Mothers Day, 1938

Recurring years on Mother's day 'This verse goes winging on its way'

Written alone for one whose eyes shall read it under alien skies. With no resource of thought inspired—

Not to amaze or be admired, Only to phrase the message o'er— Thanks for a year, may there be more!

Bell-Ringing Cat

Jiggers, "tiger cat" belonging to Mrs. Ida Burgoyne, is probably the only bell-ringing cat in Michigan and he rings bells only for his own purpose, which is to get in doors. About six months ago Jiggers observed that the ringing of the front doorbell was always followed by the opening of the door. One cold morning when there was no response to his plaintive calls, he reared up and gave the bell a flip with his paw. It opened. And he's been doing it every since.

Business-Getting Through Good Manners

Recently a merchant called us in his store. "Maybe this is a story," he said. "A woman from a city called in my place this week and did some trading. When she had finished she said 'This is the first time I ever traded in Buchanan and it's been a pleasure.' I first tried—(another city) but it seemed that they hardly cared to take the trouble to wait on me. But everywhere I've been in this town they have treated me as though they appreciated my business."

Bethany Class Honors Teacher

Atty. A. A. Worthington, Age 81, Has Led Class 39 Years

Rev. O. R. Grattan, St. Joseph, was the speaker at the annual Bethany birthday party for Atty. A. A. Worthington Friday evening, honoring his 81st birthday. G. H. Orniston of Benton Harbor also talked and Mrs. Orniston was the guest soloist. Mrs. Claude Jennings read an original poem. Miss Edna Lauver gave a reading and a piano solo. John Hess closed the program with a comic solo.

The presentation of a beautiful plant was made by E. H. Orniston, with a response by Atty. Worthington.

The Bethany class of the Methodist church, perhaps the senior class of the city in continuous activity, celebrated another of Uncle Bert Worthington's birthdays Friday evening, with Rev. Grattan of St. Joseph as the speaker.

One of the absent guests was Mrs. M. Redden, who was not able to attend. She taught the class ten years, preceding Worthington's accession, from about 1899 to 1899. Together the two represent nearly fifty years of class leadership. The only other teacher, save for a few periods of brief substitution, was Dr. LeRoy Dodd, who organized the class. It was then only a group of young people of about high school age. Dodd formed the class about 1885. When he became superintendent of the Sunday school in 1889, Mrs. Redden took charge, leading the class ten years. During this time many of the boys and girls grew up and married but the class did not graduate its members.

In 1899 Mrs. Redden was obliged to relinquish the teaching on account of increased work at home. She went to see Atty. Worthington to persuade him to take the class over. At first the idea was not agreeable.

"I don't know enough about the Bible," he protested. "Some one might ask me questions I could not answer."

"But when you try a law case, you don't necessarily have to know all of the law," Mrs. Redden said. "You look up what you need to know. You just go head and teach that class each Sunday as though you were working up a new law case every Sunday."

Put that way, the idea appealed. So Atty. Worthington tried the case before the class the next Sunday and he has been retrying it, with the exception of one long enforced vacation, every since.

Now he is 81 years old, having attained that mark Sunday, May 1. His predecessor, Mrs. Redden also had a milestone in the past week, having been 89 on April 29. The leadership of the two together represents 49 of the 53 years since the class was organized.

MRS. DAISY HEATH State Supervisor of Royal Neighbors of America

Same Old Story—Undone by Woman

Accurate Observation of Mrs. Joe Howard Undoing of Glenn Ross

The calm and cool observation of a woman and the efficiency of the Michigan state police combined made short work of the capture of Glenn H. Ross, R. R. 2, Kalamazoo, following his robbery of the Ira Howard Home Grocery, Fulton street, at 11:30 a. m. Tuesday.

Ross parked his car near the grocery, pointed west, and entered, asking Mrs. Joe Howard if she could change a $5 bill. She replied that she would see and opened the cash drawer. Ross demanded therewith that she give him the contents of the drawer.

"You're crazy," she answered, hardly believing him. But Ross advanced with doubled fists and she stepped back. He grabbed $15 from the drawer and ran, jumping in his car and racing down Portage street.

