Signs of What?
Signs of an early spring or sumptin' are indicated by two reports from the rural environment:

At the Alva Best farm a White Leghorn cockerel two weeks old flapped his wings and tried to crow. At the Milton Mitchell farm a cockerel 10 days old made the same attempt.

C. W. Patterson Taken by Death

Charles W. Patterson, 58, resident of this section his entire lifetime, died suddenly at his home at 113 South Portage at 7:30 p. m. Monday, death being apparently caused by a heart attack.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Wallace, who lived with him were moving out at the time. Mrs. Wallace was in an adjoining room when she heard him cry out. He had apparently gone to the kitchen sink with a cup when the attack came. She caught him as he slumped to the floor but death followed almost instantly.

He was born at Berrien Springs, versions of the date of his birth varying. Testimony of local men who went to school with him as a boy here place his age at about 58. He was the son of James Thomas and Arilla McGowan Patterson. He lived nearly all his life here, working at times for the Clark Equipment company and the Michigan Central. He also substituted for John Camp as night watchman. He is survived by two daughters, Clarissa Ann Albright of Niles, and Doris Della Patterson, R. R., Buchanan.

The funeral will be held at 2 p. m. today at the Swem funeral home with Rev. C. A. Sanders in charge.

A meeting of local softball fans was held Tuesday evening in the offices of the Boyce Realty company to form plans for a city league this summer. Another meeting of prospective sponsors of teams will be held soon.

Son of William Arendshorst Killed

The sad news was received here Tuesday evening of the death of Julian Arendshorst, 19-year-old son of William Arendshorst, manager of the reorganized Larson Seed Products Company. The boy was a freshman at Hope College, and was practicing with the track squad in the college gymnasium. He was tossing the discus to a partner who was returning it. He had thrown the discus and turned around with his back to his throwing partner. The latter threw the discus and the edge of the 12-pound disk struck him in the back of the head. He died at 10 p. m., four hours after the accident.

The funeral will be held Friday afternoon in his home city of Holland. L. Bouws accompanied Mr. Arendshorst to Holland Tuesday night. They arrived several hours after his death.

South Bend Road
FOR A CITY PARKING PLAN

An element in the appearance of Buchanan which never fails to impress the visitor entering the city by automobile is the universal attractiveness of its approaches.

From whatever direction, by whatever road, one enters, the appearance outshines that of the average city. The South Bend road entrance around the end of the Chamberlain hills, past the old Fred Howe residence, wins frequent comments. Here, as on the Redbud Trail at the opposite side, or by the River Street road or by Terre Coupe, the winding curve is a main element of attraction.

The improvement of this entrance would be a main item in any long range city landscaping plan. Two years ago the state highway department was solicited for aid in landscaping the state-owned ground where the road was changed opposite the Emma Knight residence, when the state paved M-174. Mr. Doric Hawks, in charge of state road landscape work for Berrien county, agreed to landscape the small bowl

Mixed with the feverish intensity with which the Stockholm workers toiled at their homes in the light Arctic nights of last July was another, lighter spirit, a sort of a holiday gaiety.

They were working hard but they were cashing in on a fine opportunity and they toiled with enjoyment. I thought it might have resembled that mixed spirit of serious intent and jubilation with which the pioneers came westward to Michigan a hundred years ago.

I asked Crossland about that. "They're having a wonderful time," he said. "It is a great adventure for most of them, building their own homes cooperatively this way. If a man and his family are building a home more than likely his relatives and hers will help, and even their friends will help without charge. They make a sort of picnic out of it. C. Rice Named to K. S. C. Faculty

Son of Rev. and Mrs. Rice Gets Research Assistantship
Manhattan, Kas.

The Department of Biology, Kalamazoo College has just announced that Clarence Rice, son of Rev. and Mrs. Thomas Rice, 130 South Oak St., Buchanan, has been awarded a research assistantship in genetics at Kansas State college, Manhattan, Kansas. Mr. Rice has also been chosen as this year's recipient of the Praeger Fellowship to the University of Michigan's Biological Station at Douglas Lake. The Praeger Fellowship was established in 1934 in honor of the late Dr. William E. Praeger who had then completed 24 years of service at Kalamazoo college. It was made possible through the cooperation of the University of Michigan's biology department and the generosity of local friends of Dr. Praeger. Rice is the fourth student to receive the award and he intends to study this summer with Dr. Paul S. Welch, department of zoology, and Dr. Carl D. La Rue, department of botany, University of Michigan.

