Before the Battle

I wander in a deepening haze
Through arduous pre-election days
When sober people wildly glare
And kindly persons rip and swear.
What is it that they eat or drink
That makes them think the things
they think?

What makes a guy a Democrat—
Is it the way he ears his hat?
Or let me ask another one—
What makes a guy Republican?
You cannot tell them when you meet

In kindly converse on the street
Unless you tread upon their toes
When 'biff! biff! bang! the battle goes!

I feel it in my inmost heart
That each should try to look the part

And save me injuries and aches
That follow innocent mistakes.
I only pray that I can last Until election day is past
When we can cease this cruel war
And love our neighbors as of yore.
—W. C. H.

But Are There Any Pitchers?

The book title of the month—or of the year as far as we are concerned—is that of a recent accession to the school library noted in the Microphone—"Clothes Off and On the Stage."

The School World

Cherry Helm of Buchanan is a member of the Women's Glee Club
of Western State Teachers College which is directed by Mrs. Dorothea Sage Snyder. This group of fifty women singers presents many concerts during the year, appearing before campus groups, Kalamazoo organizations, High Schools and club organizations of Southwestern Michigan. Each year they give a home concert which features in addition to a program of fine
music, a costume skit built around the music of some particular country. Miss Helm is enrolled as a sophomore in the Music department and is a graduate of Buchanan High School.

Mr. and Mrs. George Deming
and Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Williams of South Bend attended the Santa Clara-Michigan State football game at East Lansing Saturday,
and visited the former's son, Sidney Deming, a student at East Lansing.

Marguerite Guild of Niles Entertained Here

The Jeannette Stevenson Guild
of the Presbyterian church was host here Tuesday evening at a potluck supper and program in the local church. The Niles organization furnished the program.

Observes Birthday
Building Porch

Albert J. (Ab) Glover observed
a hale and hearty 80th birthday
Tuesday by building a back porch
at the home of Henry Smith.

Mrs. Fred Welch will leave Saturday for Chicago to care for
Mr. Welch's mother, who is to undergo a serious operation at a hospital.

Mrs. Harold Fredrickson and Mrs. Jayne Hotchkiss left yesterday to spend the remainder of the week in Chicago.

Will Provide
18,000 Man HoursTo Build New Bridge at End
Clark Street; New South
Entrance Cemetery

Final approval on the Athletic Park and Oak Ridge cemetery projects has been received by the city
from the national WPA authorities and part of the work may be done this year, according to city
officials, the total projects calling for 18,290 man hours.

The Athletic Park project calls for a new bridge over the mill race
at the end of Clark street, affording an additional entrance that should reduce traffic hazards. It also provides for a drive around south and west of the gridiron and clearing a parking space south of the gridiron. All bushes and small trees are to be grubbed out along the creek. It is expected that the work will greatly improve the appearance as well as the convenience of the park.

The cemetery project calls for a new south entrance west of the present one, with a new road west of the Legion lot. This road will connect with old roads to the north and there will also be a new connection with the main drive from the south. A number of knolls and surface inequalities will be smoothed off in the new cemetery to make that part ready for sale of lots.

The WPA completed the brick relaying on all streets Tuesday
and is now employed temporarily
in general street work.

Henry Krieger

Dies at 47 Years

Funeral services were held for Henry F. Krieger, 47, at his home in the Madron Lake district at 2
p. m. Tuesday, Nov. 1, with Rev.
C. A. Sanders in charge and burial was made in Oak Ridge cemetery.

Pall bearers were Herman Ott,
William Lorrain, Gordon Gippi, Benny Metzgar, Oscar Olson, and Rudolph Taffs.

He died suddenly at his home
at 10:30 p. m. Saturday, shortly after he had returned from Michigan City, where he had been under observation in the Warren Clinic. He had been assured of his prospects for recovery of his health. But shortly after he had retired Saturday night he had started coughing. He asked his wife to light a light. As she started to do so, she heard him
fall. He apparently died instantly.

He was born Nov. 25, 1890, in Russia. He came to the Buchanan district in 1922, and had worked at the Berrien Springs plant
of the Clark Equipment company since 1925. He had expected to return to work there Tuesday after a layoff from illness. He married Iola Fletcher at Bridgman July 4, 1912. He is survived by his wife; by four sisters, Mrs.
Minnie Taver of Watervliet, Mrs.
Alvina Zimble, Miss Johanna Krieger and Mrs. Elsie Nicum, all of Benton Harbor; by one brother, Herman Krieger, of Benton Harbor. He was a member of the Glendora I. O. O. F.

R. R. Rouse Buys

Mead Barber Shop

R. R. Rouse completed the negotiations last week for the purchase of the Mead barbershop. Mr.
Rouse had worked in the shop for the greater part of the past 28 years. His many friends here are pleased to see the place continued
under the management of one long associated with it. He states that he will continue the efficient service of the past. Roy Hill of Niles is employed as his ass'tant.

Townsend Club

The Townsend club will meet next Monday evening at the hall
over the John F. Russell sales rooms. They expect state speakers.

Old Library Loan Book Indicates
Serious Reading Tastes PioneersPortage Prairie Had Sizeable
Book Collection Ten Years
After Its Settlement

The Public Library has as a loan a most interesting record
book of the Bertrand Township Library, listing loans by the library to the various school districts during the fourth decade
of the last century.

The list of books indicates a fairly large list of volumes, mostly non-fiction, evidencing the serious tastes of the forefathers of the township. Since Bertrand township was an Indian reservation until the middle years of the thirties of that century, and its entire settlement was less than ten years old at the time of the first entries it is a fair conclusion that the pioneers of the Buchanan district paid early attention to proper library provision.
This is borne out by the fact that an entry in the first records of Miller district, now loaned to the Chamberlain Memorial Museum of Three Oaks, shows that the organization meeting of the district in 1839 the sum of $5 was voted as a preliminary library appropriation, at the same time that funds were voted for the construction of the first log school house.

The first entry in the book is
as follows:

May 29, 1845. A Hoag, director of Dist. 4 received the following books in good condition: Grecian History, Letters from The South,
The Young Cadets, The Young
Pilgrim, Indian Wars, The Scenes of Wealth, Sketches of Society
(Vol. 1), The Child's Own Book,
Young Gent's Library, Self Control,
per L. R. Palmer. S. R. Brabury, librarian.

Nov. 5, 1845. District No. 14 by order of Milton Hall received 18
volumes of The Family Library, commencing at Vol. 1 and continuing through 18 in succession. L. R.
Palmer, dist. Clerk.

An entry of March 2, 1848 includes the following entries and prices: Rollin's History 8 Volumes
($5.00); Life of General Putnam
(1.13); Mack's LaFayette ($1.00);
Goldsmith's View of the World
($1.00); The School and The Schoolmaster ($75); Incidents of American History ($1.13); History of the Late War ($3.71); American History 2 Volumes ($5.84); Franklin's Works ($62).

Commencing with the year 1850
a list is made of the borrowers,
each of whom was apparently charged with the full value of the book when it was withdrawn, and credited back with the same amount when the book was returned in good order.

Among the names of borrowers
listed were: White Redden, C.
Howe, W. Reynolds, A. Vanderhoof, Harry Vite, David Rough, Sarah Herkimer Hamilton Parrish,
S. Miller, Jacob Smith, Roxanna
Smith, E. Terriere, Elijah Roe,
Enos Holmes, Catherine Holmes,
Wesley Dempsey, Levi Redden,
George F. Reynolds, Richard Mc-
Comber, Betsy Dempsey.

On July 21 1853 a total of nearly 400 books was listed, with accession numbers totaling 544 as the number of books that had been purchased since the library was started.

Faculty Presents

Play on Nov. 8

Rehearsals are now in progress
on the Buchanan faculty play,
"Penny Wise," to be presented
Nov. 18 at the high school auditorium. The cast includes Earl Rizor, Emil Reams, Doris Reams,
Joseph Hyink, Reba Lamb, Virginia Anderson, Claude Carter.

Buchanan and
South Haven TieEach Team Crosses Goal Line
Through Pass Attack

The Buchanan Bucks kept up their undefeated record by tying South Haven 6-6 last Saturday afternoon on the lake front city's gridiron. The Bucks scored in the last few minutes of the first half and it looked like they might go home with another victory
added to their string but the South Haven eleven came back to score midway in the third period to tie up the game 6-6.

Both teams showed good defensive and offensive play thruout the entire game but Buchanan's pass defense was somewhat weak. Both teams held each other from gaining much ground and Beadle for the Bucks and Steve of South Haven had to do quite a bit of punting for their teams.

Neither team came close to scoring in the first quarter. Leiter and Beadle carried the ball
for Buchanan but they were kept from scoring and Beadle had plenty of punting to do.

The second period was the same as the first until the last few minutes when Leiater started the Bucks' touchdown drive by returning South Haven's punt to his own 42 yard line. Heiny kept it going by going around end for 23 yards. Leiater made 8 yards and threw a pass to Habicht
which was good for 27 yards and he was brought down on the one yard line. Simpson charged thru the center of the line for the remaining one yard to score. Leiter failed to make the kick good for the extra point. This gave the Bucks a 6-point lead at the end of the first half.

Midway in the third period
Steve of South Haven completed
a pass to Sherman which was good for 50 yards and he was brought down on Buchanan's 2-yard line. The Bucks were able to hold them from scoring and when they gained possession of the ball Beadle kicked from behind the end zone to his own 14 yard line. Steve then threw a pass to Knapp who went over to score. Their kick for the extra point was no good and the game
was tied at 6-6 at the end of the third quarter.

In the start of the last period
both teams started a passing attack in a final effort to break up the tie. Buchanan again came close to scoring midway in the last quarter when they recovered
a rumble and by a couple of passes to Simpson they got the ball on South Haven's 8-yard line
but were penalized and lost the chance to score.