Dell Jordan, Blind 54 Years, Rediscovers His Lost Horizons

Radio, Phonograph and Braille Give Sightless Access to the World Again

Accepting the old definition of success as "doing the best you can with what you've got," we would, speaking off hand, place Dell Jordan of South Days avenue easily one of the most successful men of Buchanan.

Jordan is to all appearances happy and contented and mentally busy at the age of 75 years, although 56 of those years have been spent in blindness. It's not much use to explain the matter by philosophizing so we'll come down to cases. Last week he walked into his little home, shouting an announcement of our coming. He was lying on the bunk in a rear room, his fingers playing along the raised figures of a page of Braille.

"What are you reading?" we asked. "Huckleberry Finn," he answered. "I read the book years ago when I was a kid, and I wanted to read it over so I went to the Chicago Public Library. They have a great collection of Braille books and the government carries the books for the blind without postage. How fast can I read? About a third as fast as the average reader with eyes. But come in here and I'll show you something."

He rose from his pallet and advanced, holding both hands in front of him but quite certain of his direction, and conducted us through a door into the front room. There was a phonograph in an enclosed case. He opened the lid on the case and inscribed on the inner side were the words: "Property of the Congressional Library."

"I heard about these phonographs about a year ago," Jordan said, "and recently I wrote to inquire. I found I could get one for an indefinite time, the only requirement being that I pay the express charges, amounting to 90 cents. The government has records distributed in convenient centers over the country and they are loaned without charge and sent postpaid. I got these from Saginaw. This record here will play fifteen minutes. It is part of a set which gives complete Dicken's 'Tale of Two Cities.' Then I have also this new book 'Lost Horizons,' from which the movie is taken. I have also a set of records containing selected detective stories."

In the case of Jordan, a wise public aid has contributed to self-help. Losing his sight shortly after the age of 20 years, he decided, after the first shock of becoming blind had subsided, to go to school. He went to a state school at Lansing and learned broom making. Returning in two years to Buchanan he set up a broom shop. He had no money, but he had been a member of the fire department and his former comrades gave a lawn social to raise funds to buy his necessary equipment. He was able to make 18 brooms daily, netting $1 per dozen or about $1.50 per day. The average wage for common labor was then $1.25 per day (about 1890). A good mechanic made $1.50 per day and accept laborer received $2.00 per day. So all in all Jordan was doing quite well.

He economized and built a small frame building adjoining the building now housing the Glenn E. Smith clothing store on the west. In a short time he had the building paid for. He had placed his broom shop in the back end and in the front he had a candy and tobacco business. The latter business expanded so rapidly that he soon dropped the broom making. For 25 years he stayed in business, developing a large tobacco business.

He usually had a boy helping him, but he was able to care for the business himself. He could make change in both silver and bills without help. The bills he managed by folding a number in a role and memorizing their location in the roll.

After he moved his building to the present location on Days avenue (his present home) to make way for the present Hollywood theatre building he leased the room now occupied by the Ogdin Jewelry and started up in the confectionary business in a large way. But at this time he became a convert of the "Russel-

"lites" and gave up his business because of the announcement by the organization that the end of the world was approaching.

It has always been a trait of Jordan: that he has always been a deeply religious man and has governed his life in strict accordance with his creed. When he became a Russellite he quit the sale of tobacco because that sect condemned its use.

When he quit his store in 1914, after 25 years, he went to the Saginaw school for the blind for four years, studying a number of branches. Coming back to Buchanan in 1918, he has since been able to live on the income of his residence properties. Although he has kindly and thoughtful relatives, he asks them for practically nothing. He manages his own business and lives on its income.

He has in the course of his life branched out twice in the manufacture of his own inventions, once making and selling a roof enamel, and later developing a self rising biscuit flour which he manufactured in partnership with John Morris. The flour, appearing under the name "Uno," predated "Bisquick" and other self-rising flours now on the market. Jordan says that he was obliged to quit its manufacture because Morris' became ill and he was unable to proceed without his assistance in promotion. Just after he quit making it a Minneapolis miller, representing a firm now engaged in making a nationally known self-rising flour, came to Buchanan to buy the recipe. When he learned that its manufacture had suspended, he returned to Minneapolis and engaged in making a product very similar.

