

B.H.S. TO PLAY BRIDGEMAN HERE FRIDAY

U. of Mich. Extension Department Head to Lecture Monday Night

Now Here's the Proposition

Uncle
Hank
of
Hills
Corners
Says:

A bunch of Glendorry fellows that hev their cellers full of pepperment jugs and no place to sell 'em are goin' to petishun Congress to vote a big sum to buy it up fer a cure fer all this bellyakin around the country.

Those picture takin' boys down in Buchanan got the right idee—a lot of exposure is the main pint in a picture these days.

Free Advice
Here are some proper recipes for dodging most vexation
Whether in your private business or the confines of the nation;
The never-failing error is camping on our wake.

It fills our souls with terror both sleeping and awake
It costs us peace and honor; it costs us time and self—
There's times I break in sweat for fear I may make one myself.
But if perchance you make 'em, then never fail to greet 'em
As yours; just face the music and step right up and meet 'em
Just show you want to make them right so that no one can doubt it.
And having done the handsome thing, then shut your trap about it.

And here's the proper solvent for all kinds and breeds of trouble—
It will cut your cares in fraction and will make your pleasure double—
It was good in days of Nero, but it's right up to the minute—
Just have some business of your own and keep your nose right in it.

The flames were first seen by Mrs. Edith Houk who was in front of the H. O. McCarty home getting in a car. An alarm was sent from the McCarty home to the fire department.

Seniors Pick "Citadel" As Best Picture at Hollywood in January

Adapted from Best-Selling
Novel of Physician's
Life

The best film to appear at the Hollywood theatre during the month of January in the opinion of the members of Mrs. Velma Dunbar's senior English class is, "The Citadel," to be shown here Wednesday and Thursday, Jan. 18-19.

This picture is adapted from the very popular novel, by the same name, written by A. J. Cronin and topping fiction sales in the past year. Dr. Cronin's novel, "The Citadel," on which the picture is based, was published in the United States a year ago. It continues in the list of America's best-sellers and has passed the quarter-of-a-million mark abroad.

There are more than one hundred speaking roles in "The Citadel." The picture represents the largest cast ever assembled for a British-made production. The stellar roles are played by Robert Donat as Doctor Andrew Manson, and Rosalind Russell as the school-mistress who marries the doctor. Donat, one of England's leading film stars, has won an international audience as the result of his brilliant work in "The Count of Monte Cristo," "The Thirty-Nine Steps" and "The Ghost Goes West." Miss Russell, making her first appearance in an M-G-M British-made production, has scored here in a long list of successes, among them "Craig's Wife," "Night Must Fall" and "Live, Love and Learn." Prominent in the distinguished supporting cast of "The Citadel" are Ralph Richardson, Rex Harrison, Emyln Williams, Penelope Dudley Ward, Francis Sullivan, Mary Clare, Cecil Parker, Nora Swinburne and Edward Chapman.

The settings of "The Citadel" range from the drab background of the Welsh mining valleys to fashionable London, the story en-tailing sixty separate sets. One set duplicates a complete coal-mine with put-head, shaft and lift, floor of the mine with rails running away into the gloom and the naked coal face with miners drilling into the surface. Other locales represent smart Mayfair flats, West End nursing homes, London street scenes, and the glistening aspects of modern clinics and operating theatres.

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer produced this film at its British studio in Denham, England.

The dramatic story of a young and obscure physician in the Welsh collieries is revealed on the screen with all the emotional power of Cronin's outstanding novel. A whole village was reconstructed for one sequence and the depths of a coal mine are shown in another. When the mine collapses, Donat descends into the pit in one of the most thrilling scenes filmed.

The surgeon's fight to retain his ethical code, his love for the school-mistress and their marriage, followed by their struggles together in adversity and wealth, combine to form a work rich in emotional power and dramatic intensity. King Vidor's direction comes close to perfection.

Upton, who has been the President of the Council for the past ten years, was unanimously elected for the presidency next year. Under the new set up the Executive Board of the Council will meet every two months, and the District Boards will meet every two months, instead of monthly. The standing committees have been reduced to six. They will carry on the important work of policy development.

New Outfits

Of equal interest with the outcome is the fact that the Buchanan team appears in new uniforms, the cost of which was defrayed by the receipts of the games played by City League teams at the high school auditorium Tuesday evening. A good crowd attended, and the receipts were sufficient to defray the cost of the plain suits, not including the jackets.

