

B. H. S. MEETS NILES HERE FRIDAY

Now Here's the Proposition

To The Recession Now whose little boy is 'oo? All these stories can't be true Who'er did it, one thing's flat— It's my door they left you at. Just look what you did to biz! Seems there's not a soul to claim you Or agree, on what to name you. Come, let's have a 'ruse confession Are you really a recession? Seems like you're too cross and snarly To be blamed on Mr. Farley. And who'er your parents are You don't smile like F. D. R. Now, if worst should come to worst Could it be that Mr. Hearst? Way you're raising hell for sartin' I suspicion Mr. Martin. Herbert with a virtuous air Claims he wasn't even there. Icicles with a virtuous tone Sternly points at Mr. Sloan Mr. Sloan says "no by cricky!" And points back at Mr. Ickes. But all this is not deterrent To your having lots of parents, For whoever sired you, son, You are damned by everyone.

Dinner for Nineteen, Please James

The old song, or the fairly old song has it: "Dinner for one, please James—Madam may not be dining—love plays such funny games," but that was the case of the desolated husband whose bitter half took a round powder. With a bachelor it's different, as witness the case of that well known, not to say notorious, local one wolf, Mr. James Best. With his friends it's—"dinner for nineteen please, James," and whatever funny games love may play, there will be at least nineteen people dining, because of the reputation of James' cookery. If one madam won't be dining, you can be sure eighteen others will. All the above refers to the fact that Mr. Best who is well named when it comes to his cookery, served one of his famous culinary chief d'oeuvres to nineteen friends at his home Sunday and from soup to nuts the feed was all prepared by James own hands.

Return From Texas And Points South

Mrs. Walter Thanning and daughter Sally and Mrs. Wilbur Dempsey arrived home Sunday afternoon from a four weeks visit in Texas. The former two visited with relatives at Pharr, while Mrs. Dempsey visited at Normanna, later joining Mrs. Thanning at Pharr and taking a four day trip to Monterey, Mexico, where they visited the numerous points of interest, including Chipinque mountain. They enjoyed seeing the bull fight and the Sunday night promenade in the city park down town. Upon their return to Texas they visited the cacti gardens near Edinburg, the Brownsville airport, which is the best equipped field in the country. After a visit to the Gulf of Mexico, and a short trip to Matamoros, Mexico, a border town they visited at Corpus Christi. They called on Mr. and Mrs. Ben Livingston, who are operating a tourist court there, and found that Mrs. Rose Livingston of Buchanan was there visiting her son, as was her daughter, Mrs. Schlee and a son of Lansing. In San Antonio they were met by Mrs. Anna Bird and her granddaughter, Mrs. Donna Bird Black, her husband and baby. Mrs. Bird was much improved in health. All members of the party were glad to be back in Michigan even though the Texas papers had carried the headlines of "Michigan Buried in Snow."

Clever Alteration In Thaning Store

Alterations and redecorations were completed Monday on the interior of the Thaning Frigidaire Sales and Service store room. The most extensive was the clever idea of housing the Iris Beauty Shop in a cottage within the store. The beauty parlor has been moved to the rear of the store room, and the partition separating it from the sales and service room in front is in the form of a side of a house, with a retreating half roof, a door and a window, and an imitation mail box that in reality houses a telephone.

Maroons Defeat Stove City Five

Simpson and Leiter Find Range of Baskets on Dowagiac Court

By JOHN SCHULTZ The Fighting Bucks defeated the Dowagiac Chiefs on the Stove City court 37-22. Simpson and Leiter, stellar guard and forward respectively, went torrid at Dowagiac Friday night, pairing up to register 24 of the team's total of 37 points. The game turned out to be a free scoring affair with both teams pounding the net consistently. The Maroons grabbed a four point lead in the first quarter. They led by this margin until Simpson dropped two successive baskets into the mesh. Leiter added one in the closing minutes of the first half to increase the lead to nine points at the intermission. With Simpson, Leiter, and Donley continuing to score at will the Bucks went on to gain victory by 15 points. The third quarter was more concentrated to defense as far as the Bucks were concerned, for Dowagiac got hot and came close to tying the count. In the final canto the Bucks pumped the wicket for 11 points. Dale Simpson and Dale Leiter both got 12 points each to lead the Maroons, Squires got 10 points to lead the Indians.

Forgetting hospitality the Bucks reserves cast the Dowagiac reserves aside 23-20, to start the evening's program. The Bucks squared accounts with the yearlings for the Steve City for the season's campaign. The Bucks started fast and pounded their way to a 16-11 lead at half time. The Paposes tied the count at the close of the third canto. The Bucks won on a basket by A. Rauch and two charity tosses by Topash. D. Habicht led the Bucks with 8 points.