An element in Jordan's success has been a remarkably cheerful and even-tempered attitude toward life. None of his friends or relatives ever saw him in a black mood.

Another element is his implicit faith in his chosen creed. Others may disagree or consider it peculiar, but he accepts it and that acceptance decides many things for him.

Co-operating with the federal postoffice department in its program to more widely popularize the use of the air mail service through the observance of Air Mail week, May 15 to May 21, Postmaster Glenn Haslett plans to have designed a special rubber stamp emblem carrying the slogan "Buchanan, Boyhood home of Jack (Sky) Knight, Pioneer of night air mail flying."

The stamp will require special art work. It will be used to stamp all outgoing mail at the Buchanan post office during air mail week.

To Treat Streets with Road Oil

Pursuant to action of the city commission in ordering road oil for street use this summer an order was placed the first of the week by City Clerk Harry Post and it is expected that a consignment will arrive for the first treatment by the first of next week. The street committee made a test of the oil preparation instead of chloride on North Portage last summer and found it satisfactory. An order for 20,000 gallons at $9.511 per gallon was placed.

Maroons Lose to Niles in Track

Stevens Is High with Places in Four Events

By JOHN SCHULTZ

Stepping out in the final four events to break a 36 point deadlock, Coach Chet Davidson's Niles high tracksters defeated an exceptionally fine crew of Buchanan cinder artists Friday afternoon at Plym park by a 61 to 43 count.

The Bucks, paced by their star performer, Earl Stevens, made a dog-fight affair of the meet through the first eight events, but from then on the Niles speed merchants took over, and by winning the 220 yard dash, half mile, broad jump, and relay pulled away to a sizeable margin.

Lec Curtis, ace dashman for Niles, again topped the Niles performers winning both the century and the 220 yard dash as well as running the first leg in the relay. In leading Coach Johnny Miller's stars Stevens placed first in the high jump and 120 high hurdles, second in the broad jump, and third in the 220 yard dash. In the high jump he won easily by clearing 5 feet 7 inches. He sped over the high hurdles in 17 seconds flat.

The race that had the fans on edge from start to finish was the 440 yard dash. Hamilton led all the way until the home stretch when Shook, Niles quarter miler, came up from behind to draw a hair line decision.

The half mile seemed to be a repetition of the quarter mile race. Pugh of Niles led most of the way then Lenke, a new find, uncovered by Coach Davidson, closed in and took the lead. Letter soon took it upon himself to close the gap left by Lenke and a three man race resulted. Lenke finished first and was followed closely by Letter and Pugh.

Other Niles firsts were in the mile, broad jump, and a tie for first in the pole vault.

Doak, shot put sensation, won this event with a toss of 43 feet 5 inches.

Lyons, Bucks ace hurdler, stepped over the low hurdles in a very good time of 25.7.

Trapp of Buchanan and Saratore of Niles battled it out in the pole vault. It ended in a tie. They both cleared 9 feet 6 inches.

Niles slammed the mile run winning all places.

Summary of events: 100 yard dash—Won by Curtis (N); Trapp (B) second; Camp (N) third. Time, :10.55.

120 yard High Hurdles—Won by Stevens (B); Cook (N) second; Beck (B) third. Time :17.

Mile Run—Won by Petro (N); Petruska (N) second; Snyder (N) third. Time, 4:57.8.

Shot Put—Won by Doak (B); Saratore (N) second; Miller (N) third. Distance, 43 feet 5 inches.

220 yard Low Hurdles—Won by Lyons (B); Trapp (B) second; Kraft (N) third. Time, :25.7.

Pole Vault—Trapp (B) and Saratore (N) tied for first; Letter (B) third. Height, 9 feet 6 inches.

440 Yard Dash—Won by Shook (N); Hamilton (B) second; Mansfield (N) third. Time, :55.7.

High Jump—Won by Stevens (B); Jeffries (N) second; Beck (B) third. Height, 5 feet 7 inches.