Michigan Is Self Supporting in Food

With a fence around Michigan, the Student Union at Michigan State College still could serve a thousand customers each day if substitutes could be found for citrus fruits, spices and seafoods.

Seventy-five per cent of the foods used at the Union Cafeteria, college operated food service, is Michigan grown or processed. Many of the 6,000 students eat regularly at the Union and nearly all of them eat there occasionally. From Lake Superior and Lake Michigan fish to Benton Harbor cherries and peaches, from St. Clair salt to Frankenmuth cheese, the entire state contributes the best of its foods to feed the students. Figures compiled with the aid of food distributors show that 90 of the 125 staple articles of food used at the Union are grown or processed in Michigan.

Even a startlingly large majority of canned foods from applesauce to tomato juice, from asparagus to spinach and sauerkraut, and blueberries and mince-meat are among purchases obtained from canning factories of the state.

Local farmers bring their products to the Union. The farmers sell fruits and vegetables in season, eggs, chickens and turkeys when they have them.

Pratt's Rocks in New York State

Located in the eastern part of the village, they are high and overhanging and reached by a winding path. Many years ago they were carved with faces, trees and horses and then painted white. The story is that a tramp befriended by Colonel Pratt executed the figures with a hammer and chisel.

Now Here's the Proposition

Uncle
Hank
of
Mills
Corners
Says:

A bunch of Glendorry fellers that hev their cellers full o' pepper-jugs and no place to sell 'em are goin' to petishun Congress to vote a big sum to buy it up fer a cure fer all this bellyakin around the country.

Those picture takin' boys down in Buchanan got the right idee—a lot of exposure is the main pint in a picture these days.

Free Advice
Here are some proper recipes for dodging most vexation. Whether in your private business or the confines of the nation; The never-failing error is camping on our wake. It fills our souls with terror both sleeping and awake. It costs us peace and honor; it costs us time and self—There's times I break in sweat for fear I may make one myself. But if perchance you make 'em, then never fail to greet 'em. As yours; just face the music and step right up and meet 'em. Just show you want to make them right so that no one can doubt it. And having done the handsome thing, then shut your trap about it. And here's the proper solvent for all kinds and breeds of trouble—It will cut your cares in fraction and will make your pleasure double—It was good in days of Nero, but it's right up to the minute—Just have some business of your own and keep your nose right in it.

Seniors Pick "Citadel" As Best Picture at Hollywood in January

Adapted from Best-Selling
Novel of Physician's
Life

The best film to appear at the Hollywood theatre during the month of January in the opinion of the members of Mrs. Velma Dunbar's senior English class is, "The Citadel," to be shown here Wednesday and Thursday, Jan. 18-19.

This picture is adapted from the very popular novel, by the same name, written by A. J. Cronin and topping fiction sales in the past year. Dr. Cronin's novel, "The Citadel," on which the picture is based, was published in the United States a year ago. It continues in the list of America's best-sellers and has passed the quarter-of-a-million mark abroad. There are more than one hundred speaking roles in "The Citadel." The picture represents the largest cast ever assembled for a British-made production. The stellar roles are played by Robert Donat as Doctor Andrew Manson, and Rosalind Russell as the school-mistress who marries the doctor. Donat, one of England's leading film stars, has won an international audience as the result of his brilliant work in "The Count of Monte Cristo," "The Thirty-Nine Steps" and "The Ghost Goes West." Miss Russell, making her first appearance in an M-G-M British-made production, has scored here in a long list of successes, among them "Craig's Wife," "Night Must Fall" and "Live, Love and Learn." Prominent in the distinguished supporting cast of "The Citadel" are Ralph Richardson, Rex Harrison, Emyln Williams, Penelope Dudley Ward, Francis Sullivan, Mary Clare, Cecil Parker, Nora Swinburne and Edward Chapman.

The settings of "The Citadel" range from the drab background of the Welsh mining valleys to fashionable London, the story entailing sixty separate sets. One set duplicates a complete coal mine with put-head, shaft and lift, floor of the mine with rails running away into the gloom and the naked coal face with miners drilling into the surface. Other locales represent smart Mayfair flats, West End nursing homes, London street scenes, and the glistening aspects of modern clinics and operating theatres.

