking her a question. Even if you merely ask her what time it is, she'll want to know what you want to know for."

And don't ask us if that's right.
All we know is what we read in the newspapers.

The American and the Irishman were trying to see which could tell the taller story. Said the American:
"Well, I guess this beats everything I once knew. A man in the States who could take a 20-rung ladder into a field, stand it up on end, and then walk up to the top and down again."

"Begorra, that's jist nothin' at all," replied Pat, not to be outdone. "Of know a man in Oireland who can take the same ladder into a field, stand it on end, walk to the top—ah! then pull it up after him."—Answers.

The San Francisco Chronicle remarked: "It's a cold and lonely spot but those four Russian scientists perched up there at the North Pole seem to have picked out the safest place a Soviet comrade could be right now."

And here's a suggestion from the St. Louis Star Times which might be used to help out one of Buchanan's traffic problems:
Need No. 16,473: What this country needs is a portable parking space.

NIGHTFALL
Now the breezes are a sighing, And the woodland songs are still Except for shrill voiced crying Of the lonely whip-poor-will;
On the meadow dew has gathered Bringing out a sweet perfume, While the brook goes on unfettered,
Playing still its gladsome tune.
Even the poems of the flower,
Of the daisy and the foxglove,
Have transferred their happy power
To the stars and moon above.
But the mocking bird is singing,
And he lifts us to new height; With the cricket he is bringing Nature's message of good night.

Lions Members Finger Printed for Civilian File

Club Takes Lead in Simplifying Identification in Disasters

Twelve members of the Buchanan Lions club were fingerprinted at their meeting last week. Adelbert Root, Jr., who has been making a study of fingerprinting took the imprints on cards which are to be sent to Washington to be placed in the civilian fingerprint files of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

The action was taken largely as the result of a suggestion made some time ago at a meeting, that the Lions club take the initiative in civilian fingerprinting. It was pointed out that if all civilians had their fingerprints on file at Washington, identification would be simplified in cases of drowying, amnesia, or any other accident or fatality, such as the explosion at the Texas school last spring, leading to confusion of identity.

Such fingerprints are not placed in the criminal files, but are kept in a separate classification.

Legion Heads Elected

The following officers were elected at the American Legion meeting last week:
Commander, John Elbers; first vice-commander, Henry Zupke; second vice-commander, Carl Longworth; adjutant, Lloyd Shires; finance officer, Bob Spaulding; chaplain, Bill Thompson and sergeant-at-arms, Joe Melvin.

Prize Bass Outweigh New-born Deer Fawns State Gamemasters Say

A deer fawn on the day of its birth is likely to weigh less than a prize winning rainbow trout or black bass. State game men conducting deer food studies in Cushino refuge, weighed two fawns born this spring at the refuge.
One weighed five and one-half lbs. the other four lbs, six ounces.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Gravelin and family were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Kerton and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nekvasil over the Fourth.

Baseball Men Honor Memory of Frank Chance

Memories of another baseball era—Frank Chance's day—were revived recently by the Chicago Cubs at a luncheon given by P. K. Wrigley and later at the ball park where the principal ceremonial was the presentation to the present Cubs of a bronze plaque. Shown in the photograph, left to right, front row, John O. Sells, Mordecai Brown, Johnny Evers, Warren Brown; standing, left to right; Joe Tinker, Jimmy Archer, Bill Terry, Charlie Grimm and Jack McCarthy.

July 4 Injuries Reach New Peak

Fifteen Casualties Reported by Local Doctors

Local Fourth of July accidents this year were more numerous than they were in many years when there was no legal ban on fireworks, according to reports from local doctors. Dr. Strayer reports eleven cases of injuries from firecrackers and fireworks, two of them being cases of injured eyes, and the remainder being cases of burnt or lacerated fingers.

Dr. Fredrickson reported four cases, one being a case of an eye injury, and the others minor burns. More adults were injured than youngsters, the doctors reported. None of the injuries were reported as being serious.

Local Farmers Begin Cutting Wheat; Good Yield, Prices Expected

Cutting of wheat on local farms has already started according to reports coming into the Co Ops headquarters, some farmers having begun Tuesday. A good yield is expected because of the big straw although the wheat is reported to be badly down in some places as the result of recent storms.

Difficulty with hay has reportedly been experienced, as very little hay has been put away which has not been wet.