Two Injured When Car Crashes Tree

Hermira Sult and Jack Sult, children of Mr. and Mrs. Sult, incurred painful but not serious injuries when the light truck which the latter was driving left the road and crashed into a tree at the curve on Terre Coupe road opposite the Ewing home early Monday morning.

They were enroute on an early field trip by a high school class to Clear Lake. Having gone out to the Larry Smith home first, they were hurrying to make their appointment. The rear wheels of the truck skidded in loose gravel at the curve. Sult lost control and the car hit a maple tree. Both young people were thrown violently forward, Miss Sult incurring a fractured jaw and numerous cuts and bruises and Jack Sult incurring a bad head cut which required 12 stitches and other lesser injuries. They were taken to Pawaing hospital. Jack Sult had his cuts treated and was released, but Miss Sult is still at the hospital.

Three hits and a walk gave the F. F. A. a tie in the sixth inning.

The game is to be played off at a later date.

The women of the faculty gave the men of the faculty their support and kept them pepped up with lemonade.

The faculty team saw such names as J. Miller pitching, C. Langer catching, R. Stevens 1b, J. Elbers 2b, H. Stark 3b, C. Carter ss, R. Miller cf, P. J. Moore lf, E. Kizer of, and J. Hyink in rf.

You are the molders of men and destinies. You are America's chief apostles of peace among nations. Yours is a guiding influence for better citizenship, for decency, for law and order, for religion, for culture, for progress. Your courage, your unselfishness, and your ideals, give the nation its broadest outlook and its highest uplook. Yet, to your sons and daughters you are just "Mother"—the name that shines above all other names. Nothing we can say or do is half enough to express our love and reverence for you.

Township Officers Guide Coming Out

800 Page Publication to be Issued by State. The department of state will shortly start distribution of an 800 page publication to every township officer in the state, in accordance with an act of the 1937 legislature. The book was prepared for the guidance of all township officers, in the performance of their official duties. It contains excerpts from all laws bearing on townships and township officials; the last previous compilation was issued in 1926, since when many changes have been made. There are some 190 forms used by township officers included in the book, together with a copy of the state constitution. Distribution will be made by Leon D. Case, secretary of state, through county clerks. Copies will be furnished to township clerks, treasurers, supervisors and qualified justices of the peace. There are 1,268 townships in Michigan, and as many as four justices of the peace in each township. This requirement, together with those for members of the legislature, state officials, the state law library and other official needs, will mean printing of about 8,000 copies of the guide. Orders for the book have accumulated from attorneys and other public sources. The book will sell for $1.50 to the public, on written application accompanied by remittance. First copies will come from the press late this week. General distribution will take place as rapidly as possible.

Upside Down Dam Helps Curb Floods. View of the massive steel gates installed by the Westinghouse Electric company near Pittsburgh, Pa., to prevent floods from entering and damaging its plants during the frequent high waters in the rivers converging in the Pittsburgh district. When lowered into place, these gates cause the water to back up behind them. The three giant pumps force the water through the intakes in lower left, where it is guided around the flood wall and out into Turtle creek, in background, over a long spillway.

News of Buchanan Schools

Collected and Edited By Members of the Journalism Class

Editorial

After the numerous white blankets of snow have been cleared away from the high school grounds, we see a green blanket of grass. The lawnmowers have already started cutting the grass, and window boxes have been placed on the window sills with plants set in them to make our school more attractive. In order to keep our school as attractive as we can we must use the sidewalks and not the lawn for our path to school. As there are quite a number of students who come to school we must all cooperate and keep each other from marring the beauty of our lawn. Besides our school lawn, we must also avoid walking on the private lawns we pass as we come to school.

SCOOPS

The dramatics class has started the work of make-up. With the nickel each student brought, Miss MacNeil sent away for a make-up kit.

The committees for the junior-senior prom have been chosen. They are already planning the big dance.

The favorite pastime of the seventh grade boys in fifth hour is to read those little comic magazines. Mr. Elbers gathered quite a pile of them last week.