As soon as the session is over at Douglas Lake, Rice will start immediately for Manhattan. His assistantship at Kansas State should begin the first of August, but Dr. H. L. Ibsen, head of the department of animal husbandry, and under whom he will study, has granted Rice a special leave so that he may complete all his work at the biological station which closes August 20.

THE CURVE OF BEAUTY WINDING APPROACHES TO BUCHANAN

in the angle between the new and old routes. But after making a start the funds allotted to Berrien County became exhausted and it was not completed. But the project remains in the limits of possibility, any time any organization, city or business, becomes sufficiently interested to bring pressure.

The plan of Mr. Hawks at that time was to bevel the bowl, sow a lawn and set out ornamental spruce. If this plan were carried out, rebuds planted in the angle east of the approach to the tracks, and possibly a dozen or more dogwoods planted on the flanks of the Chamberlain hills above the road, within the course of a few years, the approach would win wide comment. Effort of this sort wins instant attention—if properly directed, and if the landscaping is maintained. The danger is always the assurance of maintenance. But in the case of planting redbud and dogwood trees, the trees care for themselves if given a show.

It is the advantage of this sort of effort that it requires work and interest but very little cash expense.

Marjorie Mitch is Miss Buchanan

Secret Committee Names Attractive Brunet to Represent City in Elimination

Buchanan was assured of representation worthy of its past record in the Blossom Fete contest by the announcement at a party at the American Legion hall Thursday evening of the selection by the secret committee of Miss Marjorie Mitch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Mitch of 106 Arctic street.

Miss Mitch is 20 years old, brunet, with a most attractive personality. Her appearance as she was introduced by Dr. M. J. Converse, more than justified the efforts of the unnamed committee who selected her and of the efforts of Miss Jeanne Roti, who has been in general charge this year.

The Misses Marie Post and Thelma Howard were presented as representatives of Buchanan in past years. Arthur Johnston furnished an entertaining comedy skit preceding when he was introduced as "the most beautiful woman in Buchanan" by Dr. Converse, and bobbed through the curtains made up for Lizzie Tish of radio note, and gave a monologue on the order of the one retailed over the air by that pseudo-lady.

The presentation was preceded by a session of bridge and cards, with presentation of prizes and refreshments.

Peaches, Pears Now in Bloom

Orchardists Report Fruit 3 Weeks Ahead; Field Crops in Proportion

Orchard conditions are exactly three weeks ahead of last year in the Buchanan community according to a comparison of the spraying schedule of the two years, a local fruit man reports.

Pears, cherries and peaches are now in full bloom, with prospects that only apples will be left. In bloom by the time of the blossom fete during the second week in May. Fruit prospects, both small and trees, are excellent, except for some cherry orchards, where the crop is a partial loss to date.

Field crops are proportionately ahead. Omar Kenton reports that during the 27 years he has farmed here, only one season was comparable to this in advancement. He planted most of his small grain in March before the heavy snow and his oats and barley are now up.

Reports Elderberries in Bloom
George C. Roberts of Galien reports that in a marsh on his farm sheltered by a hill on the north side elderberries are now in heavy bud, almost ready to bloom. The elderberry usually blooms in July.

They solved the problem by fitting a mask one size smaller than that required for a clean-shaven person and contributed to his future safety.

Stamp Collectors Like Local Cancellations

The growing list of fads of stamp collectors now includes the collection of postmarks from cities named after politicians of earlier days, according to postmaster

Glenn Haslett, who has received several requests from stamp collectors for envelopes postmarked "Buchanan," on the day of former president James Buchanan's birth, April 23. Mr. Haslett receives similar requests annually from stamp collectors from many sections of the country.

News of Buchanan Schools

Collected and Edited By Members of the Journalism Class

Editorial

All eyes and ears are turned to making out schedules for next year. The freshmen are deciding upon which of the five courses they wish to take in high school. They may choose from the following: Commercial, college preparatory, engineering and liberal arts, agricultural, and general. Sophomores have the problem of which subjects they wish to major in. The juniors must continue their subjects and take the ones they require. The on-coming seniors are completing their respective courses.

Another six weeks has come to an end and report cards will come out, April 20. When we think of next year's schedules, report cards, and new subjects, we feel that the scholastic year is not yet over, but that we must still get to work for this last six weeks.