A dozen of the new all-crop harvesters have been sold at the Co-Op, Bob Koenigshof reports.
The combine eliminates cutting and shocking, as it cuts and threshes at the same time, leaving the straw in the field and spreading it as it is threshed. The combine, although it has previously been used in the west, is new to this part of the country. Only two were sold last year but they are being sold faster this year, it is reported than the company can make them.

A good produce crop is also reported, and fruit is exceptionally good, and reported to be bringing in good prices relative to the quantity available. The prices in spite of the greater yield being higher than last year.

Warden Sees Seagull Take Hook, Line, Fish

A conservation officer and a fire warden saw a seagull spend 15 minutes swallowing a grass pike, which they estimated 14 inches long. The pike previously had been hooked by an angler.
When the gull took off with the fish it had swallowed, 10 feet of fishing line trailed through the air.

Two Local Youths in Training at Selfridge

Word has been received that Victor Vigansky and Bob Squier are still at Selfridge Field, after successfully passing the entrance examinations. They now plan to be there for the two year training course for the army air corps.

State Publishes Book on Schools

Michigan's biggest business, the schools, is pictured in a booklet, "Michigan's Future Citizens," just issued by Dr. Eugene B. Elliott, state superintendent of public instruction, as an enterprise worthy of more serious consideration by Mr. and Mrs. John Public. The purpose of the booklet is to present an interesting picture story of Michigan's public schools, showing their value and their needs.

"It is my hope that the booklet will serve to place schools and the education of the child foremost in the minds of every Michigan citizen," Dr. Elliott announced. The booklets are being sent to thousands over the state and can be obtained upon request.

"The 1,398,343 boys and girls of school age in Michigan must be provided with a rich individual and effective social training if the program for making good citizens is carried out through our educational systems," the state superintendent declared. "Providing an adequate education is a serious problem. Schools must be constructed, operated and supervised." In addition to this, school children must be taught. Teaching covers a wide range of activities.
Young children must be guided through a series of educational experiences which will make them good citizens. This guidance may be most effectively accomplished by well-trained teachers. Thus, in the making of good citizens, instruction is the central emphasis."

Plan to Use Legion Address System For Program on Saturday

The American Legion public address system used on the Buchanan streets last Saturday night will be used again this coming Saturday at which time free entertainment is planned, John El-bers, local commander, has announced. They will also be used at the opening of the lighted ball this Friday.

Safety Reporter Collects Fifty Traffic Ideas

Fifty suggestions for better traffic in Buchanan were gathered by the Safety Committee reporter during the past week. The work being done by the reporter is supplementary to the safety letter contest and the results will be also used in the report rendered to the National Safety Council.

Among driving practices criticized in the reports were the following:

Many drivers fail to stop for the stop sign at the corner of Dewey and Main. Drivers should be warned to regard this sign or the city should install a stop light as this corner is especially dangerous when the factory lets out.
The washouts on the sides of Alexander street should be fixed.
In some places along the street these washouts are so deep that it is dangerous for drivers going down the street.
The corner of Terre Coupe and Roe street is grown over thickly by weeds and high shrubs, which makes it impossible for a driver coming down Roe street to see what is around the corner.
Many drivers fail to stop for the stop sign at the corner of Oak and Dewey.

The parking plan should be changed on the corner of Oak and Front streets. On the corner near Boardman's store the cars are parked too near the corner, and when a driver turns the corner he has to be in constant fear of hitting one of the parked cars. If two or three cars were removed from both Front and Oak streets it would relieve the situation a great deal.

The speed on Portage street should be reduced. Signs should be posted along the street warning drivers to drive more slowly.
The children coasting down the hill and then turning out into the road on Days Avenue created a hazard, as it is difficult for a driver coming down the hill to stop when one of these children run in front of them. Authorities should see to it that the children stay out of the streets.

Parking on Days avenue should be on one side only and for a limited time, as Days avenue is not wide enough to allow parking on both sides without making it dangerous for two drivers passing each other.

The speed limit on Days avenue should be enforced. There are a number of short streets cutting into this street which makes it dangerous when cars come down Days at a high rate of speed.
Some drivers back around corners in order to turn. Sometimes if there is a building or trees on the corner it is impossible for the driver to see what is on the other side.

Drivers should be stopped from racing to the ball park on the evenings when ball games are to be played there. Some sort of sign should be placed to warn the motorists to drive more slowly.