Clark Players Make Fine Start

Production Plays to Fair Houses and rays Expenses

The reorganized Clark Players appeared in their premiere, "Square Crooks," at the Clark Theatre Friday and Saturday evenings, with satisfactory results financially and more than satisfactory results from an entertainment point of view. The cast was well drilled and lived up to the reputation of its locally famous predecessor. Personnel was built around a group of the old stars who fully lived up to their past reputations, and some fine new talent was uncovered in the parts taken by Mrs. John Koba, Carol Koba, Doris Campbell, A. P. Sprague and the young maestro, Philip Hanlin. Mrs. Koba was successful in her character part of the Irish housekeeper, speaking her part in a brogue as Irish as Killarney. Miss Koba was a decided hit in the role of jazy negro maid, Miss Campbell was graceful and natural in her part as the housemaid. Hanlin turned in a fine performance in a leading role. Director Hanlin announces that the box office take paid all expenses and a small cash margin, which was very satisfactory, all things considered. He stated that he planned to stage a musical performance some time in April if conditions at that time seemed favorable.

Troop 41 of the Boy Scouts are preparing exhibits for a local store window Saturday, Feb. 12, in observance of National Boy Scout Week. More definite details will be announced later.

The Boy Scout 26th Anniversary Week, which will be celebrated February 6th to 13th, calls for many special events. Boy Scouts will wear their uniform during the entire week. On Monday night at 6:45 p. m. the National Columbia and Mutual Network throughout the country will broadcast a nationwide program which will cover an address by President Franklin D. Roosevelt, Honorary President of the Boy Scouts of America, a short talk by Walter W. Head, President of the National Council and James E. West, Chief Scout Executive. Many troops are organizing patrols for that night to listen to this talk and then celebrate during the evening. On February 10th the annual mammoth Court of Honor will be held in the Dowagiac High School. Awards will be made from the Cubbing rank on to the Eagle Scout. The Court of Honor Committee, of which Dr. Howard A. Blanning of Benton Harbor is Chairman, will conduct this Court. The Dowagiac High School orchestra will furnish music, and all troops will be represented on the stage with their troop and American flags. The public is invited to this colorful event.

On Saturday afternoon and Sunday evening demonstrations will be put on in store windows of all of the cities. Demonstrations will cover all phases of Scouting work, including the most popular, which is First Aid. On Sunday, the 13th, practically all denominations are going to recognize Scouting in the church services. Many churches are planning elaborate programs which will include the candle investiture service, which is popular in Scouting. Many churches are using Scouting for ushering and, of course, troops will attend the services in a body.

Another special feature this year during the Anniversary Week will be the appearance of three Boy Scouts in uniform at the different service club luncheons. The boys will give the Scout Oath, the Scout Law, and pledge to the flag, and also distribute literature appropriate to Scouting and the Scout Anniversary celebration. Several of the clubs are also asking for demonstrations in Scouting activities. The Activities Committee of the Area is handling the churches and the service club demonstrations. There are: Dr. R. B. Howard, General Chairman of Benton Harbor; Byron Sheffer, District No. 1, Benton Harbor; Richard Merson, District No. 2, St. Joseph; Marshall Brenner, District No. 3, Niles; Devon Smith and H. B. Veneklasen, District No. 4, Three Oaks; Arthur Knoblauch and Rev. W. C. Bassett, District No. 5, Cassopolis; Claude Carter, District No. 6, Buchanan; Percy Beldier, District No. 7, Dowagiac. These men will be assisted by the commissioner staff in each of the seven Districts.

Many troops are having special parents nights with co-operative dinners during Anniversary Week also. At that time many of the troops will present their new 1938 charters and certificates of registration to the boys enrolled. The celebration this year promised to be one of the high lights of the Scouting year in the Council.

Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Steele arrived home Monday from San Antonio, Texas, where they had visited since Dec. 22, at the home of their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Anna Steele.

TO THE PEOPLE OF BUCHANAN

There is at the present time a greater call for good entertaining books at the Buchanan Public Library than the institution is able to supply with the funds available. This is particularly true since many people now have more time at their disposal owing to shorter working hours. A valuable community service will be performed by those who are able to assist in placing good reading at their disposal.

The Library board has checked the authors most in demand who can be recommended as producers of books at once entertaining and clean. Doubtless many Buchanan people have books by them which they have read and have no further use for.