ENNUNCIATION

The American habit of careless speech mars our expression.

At first glance the following conversation appears to be some strange language, but upon closer examination you discover that it is merely the way most of us in the Buchanan High School mangle our speech.

Tim: "H'lo, George. Kimeara minut."

George: "Awright, in jessa secun."

Tim: "Wajudo lasnigt?"

George: "Mu wifen I went tashow."

Tim: "Sodeye. Java gootime?"

George: "Yeah! Jew?"

Tim: "Uh huh, goodanuf."

Looks pretty bad in print, doesn't it, but many of us, which is too many, use this slang daily, unconsciously. If some of us could use correct English awhile, maybe we could really understand what's happening around us. After all, slang is just a fad, and if a few of us change, the others will follow quickly, just as the new 'hair styles do. Let's try and be different and show ourselves that we know how to speak correctly.

SCOOPS

What are you going to take next year? This is heard everywhere, for everyone is making out next year's schedule.

Have you juniors and seniors asked the girl friend to the prom yet?

Skits were given last Wednesday morning in the auditorium of the grade Mantata, "Tom Sawyer."

Spring vacation lasted just a day and a half, plus the week-end, and we had lots of fun.

Those having library fines can't have their report cards until they are paid.

The dramatics class have finished Shakespeare's plays (acting them out) and now are going to do them in their own version and language.

What girl is it you can find with Jimmy King down by the North door every morning before school (she's blond). He takes her home on his bicycle, too.

When are we going to have some more assemblies with "Jimmy Fidler," who is sponsored by "Drain," on the program?

The French Club saw "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs" in South Bend Thursday, April 7, and then enjoyed a dinner Monday they visited Notre Dame.

Mr. Langer and the Agriculture boys planted Red Bud trees along Red Bud Trail last week.

The Future Bachelor Club is going to the natatorium in South Bend this week.

The basketball girls would have had their weenie roast last Tuesday if it wasn't postponed again.

The Microphone staff of this semester and last semester plan to go to South Bend to the Tribune building and see how the newspaper is made next Wednesday afternoon.

The lawn of the high school was covered with lime this morning, and it looks as if the snow forgot to melt.

The economics classes are studying banking and money, but I don't see where that concerns us. No one seems to have any money to put in or take out.

The safe door in Mr. Stark's office is being fixed.

Eugene Longworth has returned from the West.

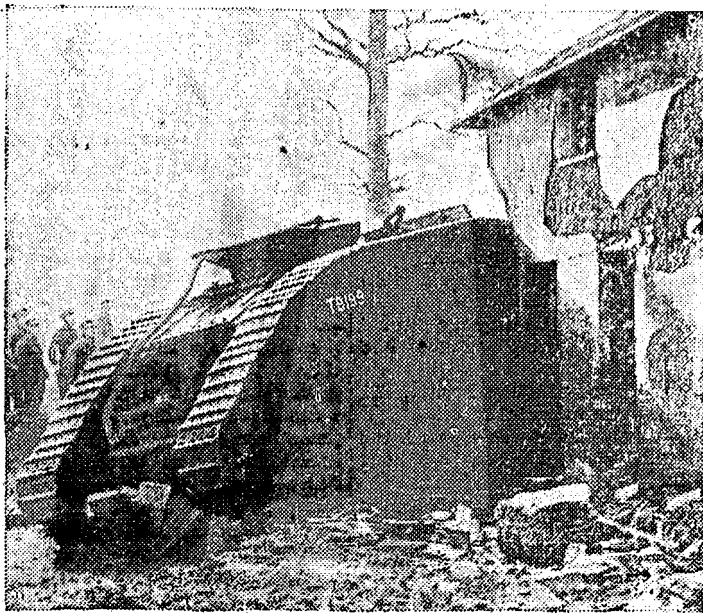

The Velmorian Literary Society met last week. Each member learned a spring poem.