Plan Children's Hike To Sand Hill, Friday

The WPA recreation leader, Miss Mayne Froese, will take children on a hike to Sand Hill on the Red Bud Trail, Friday afternoon. The group will leave Katryn park at 1 o'clock.

Lewis and Jim Nekvasil and Archie Gravelin, Jr., spent the Fourth at Silver Beach, St. Joe.

Local All-Stars, French Paper to Play in Openers

Girls' Teams to Meet in Fiv-Inning Exhibition Game

Dedication services for the lighted ball diamond will be held at the Athletic Field, at 7:30 o'clock Friday evening, following a parade which will begin downtown at 6:30 o'clock, to be participated in by all members of the soft ball teams in uniform. Two opening games will be played, and Mayor Merson will throw the first ball.

The High School band will play for the parade and will be at the game, and the American Legion public address system will be used.
Soft ball commissioners from Michigan and Indiana are to attend the opening night.

The feature game will be played between a Buchanan All-Star team and the French Paper Co. team, which is leading the Niles A. League. A five inning exhibition game between the Auto Specialties girls' team and the Industrial Rubber girls' team will also be played.

Two leagues have been formed, and new schedules planned the addition of a new team, the Ag Club from the High School, bringing the number of teams to ten.
The National league will be composed of Wisner's, Larson's, Gnodtke's, the Ag Club, and the Foundry team. The American league will be composed of Poorman's, Clark's, Root's, Boyce's, and the Dry Zero teams. Winners of each league are to play off for the city championship at the end of the season.

The field is now in much better condition, the diamond having been resurfaced and raised about six inches so that water will not stand on it. Bleachers seating about 400 people have been erected, and a fence constructed about the playing grounds.

$25 Fee Law For Out State Cars Repealed

The law authorizing the Secretary of State to collect a $25 investigation fee for every car brought out-of-state for registration in Michigan, was repealed by a bill passed during the last day of the 1937 regular session.

Figures of the Department of State show that during the first six months of 1937, investigation fees collected totaled $7,050, in contrast with collections for the first six months of 1936, during the previous administration, when $775 was collected on this account.

The law was passed to protect border motor car dealers from losses occasioned through evasion of the state's retail sales tax. The so-called "use-tax" act of the last session, if not found to be legally faulty, will afford similar protection; it provides, in effect, for collection of a 3 percent sales tax on all goods bought out-of-state, for use or consumption in Michigan.

Local Rider Takes 2nd in Cycle Meet

Ernest Mallinger of Buchanan again placed second in a motorcycle meet held by the Black Ace Motorcycle Club of Benton Harbor. The event, a cross country race, was held Sunday and was started from Benton Harbor.
Eleven drivers competed in the race. First place was won by Bill Clark of St. Joseph and third place by James Jordan, also of St.
Joseph.

Mrs. Harriet Kellar of Delaware, O., arrived the latter part of the week for an indefinite stay at the Harold Mann home. She was accompanied here by her son, Rex Keller.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Kramer and brother-in-law from St. Louis, Mo., were visiting Mrs. Kramer's aunts, Mrs. Joe Mottl and Mrs. Jerry Kline for a few days.

DO SOMETHING ABOUT IT

A short while ago, a man was talking in a local store about a recent traffic tragedy. Another man entering into the conversation said: "Well, if they have to be killed one way or the other, it probably doesn't make much difference."

The first man replied, "If you ever lost a mother or sister or brother in an auto accident you wouldn't talk that way. If some one near you was suddenly killed as the result of careless driving you wouldn't shrug it off so easily."

And the second man said, "I suppose that is right. I hadn't thought of it that way."

AND THAT'S THE SAD TRUTH.

Most people don't think about it that way until either they are involved in a life-taking accident or some-one they care for is injured or killed in an auto collision.

Most people don't realize that their lives are endangered by the thoughtless driver at the wheel. They fail to see that it's any of their worry that a lot of irresponsible people are driving cars. And when they do think about it, too often they just talk about in the corner drug store.

Talk is all right but what we need to cut down careless driving is ACTION.

What is needed is a public awareness to the hazards of traffic dangers and a public willingness and effort to do something about it.

But what?

First see that the traffic laws are sane and enforceable. Then insist that the laws be enforced. Let the first offender off lightly. But after that sock it to them. The fact that no murder is committed at the time of a driver's carelessness is no reason why he should be let off easily. That's merely someone else's luck. It shouldn't be his.