Score by quarters:
Buchanan ----- 0 6 0 0—6
South Haven ----- 0 0 6 0—6

Plan Program on Armistice Day

A special program for Armistice Day is being prepared here by Commander Henry Zupke, the observance of the day being more pronounced this year because of the fact that for the first time it is a national holiday by act of Congress. Atty. Robert Small of Benton Harbor will speak at the high school in a short program in the morning. Fuller details of the program will be printed next week.

Buchanan Twp.
Pioneer DiesMrs. Emma Wray Called By Death at Age 83

Funeral services were held from the Swem Funeral Home at 2 p. m. Monday for Mrs. Emma Wray, 83, who had died Saturday, Oct. 29, at the home of her son, Arthur Wray, 113 Lake street.

Rev. Wanzor H. Brunelle was the officiating clergyman and burial was made in Oak Ridge cemetery. Pall bearers were Emory Rough, Elmer Rough, Edward Broceus, Frank Steiner, Arthur Fowler, George White.

She had lived her entire lifetime in Buchanan township. She was born near Glendora Jan. 24, 1855, the daughter of Abram and Abigail Broceus. She was the last of ten children of that couple with the exception of one sister, Mrs. Helen Fowler. She attended the Hills school north of Glendora and later the Broceus school. On Nov. 7, 1876, she married Anselm Wray, son of Riley
and Martha Wray, also Buchanan township pioneers. Her husband died Sept. 11, 1932.

She and her husband came to Buchanan to make their home about 50 years ago. She was a member of the Presbyterian church and of the Presbyterian missionary society.

In addition to the sister mentioned above she is survived by one son, Arthur A. Wray, and one grandson, Arthur A. Wray, Jr.

Elizabeth Gilmore
Called by Death

Mrs. Elizabeth Ann Gilmore, 85, died Monday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. George Hartman, at 506 South Oak street, after a long illness, and services will be held from the Swem Funeral Home
at 2 p. m. today, with Rev. R. C.
Puffer in charge. Burial will be made in the Storick cemetery.

She was born Dec. 15, 1852, in Ireland, the daughter of William and Eleanor West. She married Henry Gilmore in Ireland. He died
Feb. 14, 1929.

She was a member of the Legion
Auxiliary and of the Methodist church.

She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Mina Hartman, with whom she made her home; by two sons, William Gilmore of St. Joseph and Henry Allen Gilmore of Fort Worth, Texas.

Preston Bradley
To Speak Here

The Buchanan College club has booked Dr. Preston Bradley, noted Chicago radio divine, for a lecture here Jan. 28, 1939. The booking was made for the purpose of providing high class educational entertainment for the city and incidentally to help finance the club
scholarship fund for worthy students.

Puffer to Present
An Interpretation

Rev. R. C. Puffer will present a dramatic interpretation of Mary Hamilton's play, "The Rock," a character study of Simon Peter,
the disciple, at the evening service at the Methodist church Sunday. The services will open at 7:00
p. m. There will be special music.
This interpretation should be interesting to all regardless of denomination. The public is cordially welcome.

Fishermen in Auto CollisionCarl Remington Slightly Injured; First Concern Is
For Safety of Fish

Carl Remington received a slight head injury Sunday night
when the car in which he was returning from a fishing trip to Charlevoix was struck in the rear by another car during a heavy fog north of Dowagiac.

The driving was so difficult that Remington had slowed his car into low. His companion, La-Rue Gillette, had gotten out of the car and had gone back to flag another car approaching at high speed. The driver of the car did not see him and dashed
by striking Remington's car in the rear at high speed. Remington was thrown out, landing in water in a ditch at the side of the road, and receiving only a slight head cut from striking the top of the car.

His car was badly battered in the rear but he was able to drive
it on home. The four occupants of the other car, all returning from a Halloween party in full masquerade costume, received more serious injuries and their car was badly wrecked.

Remington and Gillette drove to Dowagiac, stopping at a filling station and going to a house near by where it chanced that a first aid nurse for a Dowagiac factory
made her home, and he received treatment for his head cut.

It is reported that his first word on being extricated from the ditch after the accident was to mutter in a slightly dazed voice, "How are the fish?"

I. O. O. F. to Begin
The Winter Dances

The Odd Fellow lodge will begin its series of winter dances at the club rooms next Saturday evening.
These dances have proved very popular in past winters and have been very valuable in affording well sponsored and directed entertainment for young people. Poorman's orchestra will furnish music.
There will be card games and prizes for those who prefer cards.

Attend League Meet
at Benton Harbor

Twenty-eight members of the Epworth Leagues of the Buchanan and Oronoko Methodist churches
attended the rally of the Leagues
of the Kalamazoo district at the Peace Temple at Benton Harbor
Tuesday evening. The feature of the program was a very interesting illustrated lecture on South America by Miss Smith of Kalamazoo.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Welch are moving from 605 West Front street to Chippewa street.

57 Guests Attend Function
at Home of Son, Irving Swartz

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Swartz were host and hostess to 57
guests at their home Saturday
evening honoring the golden wedding anniversary of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Swartz, Buchanan.

The honored couple received
many gifts of useful presents
and beautiful flowers, and the
congratulations of all the guests.
They were married Nov. 2, 1883,
at the home of Mr. Swartz's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Christian Swartz, west of Buchanan, by Rev. Hess, then pastor of the Evangelical Lutheran church of Gallien. For 25 years they resided on South Portage street while Mr.
Swartz was employed at the Lee & Porter axle works. When that plant burned in 1913 they moved to a farm three miles south of Buchanan where they lived 11 years. Then they moved to 405
West Front street, Buchanan,
where they have lived since.

Guests from out of the community were Mr. and Mrs. William Troutetter of Jackson, Mrs.
George Andrews and daughter,
Ethel, and two sons of Ann Arbor, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Calvert of South Bend.

dent of the Kalamazoo district.

Missionary Talks
at M. E. Church

Miss Bernice Elliott, a missionary doing educational work in India under the Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal church, will be at the Buchanan Methodist church Sunday evening, November 13,
to tell about her interesting work
in the foreign field. Miss Elliott, who is to appear under the auspices of the Young Women's Foreign Missionary society of the local church, has been in India six years, and is now in America
spending her first furlough in further study. Anxious to return to her work, she is being held in this country by her sponsors so that she might attend the coming jubilee celebration in California. The program is free to the public, a silver offering to be taken to defray expenses.

The following people were appointed for officers, President,
Ruby Hall, vice president, Pomona Dalenberg; secretary, Betty Rouselle; treasurer, Betty Lou Smith;
publicity, Agnes Travis; program
committee, chairman, Roberta Davis, Ellen Vander Ven, June
Hartline; entertainment committee, chairman, Florence Brewer, Marjory Kelly, Luella Bloom. Refreshment committee chairman,
Genevieve Norman, Dona Padzer
and Myra Richter.

The business meetings are held the first Tuesday and the third Tuesday of each month during Home Room. The next meeting is on November 1, 1938.

Girl Scouts

The Buchanan Girl Scouts began observance of National Girl Scout week Sunday by attending morning services in a group of fifty at the Presbyterian church. The National week honors the birthday of the founder, Mrs. Juliet Low.

11 Schools of Buchanan Dist.
To Meet in Rural School Program Friday Night

The first community farm fair
to be held under the auspices of the Future Farmers Association of the Buchanan high school will open at the gymnasium of the school at 1 p. m. today, with an exhibit of grains, corn, fruit, potatoes, vegetables and home products the first program being featured by an address by Howard Rather, head of the crops department of Michigan State college, to be given in the auditorium at 8 p. m. tonight.

The address by Rather will be preceded by a half hour of music
by the high school orchestra directed by R. R. Robinson, playing from 7:30 p. m. to 8 p. m. Mr.
Rather is expected to give a talk
of a general educational nature.
He is rated as one of the best speakers on the Michigan State college faculty and the program
should be well worth while, not only to the farm residents but to townspeople as well. There will be no admittance charge.

On the following evening the Rural school program will be held, starting at 8 p. m. In this event eleven rural schools of the Buchanan district plan to present programs as follows:

GALIEN NEWS

Galien Halloween

The 14th annual community Halloween frolic was held in Galien Friday afternoon and Saturday. The window decorations in honor of the occasion were beautiful. A wonderful display of quilts, bed-spreads embroidered and crocketed, also hand made pillow slips, towels and hundreds of other articles were on exhibit in the Economics room of the high school was under the direction of Mrs. C. C. Glover. Also the agricultural display was one of the best ever shown. The 4-H club had a fine display of young stock in the Lintner Garage, which was greatly admired. Many enjoyed the afternoon games which started at 1:30 on the main street. The bicycle parade, pet parade, women's husking contest added much enjoyment and many prizes were won. At the baby contest Miss Jean Elizabeth Dodd, 16 month old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Dodd carried off the first honor, Miss Margaret Ann McGregor won second prize and Robert McLaren the third prize.

The evening's fun was the masked grand march led by the V. F. W. Drum and Bugle Corps, Benton Harbor. An exhibition by a group of tap dancers from the Lorelei School of Dancing, Niles, under the direction of Miss Peters was one of the main features of the evening. Many political speeches were made by the nominees of both parties. Those receiving prizes in the grand march were: Best dressed groups, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Payne and Carmen Payne, of Three Oaks, first; Juanita, Margery and Eugene Dickey, second. Most hideous costume, Walter Smith, St. Joseph; best autumnal costume, Madge Lintner. Oldest person taking part, Jerome Seabasty, Dayton age 75.

Best dressed couple, Rose Lysy and Helen Post, New Buffalo, first prize; Everett and Fenton Foster, second. Best advertisement, Marion Dodd. Fattest dressed person Mrs. Frank Kelley. Tallest person, Rev. Frank Conditine. Galien. Youngest masked, Arnold Sander, aged 4. Funniest costume Mrs. Richard Wentland. The judges who determined the parade winners were: L. O. Swen, Robert Burns, Buchanan; Mrs. Lea Wilson, Niles.

The wind-up of the evening frolic was the masked dance held in the I. O. O. F. hall which was well attended.