All the pupils are leaving their coats at home this fine weather. Mary Hamilton is back in school. She is wearing dark glasses.

Seniors Consider Plans For Skip Day

The senior class held a class meeting during home room, Tuesday, April 27. It was announced by the president that the cards and invitations were here but would not be handed out until everyone had paid for his.

Mrs. Dumar read letters received from different places that the senior class would visit on "Skip Day." As the WGN broadcasting studio will not allow anyone to enter and listen to a program, and the Chicago Tribune paper office will not allow anyone to go through the press rooms until two o'clock, it was decided to go to the Art Institute in the morning. Another group will make a tour of the Board of Trade of the Federal Reserve Bank. In the afternoon some will take in a stage play, some the White Sox ball game and some will go shopping. The class will meet at the depot at night.

Grade News

Grade 1, Miss Connell
We have fifteen names on the dental honor roll. Richard Virgil's and Donald Matthew's names have been added recently. We are remembering, "Wynken, Blynken and Nod," in language class. Mrs. Lamb weighed the girls and boys in our room last week. Nearly every one had gained a few pounds since they were weighed last time.

Grade 2, Miss Pelhank
We are finishing our milk unit. A farm has been constructed. During May there will be a unit on Japan.

Grade 2, Mrs. Helm
Juanita Swain's name has been added to the Dental Honor Roll. Keith Borst recited some poems for Miss Connell's first grade.

Grade 3, Miss Quickel
The pupils are making original poetry books.

Grade 5, Miss Spear
We are studying Hawaii in geography and Thursday Miss Quickel, who has taught in the Hawaiian schools, talked to us about the people, their dress and customs. We are correlating our work with reading and Art. We have read stories of Hawaii. In Art we are making a picture to be used in our Art exhibit.

Grade 5, Miss Ekstrom
A group of famous pictures will be studied in this room. The first pictures studied are a group of peasant paintings of country life by the French painter, Jean Francois Millet. In addition to the study of an artist and his work the children will paint in water colors a group of numbers suggested by the theme of the picture. A group of new officers has been appointed for the next six weeks. Hilmer Coultas is captain; Edna Hattenback and Betty Dokey, Lieutenants; Dorothy Weaver and Dorothy Rouse, yard squad. Multiplication of fractions was introduced this week. When Jean Best leaves school Friday to move to Three Oaks with her parents, the grade will lose one of its best students. Jean came to Buchanan last fall. She has enjoyed her brief stay here in our school. She told the class that our school is very attractive. She likes the citizenship organization very much. Miss Ekstrom and the children are indeed sorry to have her leave.

Grade 6, Miss Reams
The following children have neither been absent nor tardy: Bob Borst, Betty Donley, Evelyn Johnson, Maurice Nelson, Raymond Pazder, Jean Phiscator, and Severy Weaver.

An outstanding article which was submitted for our school paper appeared in the literary section. It was written by June Johnston, who is in the sixth grade. The Seashore
A deep rich blue covered the ocean and made it more beautiful than it really was. Up and down and up and down the waves splashed, in and out with the tide and hugging the shore; leaving tiny shimmering seashells on the beach. For miles and miles the white sand lay glittering in the summer sunshine. The little seashells laying in their haven of rest and peace, safe from the grip of the dark blue ocean, looked like tiny bits of gold dust dropped from the sky.

A Comparison

Pupil—"Did you ever read, Aesop's Fables?"
Parent—"Yes, that was the book in which animals talked."

Pupil—"Do you think these stories can still be applied today?"
Parent—"The application is the same, but now money does the talking."

Where Caribou Thrive
Protected from natural and human enemies, caribou thrive in northern regions, for their long, sharp hooves can tear through snow and ice to reach vegetation. Magnificent swimmers, they cross many streams and lakes in their periodic migrations, breasting currents with their antlers well above water. Though not as fast in the water as commonly believed, they do swim five or six miles an hour.

How to Economize

In Housecleaning

Brains can defeat that annual blot on pleasant spring memories, housecleaning.
Time, energy and money can be saved from the seven rules laid down by Julia Pond and Helen Noyes, home management specialists at Michigan State College. The rules call for a plan for cleaning, to invest in suitable equipment, have a supply of essential cleaning materials, find easiest and quickest ways to do the jobs, have plenty of convenient storage space, eliminate dust collectors and get cooperation to keep the house attractive.