Endurance Test of Horses to be Held at M. S. C.

Weight Pulling Contest to be Opening Feature of Farmer's Day

A new type of endurance contest for horses is to be the opening feature of the annual Farmers' Day program at Michigan State College Friday, July 30.

In the annual view of better farming which rural business men of Michigan will get on the campus and farms, all of the agricultural departments of the college will offer demonstrations and information. Tests, research, new methods and new knowledge of fruit, grain, forage crops, pastures and truck crops, livestock, forestry, veterinary, agricultural engineering, soils and entomology are to be a part of the morning program.

This endurance test for horses, as announced by Ralph Hudson, farm superintendent, offers opportunity to any team in Michigan to match its heart and willingness against one good college pair of sorrel Belgian geldings.

The college animals are not trained specially for contest pulling. Although they weigh 3,000 pounds, any team of any weight has a good chance in this contest, which will be run from 10 to 10:30 a. m. to start the annual program.

Even a pair of light mustangs, if in good condition may win the endurance trophy offered by the Michigan Horse Breeders' association. Each team, of any weight, will pull a load of half the team's weight. The winning team will be the one that goes the best distance in the trials.

Hudson has set Wednesday, July 21, as the closing date for entries. He suggests training any entries by giving them pulls on a stoneboat. After departmental programs, there is to be a central program in the afternoon in the center of the landscaped part of the campus.

Ferns in Jamaica
Botanists have classified over 500 varieties of ferns in Jamaica. Many of these are seen to best advantage in Fern Gully, near the North Shore, where ferns, ranging from the smallest to several species that grow taller than a man, line the sides of a cool canyon. The road winds through Fern Gully for several miles in a dense forest of sweetwood and figwood trees. Long slender stems, known as "withs," which bear tiny leaves and are elastic, stretching when touched, hang from the graceful limbs of these trees, and everywhere are ferns, ferns and more ferns. It is a botanists' paradise in a tropical wonderland.

Colbert Unfair To Gals; Acquires Two Grand Guys

The puzzling and amusing task of choosing between two desirable suitors is presented to Claudette Colbert in her latest comedy-romance, "I Met Him in Paris," which will be the feature at the Hollywood theatre beginning Sunday. Melvyn Douglas and Robert Young have the roles of the rival suitors.

The three cornered romance was directed by Wesley Ruggles from a scenario by Claude Binyon with settings in Paris and the Swiss Alps. These places are two of the most glamorous spots that Americans usually include in their itineraries when they go abroad on vacation, as Miss Colbert does in the picture.

Wesley Ruggles, director of "I Met Him in Paris," chose Sun Valley, Idaho, new winter playground which socialites "discovered" last winter, as the United States perfect counterpart of a Swiss Alpine resort.

Guy Kibbee, Lynne Overmann and Una Merkel head the cast of RKO Radio's "Don't Tell the Wife," which is an expose of stock swindlers' methods, done in an hilarious manner. Thurston Hall, Guinn Williams, Harry Tyler and William Demarest all have strong supporting roles. Christy Cabanne directed the production by Robert Sisk. This feature will be shown Friday and Saturday.

"Guns of the Pecos," First National's new Western melodramatic thriller, comes to the Hollywood theatre Friday and Saturday with Dick Foran, the Singing Cowboy, in the stellar role.

Glenda Farrell, noted wisecracking gold-digger of the films, has an entirely new role as secretary to Ross Alexander, gossiping terror of Hollywood in the Hollywood theatre's new attraction, "Here Comes Carter!" showing Wednesday and Thursday.

Why Do Banks Make Charges On Some Checking Accounts?

Banks make service charges on checking accounts when the balances are not sufficient to enable them "to pay their own way." This is done to prevent such accounts being handled at an operating loss. Banks seek to earn their operating expenses by loaning and investing the funds entrusted with them. When a service charge is made it is usually dependent on the balance and relative activity of the account. In other words if an adequate balance is kept in proportion to the number of checks written or deposits made its earnings may cover the cost of servicing the account. The money which your account earns for the bank is applied on the cost of check books, signature cards, deposit slips, other supplies and necessary time and expense of handling your account. If your balance does not earn enough to pay the actual cost of handling your checking account a moderate service charge may be required.