GUY TYLER

The Democratic candidate for sheriff has been a citizen of Berrien County for the past 28 years. He has been elected to office for only TWO TERMS as County Clerk and refused to run for a THIRD TERM. He is proud of the fact that he has been a trusted honest employee of the Graham and Morton Transportation Company. The city of Benton Harbor, Berrien County and the State of Michigan. It is in a spirit of self respect he earnestly solicits the support of all good citizens for his FIRST TERM as your sheriff.

NO candidate for sheriff has offered you better qualifications and experience than GUY TYLER.

GUY TYLER pledges that he will be available on the job for the folks from all over the county who have business with him; and he will not speculate or display great showmanship for his own personal power.

REMEMBER! Nov. 8 is the time to make GUY TYLER your Sheriff. He will not seek a THIRD TERM much less a fourth term.

Sophomore Flash Is Fordham Hope

This is Stanley Lewczyk, halfback of Fordham university football squad, and any coach's pride. Stan is a nifty runner and reminds the spectators of the great Joe Granski. His nickname is Lefty and he specializes in the "Big Apple," especially in the open field.

Color Lovers

Beautifully colored rather than fragrant flowers are a greater attraction to butterflies, whose sight is keener than their sense of smell.

Early-Day Stage Coaches

Stage coaches began operating on regular schedule between Philadelphia and Boston in 1782.

Swastika Is of Ancient Origin

The swastika is of extreme antiquity, and one of the 65 mystic signs found in the footprint of the Buddha.

Land With 150,000 Islands

If you are asked in an intelligence quiz, which country has a coastline of 12,000 miles and along that coastline 150,000 islands, there is only one answer—Norway.

1 in said English and Holmes Addition; thence West, along the North line of said Lot 12, to the East line of Portage Street; thence South along the East line of Portage Street to the North line of Bluff Street; thence West 66 ft. to the intersection of Bluff Street & Portage Street; thence North along the West line of Portage Street 82.5 ft.; thence West, parallel with and 82.5 ft. North of the North line of Bluff Street, 132 ft.; thence South, parallel with and 132 ft. West of the West line of Portage Street, to the Southwest corner of Lot 13, Block A, Mrs. Mahala Mansfield's Addition; thence East, along the South line of said Lot 13, to the West line of Portage Street; thence South, along the West line of Portage Street, to the North line of Portage Street, to the North line of Front Street; thence West along the South line of Front Street to a point 255 ft. East of the Northwest corner of Section 36; thence Southwestwardly along the Westerly line of a parcel of real estate owned by H. N. Capen to the North line of Ryerson Street; thence Eastwardly along the North line of Ryerson Street, to a point North 22 degrees East from the place of beginning; thence South 22 degrees West to the place of beginning.

District No. 8. Beginning at the Northwest corner of Lot 32, High School Addition; thence South, along the West line of said Lot 32, and said Lot 32 extended South, to the South line of Roe Street; thence West, along the South line of Roe Street to the Northwest corner of Lot 5, in said High School Addition; thence South, along the West line of said Lot 5, to the Southwest corner of said Lot 5, which point is on the North line of an alley; thence East, along the North line of said Alley, to the Southeast corner of Lot 8, in said High School Addition, which point is 55 ft. West of the West line of Cayuga Street; thence South, parallel with and 55 ft. West of the West line of Cayuga Street, to a point 132 ft. South of the South line of Chicago Street; thence East, parallel with and 132 ft. South of the South line of Chicago Street, to the West line of Water Street; thence North to the Northeast corner of Lot 37 in said High School Addition; thence West to the place of beginning.

The above described districts are shown on maps together with division of all the lots and premises in the districts, the proposed route and location of sewers through the same; the plans, profiles, detailed drawings show the depths, grade and dimensions of all sewers. Said maps, plans, profiles, detailed drawings, specifications and estimated cost of the proposed work of each sewer is deposited with the Clerk of said City at his office in the City Hall, where they can be found and are open to public inspection and examination.

It is the intention of the Commission to pay from the general tax of the City 24.63% of the total cost of the above sewer systems exclusive of the amount paid for by the Federal Government through its Works Progress Administration, all other costs of the above sewers, exclusive of that portion of labor and materials paid for by the Works Progress Administration, to be assessed according to the benefits of the property in the district.

The City Commission will meet in the Commissioners' Chambers, City Hall, on the 21st day of November, A. D. 1938 at 7:30 p. m. to hear any suggestions and objections from persons interested or liable to be assessed for the work.

HARRY A. POST, City Clerk.

Dinner on 85th Birthday
Mr. and Mrs. O. B. York and Mrs. Georgia Wright were guests Monday at a dinner party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clark, of Galien, the event honoring the 85th birthday of Mrs. Clark. They state that both Mr. and Mrs. Clark are in good health. Mr. Clark drove his car to his Galien office and return that day.

Accident at York Corner
It isn't enough to put up a "horse high, bull strong and pig tight" fence any more, in the experience of O. B. York. You have to have them Ford strong and Chevrolet tight too. Anyway, his wire fence around his orchard opposite the eastward turn of the Portage Prairie road to South Bend was struck Sunday night, the third time, by a car making too much speed to take the corner. Several youths and girls, part of them from Buchanan, were in the car, a light coupe. Mr. York did not get their names, but they were not badly injured. One girl receiving a cut knee. The car was bound toward South Bend at a high rate of speed. As the driver lost control the car jumped the ditch and struck the fence, breaking off several posts and narrowly missing an apple tree. The strong No. 9 wire gave but did not break and eventually brought the car to a stop.

Honor Newly-Weds at Dinner
Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Upham entertained at dinner Sunday honoring their son, Robert Upham and bride. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Upham, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Villwock of Niles, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Scamehorn of White Pigeon, Mrs. Robert Leer of New Carlisle, Ind.

FOR MICHIGAN—FOR BERRIEN—FOR BETTER GOVERNMENT—
VOTE A STRAIGHT REPUBLICAN
BALLOT NEXT TUESDAY,
NOVEMBER 8TH

Berrien County voters march to the polls next Tuesday to elect a governor, state officers, congressmen, legislators and county officials.

Michigan and Berrien Republicans have put up a splendid ticket this year—able, experienced, trustworthy men, who, given a chance will give Michigan and Berrien a better government. We need a fair, courageous, honest, capable, sane and sensible governor—Frank Fitzgerald is that man. He has served two years. He's up and up and gave Michigan the kind of administration it needs to get us out of debt and discouragement.

Congressman Clare E. Hoffman is no pussyfoot, rubber stamp official who jumps at the crack of the boss' whip. Send him back and thus give us a man who dares to think, challenge, criticize and vote as his conscience dictates.

The county ticket shows a bulwark of strength with Robert Small, for prosecutor; Charles L. Miller, for sheriff; Loomis Preston, for representative in the first district and Gail Handy in the second district; J. T. Hammond for state senator; Al Hastings to go back as clerk; John Chaddock, for register of deeds; William Bartz, for treasurer; Louis Kerlikowske and William Pifer, for coroners; James Dewey, surveyor; William Heyn as drain commissioner and two young attorneys, Webster Sterling and Harold F. Klute, for circuit court commissioners.

Here is a fine ticket of successful farmers, business men, lawyers and county servants. Any way you look at it, there's experience, community standing, ability and general worthiness. You can't beat this ticket.

FOR A BETTER DEAL—THE GOOD OLD AMERICAN WAY, VOTE A STRAIGHT REPUBLICAN TICKET NEXT TUESDAY, NOV. 8TH.

Nov. 19 Last Date Crop Ins. Payments

Farmers who have applied for insurance on their 1939 wheat crops have until November 19th to pay for their premiums, Mr. Donald M. Hamilton, Berrien County Crop Insurance Supervisor announced this week. "This is the final extension of time for payment of 1939 wheat insurance policies," Mr. Hamilton said.

In making the announcement Mr. Hamilton added that according to the terms of the policy a farmer has no protection against early crop losses from dry weather, wire worms, fall winds or early frost until his premiums are paid.

Reports of the present condition of the 1939 wheat crop indicate that there are possibilities of damage due to excessively dry weather this fall. Those farmers who have made application for insurance will be protected from loss up to 75 percent of their normal yields providing they have paid their insurance premiums. Those farmers who have made application for insurance but have not paid their premiums, as yet, are not realizing the full advantage and protection of their policies, Mr. Hamilton said, for any damage that occurs to their crops before premiums are paid will not be covered by the policy.

Weather Ripens Storage Apples

Operators of air-cooled storages in Michigan are being warned by observers at Michigan State College that this year the apple crop was caught by warm temperatures in early October and that premature ripening will cut quality unless earlier marketing follows.

Record breaking temperatures that occurred between Oct. 10 to 19 will make this season one of the most unfavorable for the operation of air cooled storages for apples in 15 years, says R. E. Marshall, horticulturist at the college. Marshall's most optimistic guess is that most operators of this type of storage should plan to merchandise each variety at least one month earlier than in normal years.

Temperatures affect apple ripening to a degree that is surprising. In some storages where loading was completed before the fall heat wave the apples were down to 45 degrees Fahrenheit, but in another storage where picking was still in progress the temperature in the middle of October was still up to 58 degrees.

Apples ripen twice as fast at 50 degrees as they do at 40. They ripen twice as fast at 65 degrees as they do at 50 degrees. Marshall's warning is based on the fact that apples in the average air cooled storage were ripening twice as fast as normal during the second 10 days in October. Few growers managed to keep the storages closed during the prevailing heat of October 10 to 19.

When fruits in storage tend to become shriveled or mealy when held for a week at living room temperatures, the fruit should be merchandized immediately, according to the warning.

Charge Racette Is Member Of Communist Party

Charges Filed Before Dies Committee by South Haven Township Man

Washington, D. C.—Nov. 3.—Charges that F. A. Racette, Democratic nominee for Congress in the Fourth Michigan District, was at one time formally affiliated with the Communist Party of America were placed today before the Dies Committee investigating anti-Americanism.