The selected list of authors is: Mary Roberts Rhinehart, Ralph Conner, Jean Stratton Porter, James Oliver Curwood, Joseph C. Lincoln, Harold Bell Wright, Stewart Edward White, Zane Gray, Eden Philpott, S. S. Van Dyne, John Fox, Booth Tarkington, Raphael Sabatini, Sax Rohmer, Tarzan books by Edgar Rice Burroughs, Kathleen Norris, Zona Gale, and Edna Ferber. There is also a very pressing need for good books for children, especially from 5 to 8 years old. Even nursery rhyme books will be welcome.

Langer Leader 4-H Stock Club

Reed, George, DeWitt Advisory Board; Club Still Open For New Members

The Buchanan 4-H Livestock Club held a meeting in the auditorium of the Buchanan Co-ops Saturday, January 29, at 9:30 a. m. The club made its plans for the oncoming year, elected its leader and advisory board and chose its name. The meeting took up with vice-president Ivan Price, in charge. The roll call was taken and the minutes of the last meeting read. Mr. Gleason was present and assisted with the meeting. Nominations were made for the local leader. Only one nomination was presented, making it unnecessary to vote on Mr. Langer, agriculture instructor at Buchanan high school, as local leader. The two boys taking a beef project had not found out anything definite about their steers. There were several reports on the sow and litter projects. It was found that the price on a good purebred sow would range from $50 to $100. Mr. Gleason thought he knew where he might find some a little cheaper but had not heard yet. The advisory board elected was: Mr. James Reed, Mr. Alfred George and Mr. Paul DeWitt. There are seven members. They are Raymond DeWitt, Ivan Price, Rex Reed, Howard Ketchum, Stewart Deon, Clelland Eagly and James Reep.

The next meeting will be held at the same place and at the same hour next Saturday, Feb. 5. It is still not late for any boys and girls who wish to come and join us and to help us make our club bigger and better. After we get our projects we will meet at some of the homes to see how each project is progressing.

Class B Title To be the Stake

Invaders Defeated Locals 25-21 In First Game of The Season

By JOHN SCHULTZ The big game of the season is here. Niles will be our guests Friday February 4th.

Niles and Buchanan basketball fans are all atwitter over the chances of their teams in this game. Both teams and their coaches are confident. The bitter struggle will prove the best team in class B in Berrien County. Niles has defeated all the class B schools in the county, and if the Bucks come out victorious Friday they have licked the best. Niles is undefeated in the Big Five Conference and hold a commanding lead in that conference. The Bucks are not in this conference but are in the all county rating. The Bucks would like nothing better than to even the ledger with the Redbirds.

Chester Davidson has a veteran team of seniors who have played against the Bucks for three or four years. The Redlegs are considered to be a first half team. This makes both teams that way. Coach Miller's boys can also come from behind to win.

The Nilesites hold an edge over the Maroons having licked them once, 25 to 21. With the turn of the calendar the Nilesites have opened up and with Huff and Kraft finding their eyes, competition has found the Davidsonites very tough boys. On the other hand the Bucks have not been standing still. They have waded through teams of the Berrien County group and have compiled 7 victories and have suffered defeat only twice. Niles has won 7 and lost 4 times. Defense will be the subject of both coaches drill this week. The team asks your support. Come early and pull for your team to win. Probable lineups: At forwards Niles will have Huff and Kraft, J. Cook will hold down the pivot position. At guards we will find Holmes and Lynd. The Bucks will use Leiter and Donley at forwards. Heiney will be at center. In the back court we will find Smith and Simpson.

Walkden Purchases More River Front

A half mile of beautiful and potentially valuable St. Joseph river frontage comprised in the former Charles Ingalls farm in the Bend of the River has been purchased recently by C. A. Walkden, according to an announcement by W. R. Payne, receiver of the Buchanan First National Bank. The Ingalls farm comprises 42 acres, and almost a half mile of river frontage extending from the Indiana & Michigan electric plant to the Walkden farm, which he bought over 20 years ago. Mr. Walkden states that he hopes to improve the drive along his farm so that it rivals the better known Redbud trail on the opposite side of the river. His place is already known as one of the finest places on the river and it is fortunate that the additional acreage has fallen in the hands of someone who appreciates its scenic possibilities.

Push Rehearsals For Junior Play

Play rehearsals have been progressing with great gusto this week.