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer produced this film at its British studio in Denham, England.

The dramatic story of a young and obscure physician in the Welsh collieries is revealed on the screen with all the emotional power of Cronin's outstanding novel. A whole village was reconstructed for one sequence and the depths of a coal mine are shown in another. When the mine collapses, Donat descends into the pit in one of the most thrilling scenes filmed. The surgeon's fight to retain his ethical code, his love for the school-mistress and their marriage, followed by their struggles together in adversity and wealth, combine to form a work rich in emotional power and dramatic intensity. King Vidor's direction comes close to perfection.

The Buchanan high school hoopsters, still hot on the Victory Trail, will meet up with their old rivals, the Bridgman high school team, at the local gymnasium Friday evening, the games opening at 7:30 p. m.

Of equal interest with the outcome is the fact that the Buchanan team appears in new uniforms, the cost of which was defrayed by the receipts of the games played by City League teams at the high school auditorium Tuesday evening. A good crowd attended, and the receipts were sufficient to defray the cost of the plain suits, not including the jackets.

Michigan Is Self Supporting in Food

With a fence around Michigan, the Student Union at Michigan State College still could serve a thousand customers each day if substitutes could be found for citrus fruits, spices and seafoods.

Seventy-five per cent of the foods used at the Union Cafeteria, college operated food service, is Michigan grown or processed. Many of the 6,000 students eat regularly at the Union and nearly all of them eat there occasionally. From Lake Superior and Lake Michigan fish to Benton Harbor cherries and peaches, from St. Clair salt to Frankenmuth cheese, the entire state contributes the best of its foods to feed the students. Figures compiled with the aid of food distributors show that 90 of the 125 staple articles of food used at the Union are grown or processed in Michigan.

Even a startlingly large majority of canned foods from applesauce to tomato juice, from asparagus to spinach and sauerkraut, and blueberries and mince-meat are among purchases obtained from canning factories of the state.

Local farmers bring their products to the Union. The farmers sell fruits and vegetables in season, eggs, chickens and turkeys when they have them.

dred pounds of seed of a new sugar beet variety developed at Michigan State College leads to a prediction by Dr. Paul M. Harmer, college muck crops specialist, that sugar beets as a cash crop will be grown on a much greater portion of the state's muck soils than at present.

A sugar beet grown on muck formerly took second place to a beet grown on mineral or upland soil, the reason was that the sugar content failed to equal the upland beet.

Experimentation with this problem began back in 1921. Fertilization, Dr. Harmer recalls, helped the muck grown sugar beet increase its sugar content, but even a high-potash mixture failed to get this sugar up to the mineral soil product.

Rosierucians Predict Arab-Jew Alliance Against World Oppressors

The year 1939 will see the unity of a race of people separated since 2500 B. C. when as nomad tribes they roamed the fertile crescent of southwestern Asia. According to an annual booklet of predictions issued by the Rosierucian Order, Amore, the Arabs and the Jews, of the same racial origin, will, by persecution and oppression be united in 1939 into a strong Semitic power.

Ray Barbour, local member of the philosophic order, states that in the booklet prognosticating events for the new year is the declaration that: "The two oppressed peoples, the Jews and the Arabs will be forced into a common accord. Their aggression and agitation will spread, and demands will be made upon the nations of the world for lands in which they can dwell and govern themselves, free from the interference and influence of other races and powers." The booklet further presages that: "Not long after 1939, the Asiatic powers, such as Japan and sections of the new China, will make overtures to the Semites to support them in a united racial war against the rest of the world."

The Semitic people will refuse to collaborate." These prediction booklets, says Mr. Barbour, are one of a series which have been issued annually for years by the Rosierucians, and which are founded upon graphs and charts of economic and human tendencies, and not upon any superstitious method of practice. For the United States there is predicted an increase in exports of copper, steel, and grain, a general improvement in business, and a definite drop in the exportation of motion pictures. Opposition to the Federal Housing Administration activities by private investors in home and apartment properties is expected to loom in 1939.

School Purchases

New Polaroid Kit

A small kit of Polaroid lenses with a frame has been purchased by the high school for the physics class.

Polaroid is a transparent material, but when two sheets of it are placed together in a certain position, they become opaque. Through Polaroid, ordinarily colorless crystals take on beautiful colors.