The Dies Committee received a sworn affidavit signed by R. L. Hill, of South Haven Township, Michigan, who was closely associated with Racette in his campaign for Congress four years ago.

The Hill affidavit says that Racette once discussed frankly with Hill his affiliation with the Communist Party, on which occasion in 1934, Hill says, he advised Racette to return his Communist membership card and publicly repudiate his connection with the Communist Party.

So far as he knows, Hill's affidavit continues, Racette never has repudiated publicly his Communist Party membership card.

Mr. Hill's affidavit was placed before the Special investigating Committee by Walter W. Steele, publisher of the National Republic, an old-established patriotic magazine which often has exposed Communist activities throughout the country. The affidavit came to him, Steele said, through American Legion friends in Berrien County Michigan, a part of the Fourth Congressional District.

On one occasion in 1934, Hill declares in his sworn affidavit, Racette attended a Communist Party meeting in South Haven, Mich., and contributed $1.00 to the Communist collection.

In his letter submitting the Hill statement, Mr. Steele asked the Dies anti-American committee to publish at once for the benefit of the voters in the Fourth Michigan District whether Mr. Racette, "if he be in fact a member of the Communist Party of America running on the Democratic ticket," now "pledges his loyalty first to Communism or Americanism?"

Hill is represented by Steele to be a well-known farmer of Van Buren County. He is a registered Democrat, and once served as campaign aid to Racette when the latter was a congressional candidate in 1934.

A NOTE ON TAXES

Ever since the first wise man invented taxes, people have disliked to pay them. It's a subject as popular as the weather. Whether they are high or low everybody stays awake nights trying to think how to get out of the payment of them.

Consider the school tax. People who don't have children feel that they shouldn't be required to pay it. Perhaps they never realized that their future president is growing up now and being educated with their taxes. It would be a bit difficult to accept a president or a governor or city councilman who was illiterate. School taxes also pay for the education of future doctors, lawyers, judges, and scientists.

What of those pupils who grow up and don't become anything extraordinary? They're the ones who will help elect the future governing body. They're the ones who will be called on for jury duty. They, in short, will shape the destiny of the United States.

The men who are forming its destiny today may not be doing such a good job, you think, but they're doing their best according to the preparation and education. They are the people who were educated twenty or thirty years ago on the money paid by tax-payers of that day.

It's a good idea to think things over a little and "count your many blessings." Most people have enough pride in their country and city to feel a lot better about taxes.

Band Demonstrates in Honor of Coach

One of the main attractions at the football games is the colorful array of the band. The band consists of fifty-three members, each giving a part to the complete display of color and music. Between the halves of the games a special attraction is given by the band. The same one is never repeated at another game. At the Buchanan vs. Coloma game a tribute was paid to Coach John Miller when the band formed the letter's "J", "M" and played "For He's A Jolly Good Fellow."

The band adds to the cheering section at the games and much school spirit is found in its members. We are certain that the band will continue this good work as long as it has the fine leader that it now has.

School Classes

Elect Officers

The seventh graders have chosen George Zupke as their president, Clayburn Gooch vice president, Doris Reamer secretary, Jean Phiscator treasurer, and Mr. Rizer as class advisor.

The eighth grade held its first class meeting of the year and elected Melvin Dreitzler as president, Richard Trapp vice president, Fred Hagley secretary, Robert Vautaw treasurer, and Mr. Carter as class advisor.

The freshmen class has elected Robert Dodge as president, Charles Trapp as vice president. Mr. Langer is the class advisor and Miss Quade the assistant advisor.

The sophomore class has chosen Arlis Fairman and George Fitch for their president and vice president. Robert Muehlen and Bonnie June Chain assist as treasurer and secretary. Mrs. Weaver is the class advisor and Mr. Hyink the assistant.

The juniors will begin their class activities with Bill Ednie as president, Robert Fairman vice president, Mildred Ashby secretary, Marlan Hansen treasurer and Miss Krebs as class advisor.

The seniors elected Rex Froud as president; Dorothy Arnold, vice president; Leland George, secretary; Mary Garoutte, treasurer, and Mr. Moore as class advisor.

Since Ben wants to be a talent scout for musicians, it is in keeping with his ideas.

Judging Team Wins at Hartford

Buchanan Team Wins First in Judging Stock, Fruit; Fourth in Grain

One of Mr. Langer's agriculture classes attended the Hartford Fair. In judging stock Buchanan took first place, Dowagiac second, Berrien third, and Vicksburg fourth place. The boys who placed in Buchanan's judging are as follows: Bob Best first place, Bob Hamilton second place, and James Hemminger third place.

In grain judging, the first four places were taken by the following schools: first place Decatur, second place Dowagiac, third place Hartford, and fourth place Buchanan. The boys who placed for Buchanan are as follows: for the first three places: first place Don Harroff, second place Charles Hess, and third place Bob Taylor.

In fruit judging Buchanan again took first place, second place went to Hartford, and third place to Berrien Springs. Buchanan boys placed with the following scores: Bob Olson, first place with a score of four hundred eighty-eight; and second place, James Hemminger with a score of four hundred seventy-eight; and third place, Richard Walkden with a score of four hundred seventy-four.

Class Forms Club

The girls taking home economics this year were interested in forming a club. They had their first meeting October 25, during home room hour. Over fifty students have joined the club.

The following people were appointed for officers: President, Ruby Hall; vice president, Ramona Dalenberg; secretary, Betty Rousselle; treasurer, Betty Lou Smith; publicity, Agnes Travis; program committee, chairman, Roberta Davis, Ellen Vander Ven, June Hartline; entertainment committee, chairman, Florence Brewer, Marjory Kelly, Luella Bloom; refreshment committee chairman, Genevieve Norman, Donna Padzer and Myra Richter.

The business meetings are held the first Tuesday and the third Tuesday of each month during home room. The next meeting is November 1.

H. S. Band Plays

at Mead Funeral

A tribute was paid to one of the town's leading citizens Friday, October 21, when the Buchanan High School band played at the funeral of Fred Mead.

Mr. Mead was a member of the Clark band and was greatly interested in the activities of the high school band. It was altogether fitting that a man who loved band music as he did should have the band play at his last rites.

Mr. Mead was instrumental in buying the tract of land which is well known by the high school students as Athletic Park.

Exchange Column

Dowagiac band has at present fifty-six members. Dewey Mason, the director, is quoted as saying, "Before the year is over we will have added fifteen new members. This will make it one of the leading bands in the Big Five."

Activities are being planned in the Dowagiac High School for the rural students during the noon hour. The library, gymnasium, and the girls' new recreation center will all be equipped with something to keep the rural students occupied during their spare time.

The Stevensville High School paper, "The Cardinal" is running a contest to decide who the most popular girl is in each class. With each copy of the paper this week they inclosed a voting blank. The students will vote and then each class shall have its "Queen of Popularity."

Senior Pictures

Taken for Annual

Pictures were taken of senior students, October 25-26. The pictures will be published in the 1938-39 Buchanan School annual.

Group pictures of other classes will be taken later on in the year.

Robinson Talks In Music Club Program

On November 1 the orchestra, under the leadership of Mr. Robinson, journeyed to Niles to participate in the Niles-Buchanan music club program which was given at the Four Flags Hotel.

Mr. Robinson was the guest speaker of the afternoon, his topic being "Harmony." He took examples from some of the best musical literature and arranged them to illustrate the various harmonic devices. He used his own orchestra to demonstrate the examples.

After the demonstration the orchestra played "Nocturne" from Midsummer Nights Dream and also a group of excerpts from "The Messiah."

Critic Appraises

Football Players

Dale Leiter is the Buck's best runner in the back-field and a good passer. He has a chance of making the All-Star Southwest Michigan Class "B" selection if he shows up well in the last three games.

Dale Simpson is a very good pass catcher. He has quite an advantage due to his height. He also has a good chance of making the All-Star Class "B" selection.

Robert Hamilton and Russell Heckathorne are the best line men, for both are very good on defense.

Dick Habicht, Mark Heiney, and Wally Lewis are good ends and play a very good defensive game.

Lee Topash, Robert Best, Lester Hanover, Duane Beadle, and Jack Hess are regular "jitterbugs" in the back-field, and they always come through no matter how bad the situation may be.

Mike Rotzein, Melvin Stoner, and Kenneth Phiscator are always ready to guard our men and they have been "regular" fellows this year.

Glenn Sult and Bob Habicht are also very fine tackles who have shown up in good form this year.

Last, but not least, Edwin Ingelright, our one and only center, certainly deserves credit for his splendid playing this year.

F. F. A. Program

Anyone having an exhibit but no premium list, see Mr. Langer or one of the F. F. A. boys.

Thursday evening, November 3, in the high school auditorium, the speaker will be Professor Rath, of the farm crops department at Michigan State College.

Friday, November 4, is the rural school program into which a number of the rural schools will present short programs. Space will be reserved for rural people. Everyone is invited.

School News

We are very glad to have Janice Walters and Lila Evans back in school after having been in the Pawating Hospital for about a month.

Janet Miller has been absent three days because of the flu. Marjorie Muehlen visited North Carolina and Tennessee with Barbara Swartz last week.

Read that again, please.

Our eighth graders are studying ballads in their English class.

The element in the ballad, "Lookin'ar," that stimulated interest for the boys was that bold knights of yesteryear were really no different than our modern Romeos, with the exception of transportation: They rode on speeding chargers, we just speed.

The class is dramatizing the ballads they read. Then "Cloties On" and On the Stage, a new library book, ought to offer valuable information for our young scholars of the ballad.

Extra! Extra! The Library Club is choosing a play for future production: Play I vs. Play II. Which one will be the victor?

Richard Neal, former librarian, has been forced to give up his library position because his time is taken up by athletics. That's okay, Dick, the football squad needs you.

Succeeding Neal is Florence Ferris, a very capable young student. We have new librarians and a new schedule for them for after-school work. This offers the reason why the library is always in such an immaculate condition.