Uncle Horace, a difficult part, is being played by Winston Sands, who is always getting into embarrassing situations, as some of you may know. Uncle Horace is Mr. King's maternal uncle. He has made an art of hypochondria, as he finds it excuses him for picking out the most comfortable chair and refusing to budge from it no matter who enters the room. He professes to be a great sufferer from insomnia and tries to snatch a doze whenever he can throughout the day.

Aunt Abby is played by Karol Dunlap, an ambitious young student of Buchanan High. Aunt Abby is the sister of Mr. King's late wife. She enjoys her place in the family with the understanding that she is the chief executive of the domestic organization, but so many outside organizations command her attention that she has practically abandoned the running of the household to the servants themselves. She is a born joiner and delights in clubs and conventions.

Holds Scholarship Cornell University

William H. Habicht, a graduate of the Buchanan High School, is one of the 73 holders of John McMullen Regional Scholarship in Engineering now attending Cornell University, Ithaca, N. Y. Mr. Habicht expects to receive an M. E. degree in 1940.

"BIG APPLE" DANCE CRAZE HAS ITS DAY

The "Big Apple" is the biggest dance sensation of the year. This dance originated at the University of South Carolina.

The people in the southern states have been dancing the "Big Apple" for many months. It is a novelty dance made up of various different fancy dance steps such as trucking, sassing, and the shag. A large group of people is necessary to swing into this dance and make it fast and peppy.

This dance is no longer confined to the southern states. At last it has reached the north and now we are dancing the "Big Apple" right here in Buchanan. So popular has it become that now the various radio stations are playing songs entitled the "Big Apple."

The demonstration of this dance put on by Jerry White, Dale Lyons, Elayne Blaney, and Norma Yoder much delighted the student body, teachers, and visitors at the last assembly program.

Who's Who

Tall, 17, a junior, brown hair, brown eyes and Matthew Rauch all go together. "Mat," as he is known by every one, is on our basketball squad, and football team. Rumors are that he has a girl in Galien. His favorite dish is Wheaties, "the breakfast of champions." His favorite song is "Harbor Lights." He likes shop best because there he can talk. Carole Lombard is his favorite movie star, but he says that Shirley Temple sets his heart throbbing. Come, Come, "Mat." If you ask him what his pet saying is he'll tell you "it don't make sense."

This is a sophomore boy. He weighs 140 pounds, and five feet eight inches in height. He was born in Buchanan in the year 1923. He has dark hair and is light complexioned. His favorite sports are ice skating, basketball, football, and swimming. A favorite movie star of his is none other than James Cagney. One of his favorite dishes is a platter full of nice fried fish. He belongs to the F. B. A. and F. P. A. clubs. He has a very good character and disposition. His ambition is to become an aviator. He recommends "Bob Gordon" as one of the best books in Buchanan High's library. His hobby is collecting pictures of famous football stars. After this description, you should meet and get acquainted with Dick Penwell. Robert or "Bob" Hiery was born November 19, 1923, and, believe it or not, he was a big boy who weighed about 9 pounds. He is now a little over fourteen years old and weighs about 89 pounds, is four feet ten and one-half inches tall, has brown hair, and blue-green eyes. His favorite pastimes are listening to the radio, especially to W. L. S., and sports. He isn't particular about what sport, just so it is a sport. He likes to eat coconut pie. Of the books he has read, his favorite is "The Land That Time Forgot," and his favorite show was "Lost Horizon." If you hear a strange sound coming out of the boys' locker room, the odds are 9 out of 10 that it is he singing "You Can't Stop Me From Dreaming." His favorite movie stars are, Sonja Henie and Big Crosby. He says his future is undecided as yet.

EXPLANATION OF ADMITS

There are many good reasons for the explanation of an absence, but there are an equal number of poor ones.

To get a first class excuse the fundamental requirement is a written excuse from home. Illness or a death in the family are good reasons to secure a first class admit. Or in special cases one may make up his work before-hand and take a signed note from his teachers verifying such in the high school office. A first class admit is one that will allow the pupil to make up his work and receive full credit.

A second class admit is one that will not allow the pupil to make up his work. No excuse from home does not necessarily mean a second class admit. But remember, do your shopping Saturdays and don't let your school work suffer because of a beautiful spring day.

Unavoidable accidents like bad weather conditions and such deserves a first class admit for tardiness. However, oversleeping or loitering in the hall will get you a second class admit. Shop and art excuses don't work, either.

Some of the much-used and worn-out excuses are: "the clock was slow," "mother forgot to call me," "I fell down," and for a girl, "I got a run in my stocking," and many others. Poor excuses are as numerous as the stars in the sky, so when you are absent or tardy, be sure you have a good excuse.