75,000 Meals Served Daily at Scout Jamboree

The Boy Scouts' Jamboree would be no picnic for mother if she had to do the cooking. . . . not at a camping party requiring 75,000 meals to be served each day for ten days. Even the thought of preparing a breakfast of some 50,000 eggs or of making hot cakes for 25,000 hungry mouths is almost too large an order for mother, while the prospect of the 13,000 pounds of meat needing preparation for a single meal would undoubtedly result in her hasty retreat from the kitchen and emphatic resignation. Yet that is the order undertaken by the Boy Scouts of America for their first National Jamboree from June 30th, to July 9th in Washington, D. C. where approximately 75,000 meals are being served up each day of this great encampment.

To handle the cooking for such a tremendous group, 25 kitchens have been set up on the Jamboree grounds which each of 816 provisional Scout Troops will draw steaming hot rations already cooked for serving which they will take to their Troop dining tents in thermos cans.

Camp chefs have estimated that approximately 250 tons of food-stuffs will thus be consumed daily at the Jamboree, including: 900 bushels of potatoes each meal; 13,000 pounds of bread each meal; 25,000 quarts of milk daily; 4,000 pounds of butter daily; 2 tons of sugar daily; 50,000 eggs for one meal; 1,200 gallons of any canned vegetable per meal, such as tomatoes, corn, succotash, string beans, etc.

Bridges Not Mentioned in Bible—Bridges are not mentioned in the Bible, but according to other records a brick arch was erected across the Euphrates river within the city of Babylon.

Earthquake Weather—The expression, earthquake weather, is not generally recognized by meteorologists. The so-called earthquake weather is described as still, sultry and humid, conditions which are generally related to high air pressures. Some authorities believe that there may be some relation between changes in pressure and earthquakes, although this is a matter which has not been definitely proved.

Show Animals in Clean Quarters, Ag Head Orders

Buildings for Live Stock at Fall Fairs Must be Disinfected

Fair buildings and grounds where exhibits of live stock are to be held this fall must be thoroughly cleaned and disinfected under order by Department of Agriculture, issued by Thomas E. Baker, Acting Commissioner. To prevent the infection of any exhibition animals, fair managers have been ordered that seven days prior to exhibition that the buildings and yards be thoroughly disinfected and that no livestock be permitted upon exhibition grounds from date of disinfection to date of exhibition.

"Many restrictions are placed upon the exhibitors of live stock," according to L. W. O'Neill, director of Agriculture Industry for the department, "in the way of having their animals tested and a clean bill of health furnished before they may exhibit their live stock. Little or no care has been exercised in many instances in seeing that the buildings and grounds were properly cleaned and disinfected."

"The state and federal governments are spending approximately $800,000 annually in this state in the eradication and control of communicable disease of live stock. Every precaution should be taken to protect this investment and the department will insist upon every step being taken to prevent any outbreaks of disease."

"The state pays $90,000 for premiums with the local associations adding a like amount, attempting to boost farm products through exhibitions. It is equally important that steps be taken to protect exhibits at fairs," concluded O'Neill.

CHECKS KING'S SPEECH

He doesn't wear a coronet nor an ermine cloak, but Lionel Logue is one of the most important persons at the British royal court. He is oral instructor to King George VI, who since childhood has had to combat a tendency to stammer. Logue was the unsung hero behind the coronation, for his constant attendance on the monarch is credited with the flawless manner in which King George delivered his response to the ritual questions.

"Local demands are always filled first," he said, "policy enables employers to draw upon state and national markets instead of upon limited local fields. It benefits specialized worker whose field of employment is limited, and young men and women who live in areas where no new employment is foreseen, and the itinerant worker whose welfare depends largely upon his ability to stay constantly employed in various seasonal activities."

The NRS, a division of the United States Department of Labor, Major Starret stated, exacts no service charges from job seekers or employers.

Mare Bears 3 Sets of Twins Makes Record

Michigan livestock seems to be bidding for prolific honors, if the record of a horse on the farm of Irving Taylor, Perry, Michigan, is an indicator.

Twins colts are unusual, but a six year old mare owned by Taylor already has had three sets of twins in three successive years.

In 1935 the mare gave birth to a male and female, but these were weak and died. In 1936 another male and female set of twins was born and these are still on the farm. May 26 this year another set of twins arrived, again roan in color and male and female and healthy.

No record like this has ever been known, says George Brown, head of the animal husbandry department at Michigan State College. Harry Moxley, horse specialist in Brown's department, concurs. "The sire is a purebred Belgian kept on the farm. The mother is a grade Belgian."