An old adage that says freshmen are green is not accurate! At least those at Buchanan High won't be when they have completed their study of word choice and learning how to express thought received through the senses. Let's hope their I. Q.'s don't soar too high. Our colleges are overcrowded now.

Writing the Microphone is not the only feature of study endeavored by the journalism class. They are thoroughly engrossed with feature writing, developing "News Notes," and knowing what determines a good newspaper article. The class hopes to improve the Microphone by applying the suggestions made by the text and by Mr. Hawes.

The dental examinations of the teeth has been completed and cards are being sent home to notify the parents about the condition of the pupils' teeth.

Starting Monday milk will be given to children at school.

Etta Kett's Column

Daily Courtesies

Do not wear your courtesies like a watch, to take it out now and then when you want to impress people. Be courteous always, not only on the street and in the car, but in school, at the theatre, wherever you go, with whomever you happen to be.

Remember that courtesy, like a boomerang, will return to you who send it into the world. Be courteous to everyone and you will attract courtesy wherever you go.

Politeness is the cement that holds the social scheme together. It is the oil that eases the friction of daily life. It is the tune of which the hearts of the world vibrate in harmony. Be polite!

In acknowledging an introduction, do not use such expressions as

"Please to know you" or "How do?" These are incomplete sentences and incorrect. The proper forms would be, "I am pleased to know you" and "How do you do?"

Frankness and candor in speech are fine, but not the unthinking, reckless kind of frankness that hurts others. He is rarely popular who, in his conversation, makes others feel unhappy or uncomfortable.

An accident at the table such as the breaking of a cup or the overturning of a glass of water, should not be the signal for profuse apology and confusion. A simple word of apology to the hostess is all that is necessary.

—Home Economics Department.

NEW LIBRARY BOOKS

Three hundred and sixty-four photographs in natural colors make the book, "Wild Flowers," by Homer D. House, not only a book which can be enjoyed because of the accuracy and beauty of illustration, but also for the excellent reference material which accompanies each illustration.

Animal lovers of all ages will be interested in "Animals of America" edited by H. E. Anthony.

F. Schuyler Mathews has spent a lifetime in the study of natural history. The artistic and scientific accuracy which he put into "Field Book of American Trees and Shrubs" make this a valuable addition to our library.

This book is intended not only to furnish the students with means for identifying the native trees and shrubs throughout the United States, but also demonstrates certain truths relative to form which are more within the province of the artist than the botanist and which naturally do not appear in the textbook.

"Hunger Fighters" by Paul de Kruif deals with the scientists (who are usually "forgotten men") who relieved different kinds of hunger—like Carleton, who brought the sturdy Russian wheat to the Western plains and saved the farmers from bankruptcy. And the man who discovered the need for vitamins. The book is written in de Kruif's usual lively style which combines humor with real scientific facts.

Dewey Avenue News

The First Grade has made a story about Halloween from a picture.

Here is Dick See the Jack-o' Lantern Here is Spot What a funny face Run Spot. Run from Jack-o' Lantern.

The Second Grade is making Halloween decorations for the room; black cats, witches and bats. Gerrin made a nice Jack-o-Lantern for us. We are making our farm look like Autumn.

George Johnson's name has been added to the Dental Honor Roll in the third grade.

We are studying about wheat. We are setting bread today, so each pupil may make a small loaf of bread.

Special Room

Russell Wolkins has been absent for several days. He has had an abscess under his knee. Charles Stroud brought us a cotton plant his father had raised in their garden.

Our new lieutenants are: Charles Stroud and Evelyn Liska.

We are decorating for our Halloween party next Monday.

The fourth graders are making a mural in chalk depicting life in hot and cold lands. This culminates this study.

We are starting a study of different types of shelter.

AMBITIONS

Fancy meeting Doctor Dorothie Sherwood some day. Well, that's her ambition.

Won't Bette Lou Smith and Shirley Drake make lovely private secretaries?

In the future some of you girls and even the boys may walk into a beauty parlor run by Evelyn Benak and Genevieve Norman.

The Bowman family certainly are musicians for Jerry and Marjorie plan to take up music.

Henry Aalf wants to work on the WPA for he'll have more time to eat.

Betty Bristol wants to be a farmer's wife and raise chickens. Gerald Weaver will take up aviation and be an army pilot.

Could you imagine Donald Keller and Richard Tumbleton going to college? I couldn't either, but this is their ambition.

Wouldn't you boys like to wake up in a hospital with Betty Roselle as your nurse? Well, you may have your chance because she plans to take up nursing.

Luella Bloom must like sweets she plans to work in a candy factory.

Melvin Dreitzler's ambition is talking.

Betty Squier desires to be a drum major.

Lila Evans wants to be an airliner hostess.

Catherine Babcock and Wilma Morganthau are planning on going to college.

Grade News

Miss Carnagan—First Grade

The pupils in the first grade had a Halloween party Monday. They made their own plans for the party and then carried them out. For decorations they made black cats, pumpkins, and witches. The nut cups were made from orange paper with black faces. Through the kindness of Miss Krebs they made cookies in the home economics department. Besides having a good time at the party, they tried to have good manners.

Mrs. Helm—Second Grade

In our spell down today, Billy Fairman spelled the school down.

The following children are on the Dental Honor Roll: Charlene Bachman, Arnold Lemke, Elton Orput, Barbara Swem, Ralph Thurston, Lynn Watson, and Nancy Cholaske.

Miss Virginia—Third Grade

We are preparing for our Halloween party. From sacks, construction and crepe paper we have made masks and costumes.

Many of the children have composed stories and poems. Each morning we have our original story and poetry hour using top microphone.

Miss Spear—Fifth Grade

We have ten new Webster's dictionaries.

Our Transportation Table is very interesting with our covered wagon, airplane, and models of boats. We have a very good cardboard reproduction of the old Phoenician boat with sails and paddles.

We are starting a Unit on Balanced Meals in Health. Mrs. Imhoff is going to help us make large posters showing a good breakfast, lunch, and dinner.

The Fords Tell Their Plans for 1939

Henry and Edsel Ford, on the occasion of the 35th anniversary of the founding of the Ford Motor Company, June 16, 1938

IF WE KNEW anything better we could do for the country than make good motor cars, we would do it.

By every one doing his best in the job he thinks most useful, this country is going to regain its momentum. We have tried to do our best in our job.

When business was suddenly halted in its recovery more than a year ago, we determined that we should keep going anyway, if not at full-volume motor car production, then at getting ready for greater motor car values that would help future production.

EXPANDING FOR THE FUTURE

We began to build 34 million dollars' worth of new plants and equipment. We felt that if we could not employ all our men building motor cars, we would employ as many as we could building better production facilities.

We were told, of course, that this was no time for expansion, that a wiser business policy would be to "hold everything"—which means, stop everything. But no one ever got anywhere standing still.

Besides, we are not defeatists. We do not believe this country has seen its best days. We believe this country is yet in the infancy of its growth. We believe that every atom of faith invested in our Country and our People will be amply justified by the future. We believe America is just beginning. Never yet have our People seen real Prosperity. Never yet have we seen adequate Production. But we shall see it! That is the assurance in which we have built.

Business is not just coming back. It will have to be brought back. That is now becoming well understood in this country; for that reason 1939 will be a co-operative year. Manufacturers, sellers and buyers will co-operate to bring back the business that is waiting to be brought back.

This construction program is almost completed. It has increased activity and payrolls in a number of related industries. It has given us better facilities for building better cars and trucks, and eventually our new tractor which is being perfected.

THIS MEANS MORE VALUE

The current program has provided a new tire plant, which will turn out a part of our tire requirements... a new tool and die plant that will help us cut the cost of dies... and a steel-press plant that will enable us to make more of our own automobile bodies. These are in addition to the plants we already had for producing glass, iron, steel, plastics, and many other things.

We don't supply all our own needs, of course, and never expect to. The Ford engine is one thing that no one's hand touches but ours. Of nearly everything else we use we build some quantity ourselves, to find, if possible, better and more economical ways of doing it. The experience and knowledge we gain are freely shared with our suppliers, and with other industries.

We take no profit on anything we make for ourselves and sell to ourselves. Every operation, from the Ford ships which first bring iron ore to the Rouge, is figured at accurate cost. The only profit is on the finished result—the car or truck as it comes off the line. Some years, there is no profit for us. But we see to it that our customers always profit. A basic article of our business creed is that no sale is economically constructive unless it profits the buyer as much as or more than the seller.

Our new plants have helped us build more value into all our cars for 1939. That means more profit on the purchase to the purchaser.

We have not cut quality to reduce costs.

We simply will not build anything inferior.

NEW TESTING EQUIPMENT

While we were putting up new plants to produce cars, we constructed new equipment to test them. The first weather tunnel of its kind ever built for automobile research went into operation at our laboratories this year.

It makes any kind of weather to order. The weather it delivers every day would take months to find in Nature. Our cars are weather-tested to give you good service in any climate anywhere.

In other tests, every part of the car is punished unmercifully. Then our engineers tear it down to see if they can find abnormal wear or any sign of weakness.

The money we spend on tests saves you money on repairs. And your family car is safer and more dependable when we put it in your hands.

THE NEW CARS

We have two new Ford cars for 1939—better cars and better looking—but we also have an entirely new car.

It's called the Mercury 8. It fits into our line between the De Luxe Ford and the Lincoln-Zephyr. It is larger than the Ford, with 116-inch wheelbase, hydraulic brakes, and a new 95-horsepower V-type 8-cylinder engine.

We know that our 1939 cars are cars of good quality. We think they're fine values in their price classes.

With new cars, new plants, new equipment, the whole Ford organization is geared to go forward.