Who's Who

Freshman

Robert Travis, a freshman, was born in Buchanan on September 3, 1922. Later his family moved away and Robert has attended

Official House Wrecking

An army tank charging one of a row of condemned cottages near Beovington camp, Dorset, England, provided an exciting show for the local inhabitants. Hundreds of visitors and all the soldiers stationed at the camp had a chance to see the tanks in operation.

school in Oak Forest, Three Oaks, and now in Buchanan. His favorite book is "Skyward with Byrd." For his choice of movies he likes to see western pictures, but Clark Gable is his favorite actor. Although he prefers cowboy shows, his favorite flower is the small fragile violet. His favorite subject is agriculture, so, therefore, his hobby would naturally be farming. His favorite dish is corn beef and cabbage. He takes a little after Jiggs, don't you think? "A penny saved is a penny earned," is a very good motto, so Robert declares. While most boys like the girls, Robert is different. He says that he doesn't like them. Are you sure, Robert?

Sophomore

Lillian Fabiano was born in Dowagiac, Michigan, on January 17, 1923. She has attended school at Dowagiac and at Buchanan. "Little Man, What Now?" ranks highest as her choice of books. As to the movies, she says that all of them are her favorites. Clark Gable and Myrna Loy are her favorites, however. Her favorite flowers are lilies. She likes home economics very much. "You said it" is what you may hear Lillian say most any time. Her favorite dish is either chicken or chop suey. Dancing, swimming, and bowling take up a big share of Lillian's time during the summer. She says that little Harold Hittle makes her mad. Shame on you, Harold!

Junior

Fred Banke was born in Buchanan on September 16, 1921, and has always attended the Buchanan school. His favorite book is "Call of the Wild." He likes to see Sonja Henie and Ronald Coleman in the movies, and his favorite picture is "You're Only Young Once." Fred's favorite dish is a strawberry sundae, and his favorite flower is the tulip. Economics is Fred's favorite subject. For a hobby as well as a sport, he likes to ride a bicycle. His favorite saying is "Oh, gosh!" His chief dislike is people who like to snap chewing gum while chewing it. Fred works as an usher in the Hollywood theatre down town. "How far down, please?"

Senior

Virginia Frame was born in Buchanan on August 21, 1920. She attended the Currier School before coming to the high school in town. Her favorite movie is "Rose Marie," and her favorite movie stars are Nelson Eddy and Loretta Young. She likes to sew. Chili is her favorite dish. Her favorite book is "A Lantern in Her Hand." She likes any subject that deals with commercial matters. She dislikes conceited people. Her favorite saying is "That's O. K." Is it, Virginia?

CAN YOU IMAGINE—

Percy Kelly as a chemistry teacher?

Kenny Herman, a junior, without his famous pipe?

Doris Alle as a nurse, especially after the way she acts in biology?

I. C. Ernst not having a teacher request him to remove his gum at least three times during a class?

"Wally" Lewis, when asked a question in economics class, not saying, "You've got me there?"

Eugene Stultz as an insurance salesman?

"Shadow Rose, otherwise known as Richard, without his yellow baseball cap?"

George Lauver as a show manager?

Don Ochenryder without a comic book?

past two weeks has been almost perfect.

The following people told about the story and show of "Snow White" last week in oral English—Dolores Myers and Jacqueline Stark.

The following people have their names on the Dental Honor Roll: Donald Matthews, Della Rauch, Doris Hawkins, Lynn Watson, Dolores Myers, Leroy Smith, John Hamilton, Margaret Smith, Charles Simpson, Jack Blischoff, Lance Stamper, Dwight Walters, Jacqueline Stark.

Mrs. Helm—2nd grade: June Blischoff brought to school a beautiful specimen of a sandbar willow. O'dean Toll brought a lovely spring bouquet of daffodils and pink hyacinths. These specimens will be used in art and nature study classes.

Nedra Smith has returned from a two weeks automobile trip to California. Going westward the Indians attracted Nedra's notice. At one place an Indian directed the Smith family to the right road. He asked for a ride and rode awhile in the car. This incident is an outstanding event in Nedra's trip. Later, in California Nedra attended school with her cousin. She liked this experience very much. She discovered that the spelling of words were the same as the ones she had studied in Buchanan. The afternoon session of school was one hour long.

Mrs. Pelhank—2nd grade: The room has an attractive Easter exhibit.

The pupils are planning to take a trip to the Wilson Dairy.

Miss Quickel—3rd grade: Because this is Pan American Week and because of the Highway of Friendship being built to the other Americas this grade took advantage of the fact and wrote a letter of friendship to a Third Grade in Venezuela.

Donald Hartman made a very vivid picture depicting transportation from earliest times to modern. A great number of the children colored nature pictures from the Nature Study Readers they have just finished.