Soft water should be used, or if it is not available then some softener, ammonia or tri-sodium phosphate. Mild soap saves the hands. Whiting, tripoli powder or powdered pumice are best for scouring, using with any one of them a grease solvent that is non-explosive.

Grimy walls can be cleaned. The start recommended is to brush walls up and down and also crosswise to remove loose dirt; begin washing at the bottom to prevent streaks, wash a small area at a time and rinse before the surface dries. A powdered glue solution is suggested for wall washing. This is made by dissolving a quarter cup of powdered glue in three cups of hot water and then add to three quarts of tepid water. This requires no rinsing but should be replaced when it becomes dirty.
"Cleanliness in a home is necessary for sanitation, and for physical comfort and mental contentment. Yet few like the turmoil of a month of upset twice a year displayed by some housekeepers," the two specialists agree in pointing ways to easier home management. Clean brooms and brushes and frequent cleaning of the carpet sweeper and vacuum cleaner aid in the process.

Hastings Posts Laws on Primary Filings

The law citing requirements for primary election petitions has been posted at the courthouse by County Clerk A. J. Hastings. The law requires that petitions for candidates who seek to place their names on the ballots at the primary election in September, "must contain the signatures of registered and qualified voters of Berrien county, to the number of not less than one per cent nor more than four per cent of the votes cast in the county for secretary of state at the last preceding November election," the notice says.
Berrien county's vote for secretary of state in November, 1936, was 18,687 Democratic, and 16,464 Republicans.

How Old Are You Inside?
Never mind how many wrinkles Father Time has painted in your face. Never mind how many gray hairs he has put on your head. The important thing isn't how old you are on the outside, but how old you are on the inside. A man's real age is determined by the youthfulness of his spirit! Benjamin Franklin helped write the American Constitution at eighty. Tintoretto painted his famous "Paradise," a canvas 74 by 30 feet, when he was seventy-four. Goethe completed "Faust" at eighty. As long as we are alert and vital in spirit we are not old. As long as we are joyously looking forward and enthusiastically starting new things we are still young. Stay young on the inside and forget your birthdays!—The Silver Lining.

HERE, sir, is the bright particular star of the automotive year: a car to make you proud and happy — you can prove that anywhere on the highway these bright May days.

In it, you can know luxury in your travels and still not over-strain your budget!

Fact is, you feel like a million just sitting in this Buick!

And you know you're commanding the "tops" in power the first time you give its eager DYNAFLASH engine the gun!

At the wheel you feel the buoyant steadiness that is TORQUE-FREE SPRINGING's special gift to motoring—the firm, fleet roadability of a car that's beautifully poised in all its going.

There's no "hop" on this fast one. It doesn't "gallop" or bounce or pitch.

Its soft stout coiled steel springs let the wheels follow the road—rise to the swells, dip to the hollows—yet pass none of that lively up-and-down on to the body.

You travel level as a straightedge, thrill to turbine-smooth power that's quick as lightning—know a kind of travel-comfort that neither road nor weather mars. Yet what are the facts on costs?

This great straight-eight actually costs less than some sixes! Price almost any other car, and by the time you've added in the extra values included in Buick's figures, you've paid for the matchless performance only Buick can give you!

So don't sit idly wishing for a star! Reach up—get this one! We're ready to show you any day it costs less than you think.

"Better buy Buick!"

"I couldn't keep house without a telephone"

WHAT a convenience sometimes to be able to shop by 'phone! No need to "drop everything" and go out on particularly busy days—or in bad weather.

How nice—and how important—to be in touch with the world even when you're home alone! The pleasant chat with the ...end you don't have time to visit ... the last-minute arrangements for spontaneous get-togethers, bridge games, movie parties and general good times with people you like—all these are made possible by your telephone.

No wonder so many women say: "I couldn't keep house without a telephone!" In so many practical ways this modern servant pays its own small salary—and for good measure adds much to the joy of living.