FORD MOTOR COMPANY, Dearborn, Michigan

Grade News

Our new officers for the next period are: Captain, Byron Haines; Lieutenant, Gus Fagnas; Lieutenant, Betty Herman. Miss Ekstrom—Fifth Grade.
The school has bought some new Webster's Elementary Dictionaries—a dictionary for boys and girls. They are attractive books. They are popular, too, because in a dictionary drill the pupil using a Webster Dictionary is apt to find his word first. When he finds his word the information about that word is graded to the child's reading level. Fourteen things may be learned about the words from a dictionary. A systematic study will be made from a course of study called "Adventures in Dictionary Land." There are not enough school dictionaries for everyone enrolled, so some pupils bring one from home.

The State Library has sent two books for reference work, "Story of the Red Man" by Seymour and "Red Man in the United States," by Lindquist.

The grade is still working on multiplication. This week two and a few three numbered multipliers are used. Some pupils still don't know all of their 36 multiplication combinations.

Time was taken to celebrate Halloween.

Jack Russell has been added to the Dental Honor Roll.

Miss Jeffery—Sixth Grade.
Two new names have been added to the Dental Honor Roll in Miss Jeffery's room.

Harold Good and Harold Liska have been absent for the past week.

Miss Graves has given achievement tests to Miss Jeffery's sixth grade.

We have ten new dictionaries and the book, "Japanese Fairy Tales" to add to the sixth grade library.

One observed the wizened, eccentric, but very generous and congenial host receiving his enchanted guests with listless languor and indifference, while, to our astonishment, his brilliantly vivacious wife, in a dress of lustrous sheen, chastised him with waggish dexterity. The first guests to arrive were a rugged, vigorous Spartan, apparently of great endurance, and his modest, sensitive, and contrite wife, who plainly had been intimidated by her bragging husband. A barbarous looking, violent blackguard was about to be ousted by our host, when in spite of his obstinate insolence, he was recognized as one of the invited guests. At precisely midnight, a ghost of courtly manner, but whose clothing spoke of a life of drudgery, appeared and a chattering started up among the guests, who tried to decide who the hypocrite really was. Later the host insinuated that refreshments were to be served, but leading the guests into the torrid heat of the dining room, what appeared to be luscious and savory food, proved to be very rancid indeed. Perhaps it would relieve you to learn that this frenzied bedlam was not an idiosyncrasy or caprice, but simply a Halloween party, and the guests but temporarily headstrong and ruinous.

JOKES

Fred Manning was very curious to know what the six weeks marks were going to be.

When Miss McNeil said, "No A's," his face fell but brightened as he asked, "What about the B's?"

"Why, Fred, I have been hearing them buzzing all month."

Why was Miss McNeil going to hold Paul Ewing's hands?

She said it was to keep them out of his pocket while making a speech.

Miss Cernahan: "What is meant by a 'pasty complexion'?"

Della Mae Heckathorne: "It means a sticky face."

Teacher: "Which of the five senses do we need the most?"
Smart Frosh: "Common."

'Word Blindness' Cause Of Traffic Violation

LONDON.—An affliction known as "word blindness" has come to light through the case of a 16-year-old cyclist who was fined at Crown Hill, Devon, for disobeying a half sign.

The boy's father explained that, although the boy was a clever mathematician and could copy writing well, he was unable to read. "I am just the same," added the father, "I can read figures but not words."

Such people, an authority at the Institute of Child Psychology explained, are "word blind." They can spell out the letters of a word, but the letters convey nothing to them.

Post Office in a Cave Interests Collectors

ADELAIDE, AUSTRALIA.—Stamp collectors in all parts of the world are taking a sudden interest in Cooper Pedy, the remote South Australian opal field, because it has the only underground post office in the world.

All the prospectors live in rooms dug into the soft earth of the low sandstone hills. The bank also is underground along with the post office. The demand by philatelists is for envelopes and other mail coverings bearing the postmark of the underground Cooper Pedy post office.

Chow Called Strange Dog
Strangest of all dogs is the chow. Usually he gives his affection to his own family only, is aloof with all other humans. He also is the only black-tongued breed. The pups were originated hundreds of years ago in China, says a writer in the Washington Post, and have been used as watchdogs, to haul wagons and sleds, even as food. In cold climates their furry hides have served as clothing. Chow puppies, cutely cooked, are considered a delicacy in southern China. Though not over-friendly, they are loyal, sturdy, have a remarkable sense of direction.

The Principles Involved

To the Voters of the Seventh District:

Two years ago, due to your kindness, I was elected to represent you in the State Senate. I am now a candidate for a second term. I believe you will find from my record that I stood consistently for honesty, justice and reasonable economy in state government. Those are my principles.

If there is any principle involved in opposition to my reelection it must be in opposition to those fundamentals of good government. If you favor those principles, you can safely favor my reelection, regardless of your political affiliations.

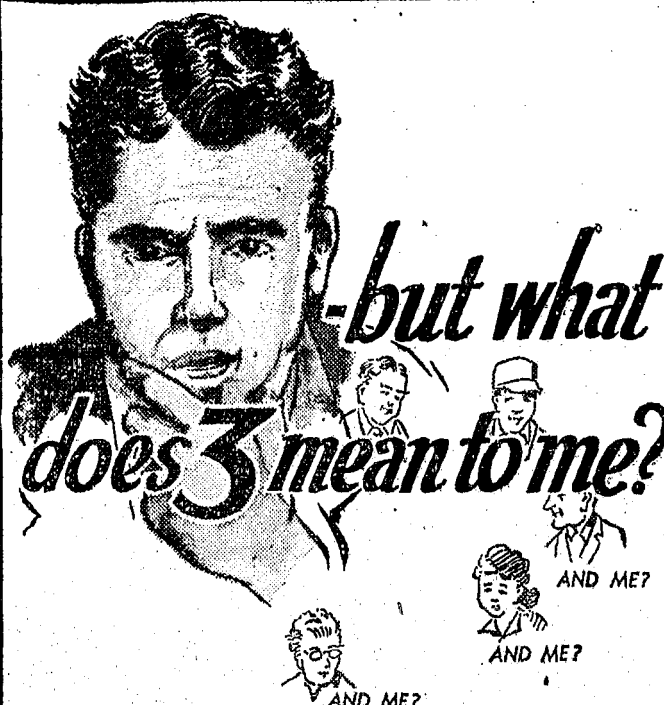

Faithfully yours,

GOOD ROADS mean everything to all of us. Michigan's top-ranking automotive industry depends upon good roads. Our second most important industry—the tourist business—could not exist without them. Agriculture thrives only when farm products can be rushed to markets over good roads. Business prospers as these basic industries prosper. On election day you will vote on Amendment No. 3, the Good Roads Amendment. Here's what a "yes" vote means to you: As a wage earner "yes" means more jobs; as a farmer "yes" means good farm-to-market roads; as a business man "yes" means more business, and as a taxpayer "yes" means a brake on your property taxes. To your family, Amendment 3 opens up new fields of safe and healthful recreation.

IS MICHIGAN HEADED for BANKRUPTCY?

LET'S CONSIDER THE FACTS

(1) State payrolls increased more than $9,000,000 in 18 months—the greatest boost of tax-supported wages in Michigan history. Lack of building space at Lansing for Murphy's job army has even forced several agencies to move to Detroit.

(2) Steadily mounting deficit in the state treasury. On January 1, 1937, the treasury had a cash balance of $8,775,000. On June 30, 1938—18 months later, the officially admitted deficit was $8,741,487—making a red ink total on June 30, of $17,000,000 UPWARD. And this does not include, in any way, the millions appropriated by the legislature at the special session in August for welfare needs. TODAY the Murphy deficit is somewhere between $20,000,000 and $30,000,000, and mounting every day!

What are YOU going to do about it? Old Age pensions have been reduced because tax money has been squandered! Wouldn't it be better for the unemployed to have adequate state funds for their needs, and what is more important, honest-to-goodness jobs in industry and business?

Restore Sound Government to Michigan! Restore business confidence by the American way! Michigan workers are not satisfied with only the Dole, they are entitled to real jobs.

Overseas Phone Calls Are All in the Day's Work to Girls Who Handle Them

Right: The International switchboard in London, where radiotelephone calls to and from the U. S. are linked to Great Britain's wire lines. Below: A similar switchboard in Buenos Aires.

Above: This switchboard in Honolulu handles radiotelephone calls with the U. S. mainland through the A. T. and T. Company station in San Francisco, as well as calls to and from the other islands of the Hawaiian group. Left: A section of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company's overseas switchboard in New York, where radiotelephone calls are handled to Europe, to Bermuda, to the more distant countries of South America, and to a score of ships at sea.

Radiotelephone service between New York and London was put into operation eleven years ago. Today, radiotelephone service is available between this country and more than 70 foreign countries and localities, and about 93 per cent of the world's telephones are within reach of any Bell System telephone. Last year more than 50,000 radiotelephone calls were handled at the American Telephone and Telegraph Company's overseas switchboards at New York, San Francisco, and Miami, Fla.

"On your call to London, we are ready."

It was eleven years ago that an American telephone operator first felt the thrill of those words as she reported to a subscriber that his overseas telephone connection was established.

Even today, with telephone service extending from this country to all of the world's continents and to most of its countries, and with 93 per cent of the world's telephones within reach of Bell System telephones, the average long-distance telephone operator feels some tingle of excitement as she receives a subscriber's call for London or Paris, or if it may be for Melbourne or Capetown, for Buenos Aires or Tokio.

Most Calls Are for Americans

To the overseas operators, however, working at the switchboards in New York and San Francisco and Miami, Fla., where the overseas radiotelephone circuits terminate, each call is simply another incident in their day's regular duties. These operators handled more than 50,000 overseas messages last year.

A call to Europe may be to any one of 26 countries on that continent, but most of the calls are to Great Britain or France. Such calls almost always are for a particular person, and in 65 per cent of the cases they are for an American traveling or residing abroad. Out of every 100 calls, 20 are likely to be for persons staying in hotels.

RE-ENACT HISTORIC TREK TO NORTHWEST

Celebration a Symbol of 13 States "Grown Up."