Velmarian Lit

Sponsors Contest

Sponsored by the Velmarian Literary Society, a creative writing contest has been announced. The divisions are: seventh and eighth grades; ninth and tenth grades; eleventh and twelfth grades; and post graduates.

The fields covered are: short story, poetry, essay, and a radio play. Any number of manuscripts may be handed in and will be known by numbers only.

Teachers and Parents Confer

Friday, Jan. 24, to Be Set Aside—Meetings of Teachers and Patrons to Talk on Children

Friday, January 20, will be set aside for grade teacher and parent conferences. Our home reports have been an innovation here. Parents may have found them satisfactory or unsatisfactory. Perhaps no type of written report is as satisfactory as an individual conference.

Survey achievement tests were given in grade 3, 4, 5, 6 the last of October. These tests show achievement in reading, geography, history, literature, spelling, arithmetic fundamentals and problem solving, science, punctuation, capitalization, and language usage. Individual results of these tests have been arranged in graphic form. They will show whether a child is working at his required grade level as well as whether he is working at his maximum ability. Parents will have an opportunity at this conference to see these results as well as to see informal test results and other written work. Further details of this plan will be sent to each home later. We urge and hope parents will welcome this opportunity to discuss your child's work with his teacher.

School Library

Book of the Week "Midshipman Davy Jones," by Raymond J. Toner, U. S. N. R., is the story of a young midshipman and his experiences aboard frigates, sloops of war, and other fighting crafts during the war with England in 1812.

It is also the story of his capture, imprisonment in the Bermudas, and his escape. Fiction Books Recalled All fiction books have been called in to the library for the purpose of checking the records, especially the card index and the ## shelf list.

The shelf list is important because it is used when a new order for books is made out. It is so arranged that it shows how books are arranged on the shelves and whether there is more than one copy of a book.

The card index is useful to readers in case anyone wishes to find out the author of nearly any general information about the books. Since, however, it is necessary for book reports to be handed in, a small shelf of fiction books has been left to be checked out. Also any non-fiction book may be drawn from the library.

Members of the speech class have been designated to tell fables. Each story must have a moral. Personal letters were taken up in typing classes. Everyone in those classes brought standard sized business envelopes to be addressed during class time.

Projector Used in Science Talk

"Filmslides," illustrating the changes in the electron theory and giving an explanation, were shown in Mr. Carter's chemistry classes last week. The recently purchased projector was used with good results.

Boys Practice Nursing Work

Studying how a boy may be useful in caring for the sick, the boys' home economics class is practicing how to take temperatures and pulse, how to fill a hot water bottle, and to be generally useful.

FRENCH CLUB MEETS

The story, "Two Friends," by Guy de Maupassant was translated from the French by Betty Ann Miller at last week's meeting of the French Club. "French Cities," a game by Mary Cripe, was played, after which refreshments were served by Betty Ann Miller and Mary Cripe, the committee for refreshments.

Grade News

Miss Connell—Grade 1

We will memorize a poem next week in Language. We have decided on "Wynken, Blynken and Nod," by Eugene Field.

We have enjoyed listening to "A Child's Garden of Verses" by Robert Louis Stevenson.

We have finished our Nature Study lessons about The Deer and The Reindeer. We learned many new things about these animals. The Reindeer is a very useful animal to the people in the far north.

We have finished our food project and with the assistance of Miss Connell and Mrs. Lamb we will plan, prepare and serve breakfast in the Home Economics room. Each child should have a good breakfast before starting to school and from 10-12 hours sleep each night.

Miss Fritz—Second Grade

We brought one of our Christmas gifts to school Wednesday. Later we made pictures of the gifts we enjoyed most.

Miss Kinney—Third Grade

We have 41 boys and girls in our grade now.

We are very pleased to have a new girl with us. She is Eloise Young, and has been attending the Niles Public Schools.

Mrs. Fuller—Fourth Grade

The fourth graders have started a unit in Norway in their geography work. They plan a note book and sand table scene and are reading Norse folk tales.

Miss Ekstrom—Fifth Grade

When signing the date on their papers some of the pupils still have the habit of writing 1938, only to erase it and correct it to 1939.

The review of Science Book I has been completed. Eugene Sparta and Billy Swaim did outstanding work on the review. The class has begun work on Unit I in Science Book 2.