Mrs. Fuller—4th grade: Maynard Martin brought a piece of wood showing the work and home of a carpenter bee. He also brought some of the bees. They look like bumble bees and are very neat borers. The children enjoyed looking in reference books to find more information about boring bees.

Miss Spear—5th grade: Doris Fuller and Charles Kelley won the prizes for turning in the most money in the tag sale for Starr Commonwealth School for boys.

Work has just been finished on the United States in Geography. Some very fine outline maps of the states were made showing the natural regions.

Study has been started on spring birds. The first bird studied was the robin. Now it is the cardinal. The pupils are painting pictures of the birds and will make a bird notebook.

The room earned 23 merit awards and 14 progress awards

STRAWBERRY TIME

Pretty Catherine Agaisse, strawberry ambassador, enjoys one of the ripe berries she has just helped to pick in the strawberry patch near Hammond, La. Marketed by a growers' organization, the Louisiana Farmers' Protective union, the fruit is handled through an auction in Hammond.

in penmanship this week.

Miss Ekstrom—5th grade: This week special attention is being paid to Pan American Day, April 14. The aim is to awaken an interest in American life, history, and culture upon both American continents. We wish to stress the aspect of cooperation and common benefits of progress which is properly shared. Radios and newspapers are full of the subject. The Pan American Union in Washington, D. C., will furnish publication free of charge for the asking. We are using some of this material. Mr. Hawes has given us some South American trade journals.

Besides discussing what the pupils have read and heard outside of school about Pan American Day they have read the historical development of the Pan American Airlines, given a play called "Christ of the Andes" and now are studying a unit called "Economic Gifts of America to the World."

Gertrude Markham and Denny Lyon turned in the most money from the tag sale for the Starr Commonwealth School for boys.

Personal appearance is the topic in health work.

Owing to spring vacations in neighboring schools Buchanan school has had a number of visitors this week.

Miss Reams—6th grade: The room is working on Japan. Special topics will be given and things pertaining to Japan will be made—gardens, fans, screens, lanterns, etc.

Miss Abell—6th grade: Lyman Lolmough made a realistic statue of Popeye, the Sailor Man.

Miss Abell has a lovely African violet which has been in constant bloom since December.

Dewey Grade News

Miss Anderson—Kindergarten: The kindergarten has enjoyed watching their chickens grow. Out of six we have three left who we think will now live to be healthy chicks.

Miss Rutledge—Fourth grade: The fourth grade is preparing the play, "The Bad Baby Molar" to be presented at the P. T. A. meeting, April 26th, at the High School auditorium.

Miss Jacqueline Henson entertained the fourth grade at a birthday celebration at Kathryn Park, Wednesday, April 13.

Mrs. Wilcox—Second grade: Second grade at Dewey School made Easter baskets and the bunny filled them with eggs.

Miss Miller—First grade: First grade enrolled a new boy Albert Harning.

Miss Reams—Opportunity Room: We have several new flowers in our flower garden.

Our teeth charts were a help in reminding people to brush their teeth.

We have the names of 24 birds on our bird calendar.

Merlin brought a mouse he had caught to school.

Our lily plant has a bud on it. Mrs. Fischner—Third grade: The third grade wrote a letter to a third grade class in South America. They told about our April snow storm and our first spring flowers. They described some games we play and a pantomime they are preparing.

Rose Brown has returned to school after being absent over two weeks.

WE WONDER?

Where had Bill Ednie and Doris Allee been at noon one day last week so as to make them very late for fifth hour? What's more, they arrived at the same time, together.

Passing the home economics room recently during the first period in the morning, I noticed Lee Topash rather fearfully attacking a spoonful of something or other. Wonder why the fear?

CREATION'S NEW GENIUSES

A new phase of Buchanan literature has been discovered in B. H. S. The "Carlisle-Rosie Epics" have been initiated. These Epics are a series of sketches that have been written and presented by Vivian Carlisle and Ralph Rosenberg in Mrs. Dunbar's English class. Their efforts have been appreciated that they contemplate continuing them in writing.

A Composite of Freshman Class

No matter when or where we may go, we are constantly taking notice of some striking feature of individuals whom we admire or even envy on that account. Remarks like these are very common! "What a beautiful blonde!" or "Hasn't he the loveliest hair!" and "She has a pleasing manner and a pleasant smile. You can't help but like her." So how would this be for a perfect freshman girl?