Washington.—A band of bearded "pioneers" in buckskin suits and coonskin caps recently traveled the long, long trail a-winding back into America's past. It retraced the trek of 48 venturesome New Englanders who set out from Massachusetts, in 1787, to "go west" for new worlds to conquer. Goal of the modern pilgrims was Marietta, Ohio, and that particular yesterday in American history when the Northwest territory got its start.

This re-enactment of a historic migration is part of a widespread celebration of the one hundred fiftieth anniversary of the Northwest territory, the more than a quarter-million square miles of wilderness between the Great Lakes, the Mississippi on the west, and the Ohio river on the south.

"As this area was gradually digested by the young United States," says the National Geographic society, "it proved that the new nation had not bitten off more of the continent than it could chew. It became a symbol of national growth, a sign that the original Thirteen States could get over their 'unlucky number and expand without losing unity."

When Did It Start?

"Did the fateful progress start when a busy and harassed congress, convening in New York, passed an ordinance on July 13, 1787, for governing the Territory Northwest of the Ohio?" The ordinance guaranteed religious freedom, right of trial by jury, public schools, and freedom from slavery even before a convention, meeting quietly in Philadelphia, wrote some of those principles into a document adopted in September of the same year as the Constitution of the United States. Or was the foundation for success laid when General Rufus Putnam organized pioneer parties leaving Massachusetts for Ohio in December, 1787, and January, 1788? Or was the real birthday of northwest-ern triumph on February 1, 1788, when Arthur St. Clair took over the territory as its first governor? To be certain of celebrating the right anniversary, the commemoration is continuing for months, extending even into the summer of 1938 to recall that Marietta set up Ohio's first permanent local government on July 15, 1788.

"The fate of the Northwest territory decided that the map of the United States would look more like a checkerboard than like a rainbow. Originally the area was claimed by four states. Their surrender of territory to congress for subdivision into new states changed geography as well as history."

"Thomas Jefferson suggested carving the new country into ten states, to be served up under such foreign sounding names as Sylvania, Metropotamia, Assenisippia, and Cherroneus. Actually there emerged from the Old Northwest five full-grown states: Ohio first, then Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, and finally Wisconsin in 1848. Pennsylvania built up her northwest corner from the historic territory's open spaces, and the eastern two-thirds of Minnesota was picked up from the Northwest's boundaries after Wisconsin had been sliced off."

Now Look at It.

"Today the area is the home of more than twenty-five million people in the five full states formed from it—about one-fifth of the population of the whole United States."

"Long before the settlers dared to build more windows in their houses than the family could man against Indian attack, other immigrants began to converge from the whole eastern seaboard upon the Northwest territory. In the year after the Ordinance of 1787, twenty thousand came. Like General Putnam's band from Massachusetts, they traveled afoot and in ox-carts to the nearest trail which could conduct them through the massive Alleghenies."

"The westward exit from Pennsylvania, however, was most easily made by water; in the first year of the Northwest rush, more than 900 boats set out down the Ohio from Pittsburgh and contributed their timber to houses. General Putnam's pioneers, for instance, traveled overland through Pennsylvania to the town of West Newton, where they built flatboats and sailed down the Youghiogheny river into the Monongahela, which flows into the Ohio at Pittsburgh. The Ohio brought them to Fort Harmon, frontier outpost within whose protection they established the town named for Marie Antoinette—Marietta."

Book Week (Norma Yoder)

Book Week will be observed in Buchanan this year as all over the country, from November 13 to 19, and will be inaugurated by the releasing of a number of new popular books by the library.

The Hollywood Theater will show the picture "Treasure Island" as a special feature that week. "New Books-New Worlds" is the theme of Book Week this year.

A Book Week poster contest is being held for the 5, 6, 7, and 8 grades in Buchanan schools. There will be two prizes of books for the best posters.

A new book, "Heads and Tails," has recently been donated to the library by Mrs. J. C. Strayer.

It is interesting to note that the non-fiction book with the largest circulation in the library at the present time is "Return to Religion." Who says that the world is casting aside the Bible to read "Gone With the Wind?"

In my bookshelf browsing I came across two books side by side "Good Looks for Girls" and "Every Woman's Complete Guide to Home-Making." It is amusing and not surprising to note that the latter book has been taken out barely one fourth as much as "Good Looks for Girls."

The circulation of books for this month was 1771.

Remember that the Librarian will be more than glad to assist you in finding any book or books that you might be interested in.

MICHIGAN BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY

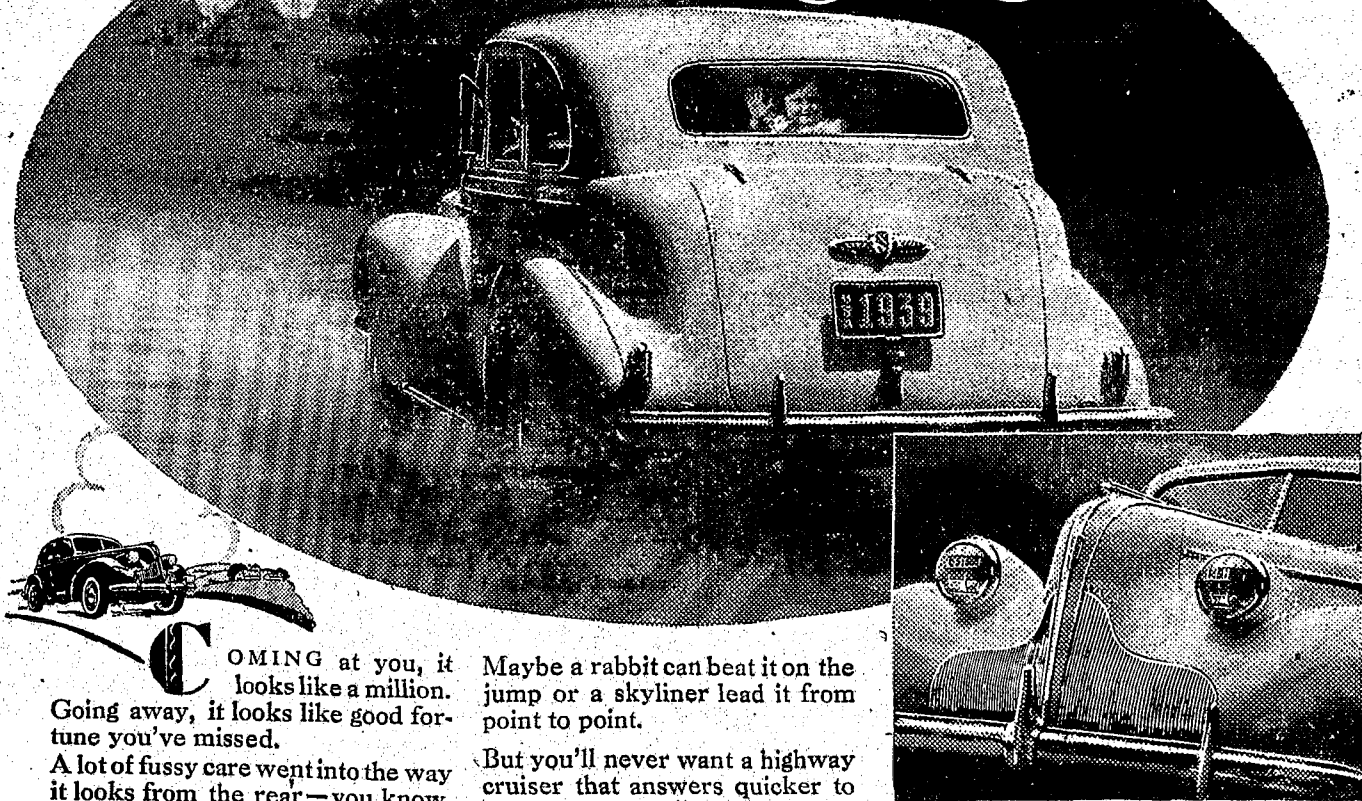

Sixty years ago Michigan's service was limited to a few persons in a few scattered communities. If you were a subscriber you could call perhaps a score of folks in your own town or neighborhood. But you had no way of talking to the next town or across the State.

The change began in 1881, when a Long Distance line linked Detroit with Port Huron—considered a great thing in those days!

Today you not only can talk to almost any one anywhere in Michigan . . . but, due to continuous development and research, your telephone can connect you with 35 million other telephones in nearly all parts of the civilized globe.

Buick's the Beauty!

The One Vital Issue

We now know that through wasteful, extravagant spending the New Deal has brought us near national bankruptcy. We know that relief funds are being used for political purposes. We know that the President demands that only "yes-men" be elected to Congress so that his reorganization bill may be adopted. He will demand legislation affecting the integrity of the Courts. All of these things which the New Deal has brought to us—national bankruptcy—political corruption—the beginning of a dictatorship—none of which were sanctioned by the Democratic platform—are bad. Let Democrats and Republicans put an end to these policies, any one of which would destroy our form of government. That would be constructive. Some critics say I offer nothing constructive. They are mistaken. Let us quit buying of foreign governments at almost twice its world price and burying in a hole in Kentucky, billions of dollars worth of gold. Let us end the purchase of silver, which has benefited no one except a few silver mine owners, speculators and producers and which has cost the American taxpayers millions of dollars. Long have I advocated that we follow and apply sound, sensible methods, such as we use in our own business affairs, to our national government; that we restore law and order; that we amend the Wagner law so as to protect the worker from interference from any and all sources; that we cease endeavoring to regiment business men and farmers; quit attacking and abusing industrialists and business men who give employment, pay wages; that we stop wasteful, needless expenditure; quit using relief money for political purposes; endeavor to live within our national income; quit going into debt; let the representatives of the people make the laws; let the courts enforce them, then see to it that executive officers charged with their enforcement perform their duty; restore the American market for the things he produces to the American farmer; quit promising the impossible; enact a law for an adequate old age pension, pensions which can and will be paid, not now and then but continuously and without bringing undue hardship to the worker. Let us insist that we have that form of government which the immortal Lincoln described as a government "of the people, by the people, and for the people."