Preaches Sermon For Anniversary

A friend sends us the following interesting clipping concerning Rev. W. Mayland Jones, a former pastor of the Methodist church here.

Sunday, May 1, is to be a red letter day at the Methodist church in this city as on that day an unusual event is to be celebrated.

The pastor, the Rev. W. Mayland Jones, has been in the ministry in Michigan for twenty-five years, the first Sunday in May marking the anniversary of his first sermon in this state.

He had arrived in St. Charles, Mich., on May 3 and preached his first sermon there on Sunday, May 4, 1913. In October, 1916, he was moved to Fairgrove where, during his pastorate, the church was enlarged and a basement constructed. In 1918, Rev. Jones was transferred from the Detroit Conference and assigned to the First Methodist church at Jackson as assistant minister, under Dr. Frederick Spence.

In 1921, he was sent to Elsie where a church house, costing $7,500.00, was built to serve the social needs of the community. Other pastorates served by Rev. Jones were Buchanan in 1924; Mt. Hope Methodist church, Lansing, in 1926, where the church was rebuilt at a cost of $50,000.00. In 1929 he was sent to Ludington where he remained until 1934, serving here for the past four years. Members of the Methodist church and congregation will join with Rev. Jones in making Sunday May 1, a memorable day and rejoice with him in the success of his twenty-five years in the Christian ministry.

Spider Monkeys Are Thin
Spider monkeys get their name because they look thin and spidery, seem to be all legs and tails. Most spider monkeys have no thumbs, use their paws only as hooks while climbing. The glory of the spider monkey lies in its tail. In zoos, spider monkeys stretch their tails out between the bars to pick up peanuts lying on the ground that they cannot reach or pick up with their fingers. Brazil is the native home of spider monkeys.

Ship 45 at County Sea Scout Meeting

Paul Martin, V. L. Coonfare and S. M. Martin represented Ship 45 at the cooperative dinner and round table discussion held at Saint Joseph, Saturday night.

National Sea Scout Director, Thomas Keane, of New York City, was the guest of honor and principal speaker. He emphasized the fact that a Sea Scout is a gentleman. That, and the salute to God and then to the flag as a sea Scout boards a ship is a tradition dating back before the birth of Christ. This tradition has been brought to us by the way of the sea. He inspired the sea scouts of this area very much and gave them the desire to sail on towards the horizon; which is being a gentleman and always ready to serve God and his community.

Feature Drum, Bugle Contest at Flower Fete

A drum and bugle corps contest featuring crack organizations from two states and drills by the internationally known Jackson Zouaves will attract thousands of persons to Filstrup Field in the evening following the giant Blossom parade on Saturday, May 14th.

The parade itself will have 60 floats and more than 20 bands with a membership of 1,200 musicians headed by the Northwestern University Band of 100 members.

Listed in the drum and bugle contest are units from Royal Oak, Dearborn, Lansing, Ecorse, Muskegon, South Haven, Flint and Adrian in Michigan, and Mishawaka and South Bend in Indiana.

The Adrian Ladies' Corps of 24 members were national champions in 1936 and were state champions in 1935, 1936 and 1937.

The Jackson Zouaves are one of the most colorful drill units in the world today. They have carried off honors in practically every veterans parade within recent years, and were the boast of Europe when they paraded in various cities there. The Zouaves will be a feature of the drum and bugle contest.

In order to keep in shape this organization drills three times each week throughout the year, and its exhibition of formations is the talk of every parade.

Blossom Week from May 7 to 15 is chock full of events. For the artist there are the photo salon at the Hotel Whitcomb and display of color work at the Y. W. C. A. of Vaughn Shoemaker, Chicago Daily News cartoonist, who is now in Europe sketching the political situation.

Other features are Rubinov and his $100,000 violin on Monday night, Farmers' Day and boxing contests on Tuesday, the Queens' ball and coronation Wednesday, the juvenile parade and ball Thursday, the pet parade and mardi gras parade with huge rubber grotesques on Friday.

Indiana "Hoosier State" Indiana is known as the "Hoosier" state.