The perfect freshman girl should have the height and weight of Lorraine Morley, hair like Bonnie June Chain's, Arlis Fairman's eyes, a complexion as clear and smooth as that of Betty Smith's, Ellen Vander Ven's pretty teeth, Betty Smith's smile, Doris Allee's lips, Hermina Sult's nose, Lorraine Morley's voice, Marjorie Meuleman's walk, Helen Mary Sach's courtesy, Marjorie Bowman's ambition, and Wand Wood's unaffected manner.

A perfect girl must be coupled with a handsome young man. Here he is. He should have the height and weight of Jack Hess, hair like Leon Barber's, eyes like those of Jack Ednie, George Fitch's nose, Herbert Swartz's complexion, Jack Hess's mouth and smile, Robert Meuleman's teeth, Dick Habicht's voice, Jack Hess's walk, Jack Leggett's courtesy, and Kenneth Hermann's unaffected manner.

ARE YOU PLANNING YOUR SPRING CLOTHES

Once there was a woman Who wouldn't plan her clothes, And when the spring time came around, She had a stack of hose That seldom matched her coat or gown, Her hat was much too plain To suit her dinner costume, And it gave her friend a pain To see how all her lovely things Just wouldn't go together. No matter how she wore them In any kind of weather.

The moral? It's an old one Dating from the fall of man, "The women that men fall for, Are the women who can plan."

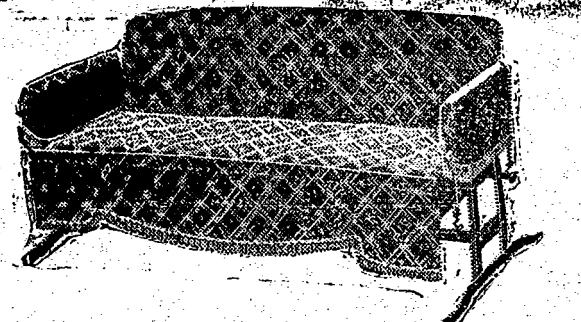

Graduated From Harvard Sir George Downing, who built and after whom London's famous street is named, was Harvard college's second graduate in its first graduating class in 1642.

The Golden Text (I John 5:25), is: "Verily, verily, I say unto you, the hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God: and they that hear shall live."
Among the bible citations is this passage (I Cor. 15:19,20): "If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable. But now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the first fruits of them that slept."

Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 427): "If man is never to overcome death, why do the Scriptures say, 'The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death?' The tenor of the Word shows that we shall obtain the victory over death in proportion as we overcome sin."

Ed. Dept. Offers Resort Training

Buchanan Young People May Register for Course on April 25-26

Every year hundreds of young people come from other states to work in Michigan resorts, while many Michigan youths go without work. In order that Michigan young people may have training for and find work in the resorts, a special short course, to give specific training in this field, is to be offered in Dowagiac High School from May 9 to June 4. Anyone finishing this course may be almost certain of securing work for the summer.

The course is being sponsored by the State Department of Public Instruction and the Dowagiac Public Schools. Mr. Proux, Director of the Hotel Management Course at Michigan State College and several prominent resort owners are acting in an advisory capacity in setting up the courses.

There will be two types of courses offered; one for students now in high school and one for young people out of school.

Some of the regulations set up by the committee are as follows:

1. Minimum age requirement—sixteen years.
2. Physical Examination and Health Certificates for all students.
3. Administration of Vocational Aptitude and interest tests.
4. All students must furnish good recommendations.
5. The area to be served will be largely Berrien, Cass, and Van Buren Counties.
6. Only Michigan residents will be eligible to take the courses.
7. A small registration fee will be charged.
8. All students must be approved by the Personnel Committee consisting of Frank Nevins, Joe Bachmans, Kosalind Mentzer, Margaret Switzer, and Ed Meier.
9. The classes for high school students will be held from 8:30 to 5:30.
10. The classes for the out of school youth will be held from 1 to 5.
11. The courses will run from May 9 to June 4.
12. Registration days will be on Monday, April 25 and Tuesday, April 26 from 3:30 to 5:30 p. m. Those who cannot come on these days should write in for special registration time.

There will be two distinct types of training given. One course will train for waiting on tables, the other course will train for housekeeping work.

The courses will include a unit on Personality. The personality traits which are especially desirable for this type of work will be outlined, and students will be encouraged to do a self analysis so that they will know in what traits they excel and where they need to work to improve.