Tight-Wadding It Through Europe

CHAPTER 58
By HAWES

Typical of old London is Johnson's Court, a little winding alley-like passage for footpassengers between old buildings on Fleet street. Admittance to Johnson's court is through a sort of arched entrance on the side of a building, not unlike that leading to Hollywood theatre in Buchanan. I walked by it twice before I found it, finally inquiring at a tobacco shop set in the entrance of the court much like the Princess Ice Cream Parlor. Back through the covered entrance the little court winds and winds between old buildings set with little print shops, abducts of the great publishing thoroughfare of Fleet street, until you come to an antique three-story house, the home of Dr. Samuel Johnson for 11 years.

Johnson does not rate much as a writer any more, except as the compiler of the first accredited English dictionary, but his fame as a personality about which much of the mental life of London in the 18th century gathered still lingers on. I paid the six pence required and walked through the old structure left just as in the time of Johnson's residence about 1750 to 1760 or thereabouts. The flavor of the past lingered heavily through the old rooms, a great fire place in each one, and the furnishings replicas if not the originals. The entire top story was taken up by one large room with a skylight, used by Johnson as his study and editorial room while he was publishing "The Rambler." Here, it may be presumed, gathered his cronies, including Oliver Goldsmith the playwright and poet, Sir Joshua Reynolds the painter, David Garrick the actor, and the rest.

Set in a cabinet on the stairway was a piece of stone labelled "From The Great Wall of China." Underneath the stone was a quotation from Boswell's "Life of Johnson." According to the quotation one of the Johnson group had expressed a consuming desire to see the Great Wall of China.

"Then why don't you go?" inquired Johnson, or words to that effect.

"But people would think me crazy to leave my family and go traipsing off into hazardous places at the ends of the earth," protested the would-be traveler.

"On the contrary," replied Johnson, "The more discerning would admire you for a man of spirit in having thus courageously attained your aspirations. And as far as your family is concerned, you would be admired and venerated for generations as the man who had the courage and the enterprise to make a journey to see the Great Wall."

So much for a sample of the conversations of Doc Johnson and his cronies, rendered more or less lasting in the well known biography by James Boswell.

Down on the street level in the old court I followed its windings to another exit further east on Fleet street, coming within a few rods to the illustrious old inn, the Cheshire Cheese, whither Doc and his friends were wont to repair when the subject or their whistles grew dry, and discourse endlessly of life and literature in the coffee room. It is doubtless one of the most noted old hostleries in the world, and in it lingers the authentic flavor of centuries past. The old wainscoted walls and heavily beamed ceilings are as they must have been when Johnson, Goldsmith et al held wassail. It is heavily patronized by tourists who crowded it during my visit.

In following the turns of the old streets I ran into the Old Curiosity Shop, made famous in one of Dickens' novels, into the St. George Inn, where the action of Pickwick papers began, into the grave of Milton, into the graves of the actors who were responsible for the publication of Shakespeare's plays, and so forth.

One afternoon I took a bus at Hyde Park corner and got out for Stoke Poges, the country church made famous by Gray's "Elegy in a Country Churchyard." The trip to Stoke Poges and Oxford University takes an entire day of an American Express company tour, but I left at 2 p. m. and was back by 6 p. m. The old churchyard enshrined in memory through the "most quoted poem in the English language" and the church itself are vivid memorials, impossible to represent in words here.

I rode for an hour through the far flung suburbs of London on the way to Stoke Poges. An English workman sat down beside me and I managed to break the ice and start a conversation on current themes.

What did he think of the possibility of war? Of the then current Edward-Wally incident? Of Baldwin? Of Hitler?

The English laboring classes, he said, thoroughly believed in armament. There was no apparent way out. Hitler's intentions were thoroughly distrusted. It was a fact, he said, that this impending danger to the safety of England was all that kept the Union government intact. War was not expected immediately but eventually. Meanwhile they could not afford too serious division. Lacking the threat of war the English workmen would be quickly drawn into a program of socialization exceeding anything that had been seen so far. But danger preserved the status quo.

The English laboring man was strongly sympathetic to Edward, Wally or no Wally. He thoroughly disliked the succeeding King George, who, he asserted (quoting the innuendoes that have floated mostly by word of mouth through England) had been declared incompetent, diseased by medical authority.

We got out at a little town three quarters of a mile from Stoke Poges and I struck out on foot through a beautiful English country side, walking along lanes bordered on either side by high, closely trimmed hedges, and stately manors set in broad grounds. It was evidently an aristocratic suburban district. But it was as thoroughly beautiful and as "old England," as anything I had ever imagined. I came to an opening in the hedges, with several tourist busses parked outside and a caretaker's house set at the entrance of a lane leading back to the church.

In the book that I bought for a few pence, I have leaves picked from the old yew mentioned in the poem. "Beneath those rugged elms, that yew tree's shade Where heaves the earth in many a mouldering heap, Each in his narrow cell forever laid The rude forefathers of the village sleep."

I walked through the old church, read the epitaph composed by Gray and set in the church wall for his mother, Dora Gray. The old yew tree stands just outside the entrance which is at the side of the church. Its gnarled appearance bears evidence to its great age. Tradition holds that on a bench beneath it Gray wrote the poem. Beyond it and in the rear of the church lies the older section of the churchyard, where, according to the poem, "the rude forefathers of the village sleep."

The oldest stone in this yard has been removed from its grave and placed in the Hastings chapel near the door of the church interior. On the stone in Norman French of the 1100's or 1200's is the inscription which translates as follows:

All those who pass by here Pray for the soul of this one: William of Wytemerse he had for name: God grant to him true pardon. So be it.

Of more recent and poignant memory is the tablet on the north wall of the chancel inscribed with the names of the 48 men of Stoke Poges slain in the world war. The village then had a population of under 1500 and their loss in proportion would be about the same as 120 for Buchanan. These war memorials loom very large in all of the little towns of England.

The interior of the 600 year-old church is of course packed with memorials. You are shown the pew of the Gray family, and also of the Penn family of which Sir William Penn, founder of Pennsylvania, is the most noted representative. William Penn is not buried in the Stoke Poges churchyard but in the Quaker burying ground of "Jordan's" seven miles away. The Penn family owned the manor house of Stoke Poges, about 200 yards from the church, from 1760 to 1840. The authentic history and the tradition of the church and the manor would fill volumes, and even a rudimentary account would hardly be of interest here. It was nearing that night of which Gray wrote: The curfew tolls the knell of parting day, The lowing herd winds slowly o'er the lea, The plowman homeward wends his weary way And leaves the world to darkness and to me. I walked back to the village and caught a bus back to London about dusk arriving at my room about 8 p. m. (To be continued)

Collecting Driftwood This Man's Unique Hobby

RANGELEY LAKES, MAINE.—Collecting driftwood and fallen limbs and stumps that resemble animals in shape is the unique hobby of Harry F. Allen, brother of former Gov. Frank G. Allen of Massachusetts. These pieces of wood have been fashioned into their strange shapes by the forces of nature—the waves, the rains, the blasts of winter, and the withering rays of the summer sun. As one approaches Allen's cottage he is greeted by an alligator poking its head over a boulder. The alligator is of wood. On the piazza, a fine buck deer of wood can be seen. Inside, other wooden images include a reptile with what appears to be the leg of another animal in its mouth. Some clever touches of paint on some of the specimens make them more life-like. On one wall there is a strange looking creature which a small card informs is the Gyastricetus or Cave Canis. "Lives on fish or trouser seats. Dangerous when angered," the sign reads. In other parts of the room there are a seal with a metal ring around its neck, a lizard on a mantelpiece, an eagle above a doorway, a Rocky mountain goat, chin whiskers and all.

Arizona's Capital The Arizona capital has been at Fort Whipple, Prescott, Tucson, Prescott again, and finally Phoenix.

God grant to him true pardon. So be it.

Of more recent and poignant memory is the tablet on the north wall of the chancel inscribed with the names of the 48 men of Stoke Poges slain in the world war. The village then had a population of under 1500 and their loss in proportion would be about the same as 120 for Buchanan. These war memorials loom very large in all of the little towns of England.

Man Bites Cow to Get Quick Action

SAN DIEGO, CALIF.—All the king's horses and all the king's men, assisted by a block and tackle, failed to get a cow out of San Diego river quicksand. Finally, Andy Gonzales had an idea. He bit the cow's tail. Bossy bawled, squirmed and shook herself right out of the quicksand.

Heroine With 40,000 Monuments Joan of Arc is the most celebrated heroine in the world if statues in her honor can prove it, for in France alone there are over 40,000 statues to the Maid of Orleans.

Saint-Malo a Walled City Louis XIV ordered that all sailors, officers and cannoneers of his admiral's fleet should be citizens of Saint-Malo. The men of this old port were famous as mariners and buccaneers. In one war they are said to have captured more than 1,500 vessels, some laden with gold and treasure. Saint-Malo is a walled city on a granite island in Brittany, a stronghold of the French navy and a sailors haven. Its romantic history includes the exciting tale of "la Duchesse Anne" who married two kings of France.

FOR THE PRICE OF ONE CIGARETTE

Sitting in cozy comfort, reading and smoking, we may not always realize how relatively inexpensive ELECTRICITY is... take the cost of operating the light—for the price of a single cigarette—not a package—the average home owner can light a 60-watt bulb for three hours!

FOR the price of a package of cigarettes, the average home owner can pay all his electric bill for more than a day. For the cost of taking the family to a movie show, they can use electricity for two weeks or more. The price of a Sunday driving trip might well pay the average household electric bill for a month or two.

These simple comparisons refute, better than any carefully prepared technical document, fallacious political arguments that the cost of electricity is a major problem. To Mr. Average Citizen, ELECTRICITY is the least important item in his family budget.

Based on figures reported by the U. S. Bureau of Internal Revenue on the consumption of cigarettes in the U. S., cigarette money amounted to 2.75 cents a day per capita. To realize how little electricity costs, compare this with the average cost of domestic electricity for each person in the U. S. of only 1.79 cents a day.