A son, Richard Taylor, owns one of each of the sets of twins. He is a 4-H club boy and recently purchased a purebred filly to enlarge his activity in 4-H colt club work.

More unusual features which make the Taylor animals eligible to a "believe it or not" involve some extra feet. One of the 1936 twins has one extra foot, now small in comparison with the normal feet and in no way crippling the animal. The other 1936 twin was born with four extra feet but the pasterns absorbed them during growth.

365 Arrested For May Game Law Violations

Justices of the peace continue to "bear down" on conservation law violators.

The compilation of arrests made during May, just completed by the department of conservation shows a total of 365 arrests. In eight of these cases $100 fines were assessed and in eight others $50 fines were levied. Costs were additional in all cases. In numerous instances $25 fines with cost extra were assessed.

Three of the $100 fines were levied on violators in the Grand Rapids district who were charged with spearing game fish while using an underwater light; five were levied on commercial fish law violators.

The $50 fines were assessed for the following offenses: Possession of bluegills out of season, two; killing buck deer, buying furs without a license, illegal possession of venison, possession of two deer, possession of short wall-eyed pike, setting gill net in inland waters.

Most of the 365 arrests during the month were for illegal fishing; 32 involved violations of the game laws, 34 the commercial fishing law. Thirteen arrests were made for trespass on tax delinquent lands, 14 for violations of the fire laws, and seven the fur laws.

A total of $2,510 in fines and a total of $2,441.75 in costs were assessed, but fines were suspended in 143 cases. The total of jail terms imposed was 393 days. Seven violators were allowed probation, three were dismissed, two cases transferred to circuit court and one case was lost in prosecution.

BASKETBALL IS LEADER

Football was played in 325 schools, 225 had track teams, 175 sponsored tennis teams, 125 golf. 40 cross country, 30 swimming and 20 went in for hockey.

Oil Suffocates Larvae

The fact that oil floats on water is made use of when it is poured on water containing mosquito larvae; it prevents the larvae from reaching the surface to breathe, so they die of suffocation.

Beginning of the World War
The spark that ignited the world conflagration—the costliest war in history—was set off on June 28, 1914, when Archduke Franz Ferdinand and his wife of Austria-Hungary were assassinated at Sarajevo, Serbia. Doctor Gives Baby Breath of Life

His own mouth pressed against the tiny lips of a new-born baby, Dr. A. L. Gilbert of Elwood, Ill., breathed the breath of life into the tiny lungs. While the doctor kept the baby alive, an inhalator was rushed to Elwood from a nearby city. The little life was saved.

Turn First Hay to Silage, Advise Ag Instructors

Lansing:—Wet weather during the weeks that Michigan is admiring one of the best hay growths in years is stimulating use of the new idea of filling silos with good quality green hay.

In a survey made by staff members at Michigan State College, the hay crop, especially from alfalfa and sweet clover offers an excellent yield, but much of it is lodged and stemmy and hard to cure even if the weather for the next two weeks turns dry. The remedy is to place the first cutting in the silo, says H. C. Rafter, head of the farm crops department, and J. G. Hays, extension dairyman at the College.

One of the drawbacks to making silage from hay is that the material does not contain sufficient carbohydrates that will ferment the prevent spoilage. Experimentation at Michigan State College and at other state colleges offers a solution. Add some sweetening.

Forty to sixty pounds of molasses to each ton of silage will add the necessary carbohydrates. The molasses usually is mixed with an equal volume of water so that it will run easier and mix with the cut feed.

Cutters should have sharp knives and should be set to cut the hay in half inch lengths or even a little shorter. The molasses is mixed with water, put into an old oil drum and run through a petcock. The sweetening is admitted into the blower pipe. It can be run onto the green material as it goes into the cutter, but experiments prove this is a more "messy" job. If molasses is not available, 20 pounds of sugar to a ton will do the same job, but costs a little more.

Elements Needed for Plant Growth
The elements essential for plant growth are hydrogen, oxygen, carbon, nitrogen, potassium, calcium, magnesium, phosphorus, iron, chlorine and sulphur. Certain plants make use of other elements, but they are not considered essential. With the exception of potassium, phosphorus and nitrogen, these elements are prepared in most soils in sufficient quantities to meet the plant's need. Green plants use carbon dioxide from the air in making starch. The other foods come normally from the soil.