For written English the class is writing a friendly letter about Christmas vacation. This type of written work is stressed in fifth grade because it is the form of writing used most often by the pupil in his personal life.

Miss Jeffery—Sixth Grade

John Conrad, Violet Morten and Joy Holmquist have not returned to school due to illness.

The sixth grade is finding the reporting on books read real interesting and helpful.

The new book cases have added to the attractiveness of the room and made the library books more accessible.

Miss Jeffery is reading "Daddy Long Legs" and "The Story of Roland" to the class.

Mid-Semester

Tests Are Given

In all English classes a mid-semester standardized test was given. It is important because it shows the progress made by the student since he took a like test at the beginning of the year. It also shows the teacher the weaknesses that must be given special emphasis the coming semester. A third test of like nature will be given again at the end of the year.

President's Ball

to Be Held Jan. 28 at Reid's Casino

Buchananites who have been patronizing the annual ball honoring the birthday of President Roosevelt will most likely go to Niles rather than to Benton Harbor this year.

A ball honoring the event will be held at Reid's Casino at Barron Lake, with Mrs. Bill Zechlin in charge of arrangements. Atty. Bill Desenberg has tickets to sell.

The dance, second of the birthday events staged in Niles, was set for Jan. 28, two days prior to President Roosevelt's anniversary, in the belief a Saturday date would increase attendance.

UNIFIED TELEPHONE SERVICE MEANS CHEAPER SERVICE FOR YOU

IF THERE WERE NO BELL SYSTEM, with its 25 regional telephone companies, your telephone service would probably cost more. Local service in some areas would lag behind that in others. Long distance calls would be greatly complicated. Duplication of manufacturing and research, with duplication of expense, would mean higher telephone rates.

Instead, these telephone companies centralize their manufacturing in the Western Electric Company, their research in the Bell Telephone Laboratories. Whenever one company develops an improvement, it is promptly shared with the others.

This makes for economy and, because of the Michigan Bell Telephone Company's membership in the unified Bell System, means better telephone service at a lower cost to you.

B. H. Exchange Sponsors Circus

Receipts Indoor Circus to Improve Children's Playground Park

The Benton Harbor Exchange club will sponsor an indoor circus on January 25, both afternoon and evening, in the Naval Reserve armory.

This amusement spectacle, staged for residents of every community in Berrien and Van Buren counties, is a benefit for the children's playground park on Broadway for which the Exchange already have sponsored some $1,500 worth of sides, swings, teeter-totters and other equipment.

The two circus performances will have all the atmosphere of "the big top" transferred indoors. The Benton Harbor armory is being equipped with rings and trapezes, with mesh nets to catch the acrobats, heavy tarpaulin thoroughly covering the floor, and 1,000 pound mats with rubber runways installed for safety of the performers.

The Keyes brothers, owners of the largest circus in the United States playing to indoor audiences, have performed a number of Shrine dates in principal cities. They have written Exchange club sponsors that they will spare no expense in bringing beauty, dress and originality of acts to deliver a fast hour and a half of moving program.

Children in Court

By Judge Malcolm Hatfield

Improper Discipline
After a hearing in juvenile court, two groups of parents learned to their amazement that they themselves were partly responsible for their children's disobedience.

A careful investigation by a court officer previous to the court hearing disclosed the following facts:
The parents of the first child continually bickered with each other over the type of discipline to be applied. If the father gave a command, the mother invariably countermanded it and defended the child.

The parents of the second offspring frequently threatened her with a whipping, yet never actually wielded the rod. On several occasions they sent their daughter to bed because she misbehaved when guests were present. After the visitors departed, they contradicted themselves by permitting the girl to rise.

As long as parents revoke their own orders, or fail to carry out a warning, they must expect disobedience. When children do not learn obedience in the home, there is little the school can do to teach it to them. Eventually when they are brought into court they must pay the penalty for the failure of their parents to give them proper training.

Hitch Hikers

Juvenile authorities have not yet apprehended the two young hitch hikers who held up and tied a business man who had given them a ride on a highway in a certain town.

Hours later the merchant was found securely bound to a tree, where his assailants had left him. It was fortunate that they had not taken his life to cover up the theft of his money and automobile. With the problem of transportation thus solved by friendly motorists, thousands of boys are inclined to throw off all family ties, and develop into shiftless vagabonds, unless hitch-hiking is completely discouraged by parents and motorists.