Special training in definite technique of waitress and housekeeping duties will be included in the course. The practical side of the work will be emphasized at all times and demonstration and laboratory work will accompany the more formal study. Specialists in different fields will speak to the group at various times during the course. Those who will include a resort owner, nurse, beauty operator, domestic economics specialists, etc.

A short unit in the history and geography of Michigan will be studied as a preparation for directing tourists and giving information about points of interest in Michigan. The theme of this unit will be "Sell Michigan!"

The staff in charge of these courses will be people with practical experience who are chosen with the approval of the Department of Public Instruction.

Those interested in securing more information should write Supt. Carl Horn at Dowagiac. The number that will be permitted to take the courses will be limited to approximately 25 in each course.

Just Another April Fool

March weather was a honey, with balmy days and clear.

The summer seemed approaching fast, to fill our hearts with cheer.

The fruit buds started swelling, the sap began to flow.

The orchardists got out their tanks, a spraying they must go. But when the month of April, around the corner came,

We had to chance our mind a bit. Things didn't seem the same, The air was growing chilly, and when the fifth had come,

We saw full half an inch of ice, and that was going some.

The sixth we had a blizzard that cluttered up the roads,

As we were thinking we would soon, be seeing snakes and toads.

With mercury hitting twenty, the wind seemed mighty cold.

We would have disbelieved the truth, no doubt, had we been told.

The seventh day was warmer, the wind kept blowing hard.

Some spots of good old earth again, was showing in the yard.

With mercury at forty, the drifts began to shrink.

The weather changed again at night, it caught a cold I think.

It was a bad northeaster, it rained all night I guess,

And froze on every thing it touched, it surely was a mess.

With half the fruit crop vanished, the harvest may be light.

The thining process was complete and happened over night.

Next day it rained and sleeted, our fuel pile got low,

The night was wild as ever, and ended up with snow.

To many it was getting to be a cause for fears,

It was the worst that Michigan, had seen in eighteen years.

The ninth brought quite a respite, old sol appeared again,

And brought a hallelujah to troubled hearts of men.

The drifted roads were opened, the kiddies went to school,

Good naturedly we called it, just another April Fool.

By Gillman E. Annin.

In the evening there will be boxing contests, the Golden Gloves "Congress of Champions."

On Wednesday is featured the Queens' dinner and Coronation ball. The Queen will be crowned by some celebrity before thousands of persons at the Shadowland ballroom.

Sunday, May 15, there will be appropriate services in all churches, and in the afternoon there will be an airplane and motorcycle show at the twin city airport.

A strange scene for the former capital of Austria is presented by posters carrying the profile of Chancellor Adolf Hitler, as the Nazi organization takes over the government. Wonder what thoughts pass through the minds of this elderly trio.

Alice Tourje Observes 89th Birthday in Calif.
A number of former Buchanan ladies now living in southern California met in Glendale on April 11 at the home of E. C. Tourje to assist his mother, Mrs. Alice Tourje, celebrate her 89th birthday.

Present were Mrs. Dixon McLaughlin (Theoda Treat), Mrs. Ralph Cunningham (Bernice Hayes), Mrs. Eva Williams (Burde), and her daughter, Mrs. Elsie Williams and Mrs. Alma Wright (Roe), Miss Alice Roe, a sister of Mrs. Wright, now living in Glendale, was unable to be present on account of illness.

Among the interesting old time themes discussed was the old school when Mrs. Tourje then Miss Alice Weaver, taught the eighth grade and had Mrs. Wright and Miss Roe for pupils.

In spite of her many years, Mrs. Tourje is in excellent health and enjoyed the society of her friends. All those mentioned live within a radius of ten miles. There was much speculation among the ladies present on the possible damage done by the blizzard on their friends back east, all hoping that it was not serious.

Mrs. Tourje, who was born at Mattawan, Mich., and came with her parents when an infant to the Bend of the River, spent most of her life as a resident of Buchanan, where her father, Philander Weaver, was one of the pioneer merchants and builder of the three-story buildings on the south side of Front street.

Mrs. Tourje lived with her sisters, Miss Helen Weaver and Mrs. Ida Emerson at 301 South Oak street, until the death of Mrs. Emerson. She then moved to Glendale, where her friends wish her many more years of health and happiness.
